The University of North Carolina and Nike extended their agreement for eight more years beginning in July 2002. The agreement provides each varsity team with shoes, apparel, equipment bags and other products. It also provides $100,000 annually to the Chancellor's Academic Enhancement Fund for undergraduate teaching and $100,000 annually to the athletic department to reward Olympic sport programs and coaches for academic and athletic excellence.
The Tar Heel men's basketball team wears Nike's Jumpman line, named after Michael Jordan.

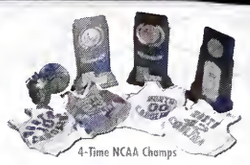
2006-07 PREVIEW



Depth. Size. Experience. Three things the North Carolina Tar Heels lacked a year ago are once again at head coach Roy Williams' disposal at the start of the 2006-07 college basketball season. Of course, experience is relative these days and a UNC team comprised of 11 scholarship freshmen and sophomores is still one of the youngest in school history.

Two years ago the Tar Heels won the NCAA championship with two seniors and three juniors in the starting lineup. Last year, the youngest team in Carolina history proved to be one of the most pleasant surprise stories in the country as Williams directed a team with two and sometimes three freshman starters to a 23-8 record, a second-place finish in the Atlantic Coast Conference and a No. 3 seed in the NCAA Tournament.

This year, Carolina returns 80 percent of its scoring and 76 percent of its rebounding, a stark contrast to last season when senior David Noel was the leading returning scorer at just 3.9 points per game.

Sophomore All-America Tyler Hansbrough and senior Reyshawn Terry were the top scorers last year. They averaged 18.9 and 14.3 points, respectively, and combined to grab more than 14 rebounds per contest. They lead a cast of three seniors (including walk-on Dewey Burke), two juniors (including walk-on Surry Wood), six sophomores and six freshmen who look to build on last season's accomplishments, which included wins at No. 1 Duke and No. 10 Kentucky, a 7-1 ACC record on the road and a No. 10 final ranking in the Associated Press poll.

Hansbrough, a 6-9 power forward from Poplar Bluff, Mo., had one of the most decorated freshman seasons in ACC history and became the first Tar Heel freshman to earn All-America honors. He was the consensus National Freshman of the Year and was the first freshman to earn unanimous first-team All-ACC and conference rookie of the year honors. A 10-time ACC Rookie of the Week, Hansbrough became the first UNC frosh to lead the team in both scoring and rebounding – and also led the team in field goal percentage and steals.

"I don't think there will be any more pressure on Tyler," says Williams, who sports a 493-124 record in 18 years as a collegiate head coach. "Last year people looked at him in the preseason to be our savior. I would expect him to do almost the same as he did except he may play three or four minutes less because of our depth. We hope we can keep him fresher in crucial parts of the game."

The ACC's second-leading scorer netted 20 or more points 14 times, including an ACC freshman and Smith Center record 40 points against Georgia Tech.

"Tyler had an unbelievable freshman year," says Williams, who earned National and ACC Coach-of-the-Year honors in 2006. "He does more to prepare his body than any player I have ever been around. He has total dedication and is a fierce competitor. He will push himself to have an even better year. One area he needs to improve is playing without turning the ball over, but I am confident he will do that."

Terry, a 6-8 swingman from Winston-Salem, N.C., increased his scoring by 12.0 points from his sophomore to junior season. That was the best improvement by any player in the ACC last year and the second-highest increase ever by a Tar Heel. He earned third-team All-ACC honors after scoring in double figures 24 times, including a career-high 25 at Kentucky. Terry averaged 16.0 points in ACC road action.

"Reyshawn improved drastically," says Williams. "And he worked harder this off-season than he ever has. He just needs to relax and allow himself to think through what he does on the floor. If he does that he will be a well-rounded player. He's such a nice young man that he worries about making mistakes."

Wes Miller and Bobby Frasor, Carolina's starting backcourt the final two months, return to the lineup. They combined to make 47 starts, including all 31 games by Frasor.

Miller, a 5-11 senior, was Carolina's defensive player of the year, earning the coaches' award for best defense in nine games (eight times in ACC play). The Charlotte, N.C., native led UNC with 64 three-point field goals and shot 44.1 percent from behind the arc, the seventh-highest percentage ever by a Tar Heel. Miller was inserted into the starting lineup at Florida State in late January and responded with six three-pointers and a career-high 18 points in a crucial, 81-80 road victory.

"Wes Miller probably got more out of individual work habits than any player I've ever been around," says Williams. "He knows he has a challenge ahead of him to stay on the floor. It's hard to keep going to the well by working harder than everyone else because at some point they are going to work harder, too. But Wes was huge for us last year."

Frasor, a 6-3 point guard from Blue Island, Ill., was fourth in the ACC in assists and earned all-conference freshman team honors. He had a season high 17 points in the home win over NC State and had 12 assists against Saint Louis, the best single-game figure in the ACC all year. Frasor committed only one turnover every 11 minutes and had more assists than errors in 24 games.

"Confidence is such a big part of the game and it really manifests itself in the point guard position," says Williams. "I expect Bobby to be more comfortable this season because he has the confidence gained from his experiences last year."

Junior point guard Quentin Thomas has 125 assists in 65 college games. The Oakland, Calif., native played his best basketball as a Tar Heel in a stretch of key ACC games in February. He had 78 assists and 37 turnovers for the season and had more assists than turnovers in 14 of the final 16 games. He matched his career high with seven points and had three second-half assists in the win at Duke.

"Quentin improved a great deal late in the season because he was enjoying the game more and not trying to meet expectations," says Williams. "As he felt less pressure he began to play well."

Sophomore guard Marcus Ginyard started the first 14 games, then settled into an integral role off the bench over the second half of the season. He was hampered by a preseason thumb injury and a mid-season illness. Still, the Alexandria, Va., native averaged 9.8 points in a five-game stretch in February that included wins over Wake Forest, NC State, Maryland, Virginia and Duke. He scored a season-high 14 points twice and was in double figures four other times. He played outstanding defense in the win at Duke, as he helped limit JJ Redick to one field goal in his last 16 attempts.

"Marcus was set back by the injury at the beginning of the year and I'm sure it was disappointing for him to lose his starting position, but he kept playing hard," says Williams. "I think he will be much more confident this year. He's really worked hard on his shot. He had a sensational defensive game at Duke. He will be one of the better defenders to play at Carolina when his career is over."

Sophomore forward Danny Green showed

Bob Donnan

flashes of brilliance and versatility throughout his rookie season. The 6-5 small forward from North Babylon, N.Y., led the Tar Heels with 32 blocked shots and was fourth in scoring at 7.5 points per game. He became the first perimeter player to ever lead Carolina in blocked shots. He scored 17 points in his collegiate debut versus Gardner-Webb, one of nine games in which he scored in double figures. He hit a trio of three-pointers in the win at Florida State, made the game-saving defensive play in the win at Duke and had 15 points against Murray State in the first round of the NCAA Tournament.

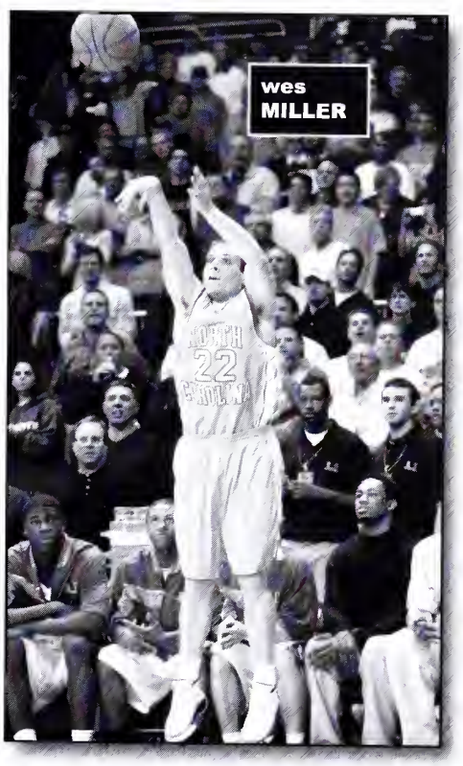
"Danny showed his athleticism by being our leading shot blocker as the substitute three man," says Williams. "He has a habit of getting his hand on the ball. I like his shot and I expect he will have more urgency this year in going after the ball and defending. He will become a really solid player when he pays more attention to detail."

Sophomore forward Mike Copeland played in 16 contests last year after joining the Tar Heels just prior to the start of the school year. The 6-7 Winston-Salem, N.C., native showed improved play as the year went on.

"Michael got better and better," says Williams. "He had a huge deficit early because he came in later than the others and hurt his knee at the start of practice. He got much tougher as the year went on. Michael can score, but he must continue to improve defensively."

The 10 returning Carolina players are joined by six scholarship freshmen that are among the most heralded newcomers in the country.

Wayne Ellington, a 6-4 shooting guard from Wynnewood, Pa., was co-MVP in Philadelphia last year, won the three-point shooting contest at the McDonald's All-Star Game and matched Hansbrough's event record with 31 points in the Nike Hoop Summit.



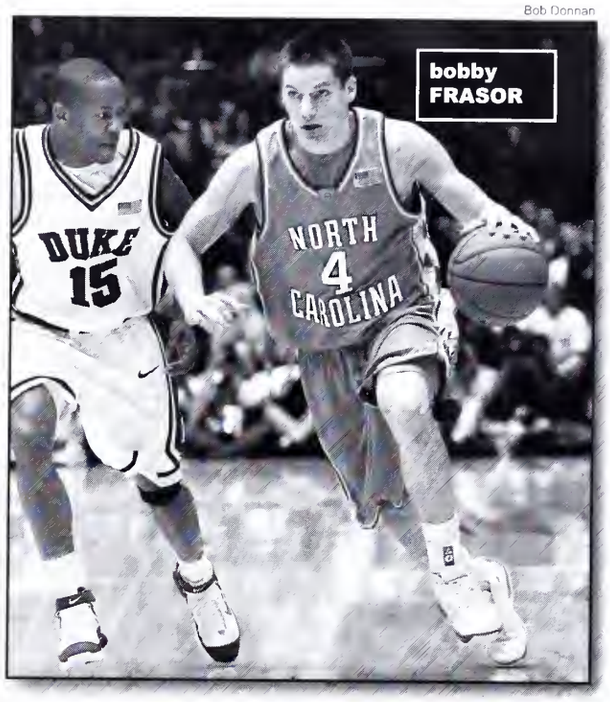
"Wayne is a tremendous scorer," says Williams. "He has the ability to score a lot without anyone thinking he's a ball hog. I know he's going to work hard to become a complete player."

William Graves, a 6-6 forward, led Greensboro (N.C.) Dudley to consecutive state championships and was the 2006 Associated Press Player of the Year in North Carolina.

"William is really gifted," says Williams. "He can shoot, handle, pass, defend and rebound. He has to work to maintain his weight and therefore his stamina, but if he does those things he can be an outstanding player."

Ty Lawson, a 5-11 point guard from Clinton, Md., led Oak Hill Academy to a 42-1 record last year and earned first-team All-America honors from USA Today after averaging 23.8 points and 9.1 assists per game.

Bob Donnan



"Ty has tremendous acceleration and explosiveness," says Williams. "He has the ability to push the ball at the pace I want."

Alex Stepheson, a 6-9 forward from Los Angeles, Calif., had 16 games last year with 20 or more rebounds and was co-MVP of the Roundball Classic.

"He's an outstanding defender, shot blocker and rebounder," says Williams. "Alex continues to work on being comfortable on the offensive end of the floor."

Deon Thompson, a 6-8 forward from Torrance, Calif., averaged 21.5 points, 13.8 rebounds and 4.6 blocked shots last year.

"Deon made tremendous strides during his last two years in high school, as much as any player I've ever seen," says Williams. "He was a 6-5, 305-pound defensive tackle as a freshman. But he made a commitment to improve his game and came into college just under 250 pounds. Now that he has his body where it needs to be, he can work on his game and he is making big strides there."

Brandan Wright, a 6-9 forward from Nashville, Tenn., scored more than 2,600 career points and blocked nearly 600 shots. He was MVP of the state tournament four times and was Tennessee's Mr. Basketball in each of the last three seasons.

"Brandan has a tremendous natural sense of blocking shots and rebounding the ball," says Williams. "He's got to get bigger and stronger and improve shooting the ball."

For the first time as head coach of the Tar Heels, Williams has the depth to comfortably play his style of fast-paced basketball on both ends of the court. The Tar Heels are three-deep at the point (Frasor, Thomas and Lawson), two-guard (Miller, Ginyard and Ellington) and small forward (Terry, Green and Graves) positions and have five frontcourt players (Hansbrough, Copeland, Stepheson, Thompson and Wright).

"I like having more depth," says Williams. "Of course that means we are counting on freshmen to come through and sometimes they don't. But I am hopeful that they will. I am hopeful that we will play an even faster pace than we've played the last two years. With depth you need to play faster. If you play a 60-possession game and a guy plays half the game, he plays 30 possessions. But if you play 100 possessions and a guy plays half the game then he plays 50 possessions."

Williams says the added depth will lead to even more aggressive defense.

"It allows us to pick up more in the backcourt, especially with Bobby and Ty, and we can probably trap some more. We can gamble a little more on defense because Tyler can be more of a shot blocker with more depth. Brandan and Alex have also shown they can block shots."

Williams isn't worried that the success from a year ago will negatively impact his returning players.

"I am not concerned for one second about them being complacent," he says. "They worked so hard in the off-season. They made some really significant gains there. The sophomores will be more comfortable, especially Bobby, Danny and Marcus. All three should show significant improvement. Their comfort level will be better and they will be more confident.

"It's good for everyone to have competition. The kids will determine who plays, not me. It's easy. This is what I'll tell them from day one – 'Do what I tell you to do to win. Run, rebound, defend and share the ball. Don't get caught up in the X's and O's. There is no middle ground. Do those things or you will not play.'

"The character of our kids is so high they are going to take care of playing time issues. They are going to accept whatever they need to accept for the team to do well. I haven't spent one second worrying about that."

The Tar Heels open the 2006-07 regular season in Charlotte on Nov. 14 against Sacred Heart in the opening round of the NIT Tip-Off.

AT CAROLINA

One of four returning starters • Is as hard-working a player as Roy Williams has ever coached • Collegiate odyssey has gone from James Madison (where he played in 2002-03), to walk-on at Carolina (transferred to UNC in 2003-04), to starting two-guard for the defending national champions • Was the team's best defender and three-point shooter last year • Became a starter in late January and the Tar Heels went 13-4 the rest of the season • Gym rat who can be found shooting and working on his game at all hours • Worked in the off-season on his ball-handling skills and shooting off the dribble • Is quick enough to defend the other team's point guards, something he often did last year • Scored 26 points in 24 games as a sophomore and 222 points in 31 games in 2005-06.

JUNIOR SEASON (2005-06)

Season Notes: Shot 44.1 percent from three-point range, the seventh-best figure in UNC single-season history • Won the Carmichael Cobb Award (2005-06 defensive player of the year) and the Foy Roberson Award (most improved player) • Led the Tar Heels with nine defensive player-of-the-game awards and 64 three-point field goals • Won Carolina's defensive player of the game eight times in ACC action (NC State, Miami, Virginia, Boston College, Maryland, Clemson, at NC State and Virginia in ACC Tournament) • Connected on three or more three-pointers nine times (six at Florida State, five at NC State and four vs. Arizona and Boston College in ACC semifinal) • Made at least two three-pointers in 17 of the last 23 games • Had a streak of 22 consecutive games with a three snapped in regular-season finale at Duke • Scored a total of 222 points, 192 from three-point range • Made 19 more three-pointers than any other Tar Heel • Was eighth in the ACC in threes made per game.

Had 45 assists, 13 turnovers and 21 steals in the last 18 games • Committed 10 turnovers in 439 minutes played in the 17 games after he joined the starting lineup (on Jan. 22) • Carolina was 13-4 with him in the starting lineup ▪ Played at least 20 minutes 22 times • Played turnover-free in 10 of 22 games in which he played at least 20 minutes • Had a 2.7 to 1 assist/turnover ratio (60 to 22) • Shot free throws in just 11 games • Scored in double figures eight times • In addition to a career-high 18 at Florida State, scored 15 at NC State, 15 vs. Virginia in ACC quarterfinal, 14 vs. Arizona, 12 at Kentucky, 12 vs. Boston College in ACC semifinal, 11 against Cleveland State and 10 vs. Duke • UNC was 6-2 when he scored in double figures (losses to Duke and BC).

Game Highlights

November: Played 14 minutes with two assists and no turnovers against Illinois and did a good job defending Dee Brown.

December: Hit a pair of first-half three-pointers at Kentucky, then hit a three and a driving lay-up in the second half in the win in Lexington ▪ Seven points (2-3 3FG) and career-high five rebounds vs. Davidson.

January: Three-pointer with

The best players I've ever guarded: Raymond Felton and Rashad McCants

My greatest sports moment: My first start at Carolina against FSU

Favorite shot I've hit in a game: Any lay-up because there haven't been many

I pretended to be (this player) as a kid: Michael Jordan

I got started playing basketball: My parents tell me I was shooting and dribbling a basketball at two years old. The first league I played in was a YMCA league at six years old. I can't explain why, but I've always loved playing and watching the game.

Favorite NBA players: Sean May, Rashad McCants, Raymond Felton and Marvin Williams

Favorite NBA teams: Charlotte Bobcats, Minnesota Timberwolves and Atlanta Hawks

Favorite former Carolina basketball player: King Rice

Favorite non-basketball athlete to watch: Tiger Woods

This summer I worked on this part of my game: Shooting off the dribble

To get ready for games, I like to: Listen to Miles Davis and relax

I did this for fun this summer: Vacationed in the Bahamas

My favorite class in high school: U.S. History

Talent I have outside of basketball: Ping-pong

Non-basketball skill I wish I could do better: Singing

Person or people I admire the most and why: My parents because they have put up with me for so long

The best advice I ever received (and who told me that): "Relax!"-CB McGrath

My most prized possession is: My shoes

Post-school ambitions: Play and coach basketball

My SportsCenter dream highlight would be: A dunk

Most notable thing someone in my family other than me has accomplished: My brother won a state championship in high school football

The best thing about going to school at Carolina is: Carolina basketball

The best part about being a Tar Heel basketball player is: Being a part of the Carolina basketball family and the tradition

The best thing about Coach Williams is: His competitiveness

The funniest thing Coach Williams says all the time is: "It's a wonderful day in the neighborhood."

2006 HONORS
2006 Third-Team All-ACC

AT CAROLINA

One of four returning starters • Was a third-team All-ACC selection in his first season of extensive playing time • Preseason All-ACC and All-America candidate • Had the highest scoring increase from the previous season of any player in the ACC • One of the most athletic players in all of college basketball • Has long-range shooting ability and defends and rebounds well • Still learning to make the best decisions on the floor and play with more confidence.

JUNIOR SEASON (2005-06)

Season Notes: Earned third-team All-ACC honors • First Tar Heel to earn All-ACC honors after not starting a game in his first two years since Shammond Williams was a third-team pick as a junior in 1997 • Increased his scoring by 12.0 points per game from his sophomore to junior seasons, the second-highest increase by any Tar Heel (record is 12.1 by Donald Williams, who went from 2.2 points per game in 1991-92 to 14.3 in 1992-93) • Had the highest scoring increase from 2004-05 to 2005-06 among ACC players • One of only two players in the ACC to increase his scoring by 10 or more points (Georgia Tech's Anthony Morrow, +10.3).

Scored in double figures 24 times (was in double figures twice as a freshman and one time as a sophomore) • Scored 20-plus points in back-to-back games for the first time in his career with 24 at Wake Forest on Feb. 19 and 20 at NC State on Feb. 22 • Averaged 16.0 points in ACC road games • Scored in double figures in 15 of the last 19 games (17 or more in 11 of those 19 games) • Shot 50 percent or better from the floor in 11 of the last 17 games • Started 30 of 31 games at small forward • Shot 51.8 percent from the floor and averaged 15.4 points in Carolina's 23 wins and 35.0 percent and 11.0 points in eight defeats • Averaged 15.1 points in ACC games • Second on the team in scoring at 14.3 points per game, 45 three-point field goals and 27 blocked shots • Led UNC and was seventh in the ACC in free throw percentage at .800 • Converted 99 of his last 118 free throws (83.9 percent).

This summer I worked on this part of my game: Jump shot

To get ready for games, I like to: Pray

I did this for fun this summer: Play basketball and lift weights

My favorite class in high school (and why): Home economics because we had the opportunity to cook things.

Talents I have outside of basketball: Singing and playing the drums

Non-basketball skill (or activity) I wish I could do better: Play ping-pong

People in history I'd most like to meet: Malcolm X and Martin Luther King Jr.

Person or people I admire the most and why: My mother because she took care of me and my sisters and brothers.

The best advice I ever received (and who told me that): You can do whatever you put your mind to as long as you keep God first-My mother

My most prized possession is: My family

My SportsCenter dream highlight would be: Hitting the game-winning shot in the national championship game

Most notable thing someone in my family other than me has accomplished: My mother raised five girls and three boys.

The best thing about going to school at Carolina is: It's a free education

The best part about being a Tar Heel basketball player is: The family atmosphere

The best thing about Coach Williams is: He's fair

The funniest thing Coach Williams says all the time is: "It's a wonderful day in the neighborhood."

AT CAROLINA

One of the more experienced players on the team • One of two remaining players (Reyshawn Terry) who saw action in the 2005 national championship game against Illinois • Has 125 assists and 85 turnovers in 65 games • Assist-turnover ratio went from 1:1 as a freshman to better than 2:1 as a sophomore • Played his best basketball as a Tar Heel in a stretch of games from late January to early March 2006 • Made clutch plays in a number of UNC wins, including the one at Duke when his driving layup over Shelden Williams gave Carolina its first lead of the game late in the first half • Became a better basketball player when he relaxed out on the floor.

SOPHOMORE SEASON (2005-06)

Season Notes: Had more assists than turnovers in 14 of last 16 games • Had 44 assists and 14 turnovers in those 14 games (since a two-turnover in two-minute outing at Florida State on Jan. 22) • Finished the year with 78 assists and 37 turnovers (2.1 to 1 ratio) and had more assists than turnovers in 21 of 28 games played • Made 9 of 12 from the floor and scored 20 points in last three regular-season ACC contests against Maryland, Virginia and Duke • Averaged 12 minutes per game • Scored 26 field goals in 28 games (no threes) • Missed three early games (Illinois, Kentucky and Saint Louis) due to a stress fracture in the third metatarsal of his left foot.

Game Highlights

November: Had five assists and no turnovers against Cleveland State and four assists and one turnover against UC Santa Barbara.

2006 ACC All-Freshman Team

AT CAROLINA

Joined Phil Ford and Raymond Felton as the only Tar Heel point guards to start their entire freshman seasons • Earned All-ACC Freshman Team honors after placing fourth in the conference in assists per game • Displayed great work habits in the off-season to get physically faster and stronger • Good shooter who understands where and when to get the ball to other scorers • Defended both point and 2-guards last year • Displayed uncanny poise as a freshman, making key last-minute free throws in close wins at both Kentucky and Duke • Coaches need him to be more consistent and attack the defense more with the ball.

FRESHMAN SEASON (2005-06)

Season Notes: One of two Tar Heels (with Tyler Hansbrough) on the 2006 ACC All-Freshman Team • Third Tar Heel point guard to make the ACC Freshman Team (Ed Cota in 1997 and Raymond Felton in 2003) • Fourth in the ACC in assists with 4.4 per game and fourth in assist-error ratio • Started all 31 contests at the point • Averaged one turnover every 11.4 minutes of action • Had more assists than turnovers in 24 games (and in nine of the last 11 contests) • Made 34 for 44 from the free throw line (77.3 percent) • Scored in double figures seven times with a high of 17 vs. NC State • Had a season-high 12 assists vs. Saint Louis.

Game Highlights

November: Had seven points and only two turnovers in 33 minutes against All-America Dee Brown in the 68-64 loss to Illinois • Helped limit Brown to three assists, five turnovers and 0 for 6 from three-point-range.

TYLER HANSBROUGH

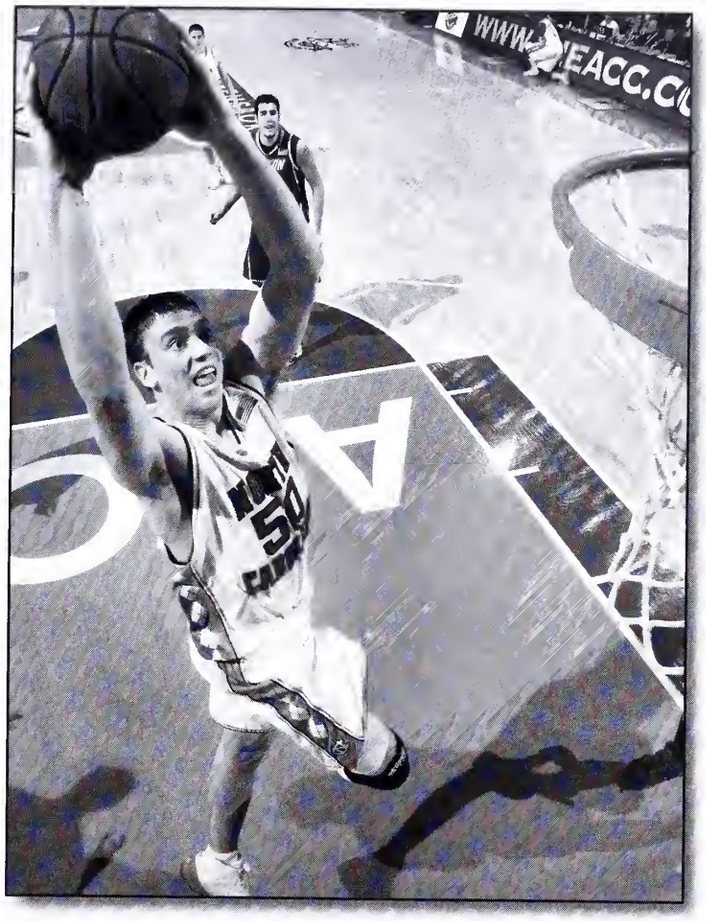
mous All-ACC picks • Is the sixth player to earn first-team All-ACC honors as a freshman (Clemson's Skip Wise in 1975, Georgia Tech's Kenny Anderson in 1990, Maryland's Joe Smith in 1995, Georgia Tech's Stephon Marbury in 1996 and Carolina's Antawn Jamison in 1996) • One of 22 players on the national ballot for the John R. Wooden Award, given to the national player of the year • Had the fourth-highest scoring average by a freshman in ACC history (and highest by a Tar Heel) at 18.9 per game • Was second in the ACC in scoring behind Redick • Only one freshman ever finished as high in ACC scoring (Georgia Tech's Mark Price led the league in 1982-83) • Carolina's seventh ACC Rookie of the Year (Sam Perkins in 1981, Michael Jordan in 1982, J.R. Reid in 1987, Ed Cota in 1997, Joseph Forte in 2000 and Marvin Williams in 2005) • NABC and USBWA All-District selection.

Led the ACC in offensive rebounds (3.58 per game), was second in scoring (18.9), fifth in field goal percentage (.570) and sixth in rebounding (7.8) • Led Carolina in scoring, field goal percentage, rebounding, steals (38) and trips to the free throw line (187 of 253, 73.9 percent) • First UNC post player to lead in steals since Scott Williams in 1987-88 (Hansbrough and Williams are only post players to lead the team since steals were officially recorded in 1975-76).

First Tar Heel freshman to lead the team in scoring and rebounding • Only two freshmen had led UNC in scoring (Forte in 1999-2000 and Rashad McCants in 2002-03) • Only two freshmen had led UNC in rebounding (Reid in 1986-87 and Jamison in 1995-96) • Broke McCants' freshman scoring average record (17.0 in 2002-03).

First Tar Heel and seventh ACC player to lead his team in scoring, rebounding, field goal percentage and steals in the same season • Was the 12th time a player led Carolina in scoring, rebounding and field goal percentage (others to achieve that feat are Lennie Rosenbluth, Pete Brennan, Billy Cunningham, Bobby Jones, Mitch Kupchak, Brad Daugherty, Reid, Jamison and Sean May).

Bob Donnan



Averaged an ACC-best 8.2 free throw attempts • Attempted 118 more free throws than any other Tar Heel • Made 21 straight free throws in one stretch • Shot Smith Center record 14 for 14 from the line against NC State and 13 for 14 vs. Miami • Hansbrough's 187 free throws made and 253 attempts are UNC freshman records • The previous marks were 152 made by Sam Perkins in 1980-81 and 205 attempts by Perkins and Jerry Stackhouse • The 187 made were the sixth-most in a season by any Tar Heel and the 253 attempts were the eighth-most in a season • Had 42 three-point play opportunities and converted the free throw 29 times.

Scored in double figures 30 times and scored 20 or more in 14 games (and 25 or more five times) • Averaged 20.4 points and 7.6 rebounds (3.9 offensive boards) and shot 56.2 percent from the floor and 78.7 percent from the line in ACC games.

Won ACC Freshman-of-the-Week honors 10 times, tying Georgia Tech guard Kenny Anderson's all-time ACC record set in 1989-90 • Previous UNC record was six by Sam Perkins in 1980-81.

Carolina's defensive player of the game five times (Gardner-Webb, UC Santa Barbara, Virginia Tech, at Miami and Georgia Tech) • Named Co-ACC Player of the Week after Virginia and Duke wins, the first freshman to win ACC Player of the Week honors in the regular season since Jamison in 1996 (Duke's Jason Williams won the award as the ACC Tournament MVP in 2000).

November: Posted his first double-double with 15 points and 11 rebounds versus UC Santa Barbara • Had nine offensive rebounds against UCSB.

December: Grabbed 10 boards in the win at Kentucky • Made 9 of 12 shots from the floor en route to 21 points against Saint Louis • Had eight steals against UNC Asheville • That tied the Smith Center record and equaled the second-most in any game ever by a Tar Heel • Only the third Tar Heel (since steals were kept officially beginning in 1975-76) to have at least eight steals in a game (Derrick Phelps and Dudley Bradley) • The eight steals were the most of any ACC player all year.

Carolina's ACC Rookies of the Year
Sam Perkins, 1981
Michael Jordan, 1982
JR Reid, 1987

January: Scored a game-high 20 points and had four rebounds, two assists and two steals in 82-69 win over NC State • Went 14 for 14 from the free throw line, the best performance by a Tar Heel in a game since Phil Ford went 16 for 16 at NC State on Feb. 24, 1976 • Dunk with 2:32 to play broke a 69-all tie and began a 13-0 UNC run to end the game • Led all scorers on both teams with 20 points and grabbed nine rebounds in win at Virginia Tech • Scored a key basket with 1:08 to play, then made two free throws with nine seconds to play to seal the win • Was Carolina's defensive player of the game, helping to limit Coleman Collins to just seven points on five shot attempts • Scored 25 points and had seven rebounds and two blocks in 80-69 loss to Miami • Posted his second double-double with 18 points and 10 rebounds at Virginia • Final play deflection of a Florida State pass helped secure 81-80 win in Tallahassee • Scored 26 points and had a game-high eight boards in loss to Boston College • Led all players on both teams with 21 points and 11 rebounds in win over Arizona.

February: Had 15 points, eight rebounds in win at Maryland • Scored 11 of his 15 points in the second half • Had 14 points, nine rebounds (six offensive) and three steals against Duke • Led all scorers with 25 points on 11 of 17 shooting from the floor and added seven rebounds and two blocks in the 80-70 win at Miami • Was Carolina's defensive player of the game • Was named ACC Rookie of the Week for his play against Duke and Miami • Set ACC single-game freshman record, UNC freshman record and Smith Center record with 40 points in win over Georgia Tech • Made 13 of 17 from the floor, 14 of 19 from the line and added 10 rebounds • Scored 23 in the first half and 17 in the second as UNC rallied from 50-30 deficit to win, 82-75 • Also was Carolina's co-defensive player of the game • Broke ACC freshman record of 38 points by Skip Wise of Clemson in 1974, UNC freshman record of 31 and Smith Center record of 38 • First 40-point game by a Tar Heel since Shammond Williams had 42 at Georgia Tech in 1998 • Most points by a Tar Heel at home since Charles Scott had 43 against Wake Forest in 1970 • Tied his own Smith Center record for free throws made (14) and set arena record for attempts (19) in a game • Scored 15 of Carolina's 20 points in an 11-minute span midway through the second half in which the Tar Heels went from eight points behind to one point ahead • Was first Carolina player to score 60 points in consecutive games since Forte had 36 vs. Florida State and 28 at Virginia in 2000-01 • Most points by a Tar Heel in consecutive games since Jamison had 66 (35 vs. Duke and 31 at Georgia Tech) on Feb. 5-8, 1998 • Had 17 points and six rebounds in win at Wake Forest • Helped limit Wake Forest center Eric Williams to four second-half points on 2 of 7 shooting from the floor • Had 17 points and five rebounds (four offensive) in win at NC State • Led all scorers with 21 points and had seven rebounds in home win vs. Maryland • Was named ACC Rookie of the Week for his play at NC State and vs. the Terps.

March: Led all scorers with 27 points, 19 of which came in the second half, in 83-76 win at top-ranked Duke • Three-pointer (his second in three attempts in 2005-06) with two seconds left on the shot clock gave UNC a 75-64 lead with 3:18 to play • Added 10 boards for his fifth double-double • Made four free throws in last 11 seconds • Played a season-high 37 minutes • Won ACC Co-Player-of-the-Week (first time) and Freshman-of-the-Week (10th time) honors for his play vs. Virginia and at Duke • First-team All-ACC Tournament selection (only player selected from a team not in the finals) • Averaged 20.0 points and 9.5 rebounds in two games • Scored 23 in semifinals vs. Boston College • Was his 13th 20-point game, a UNC freshman record • Led all scorers with 24 points and shared game rebounding honors with nine in 69-65 NCAA first round win over Murray State • Had three second-half steals • Broke a 65-all tie with a baseline jump hook with 42 seconds to play • Held to 10 points in the season-ending loss to George Mason, his second-lowest scoring output of the year.

ACC Coach of the Year

National Coach of the Year
(AP, USBWA, Rupp, SI.com, Dick Vitale)

When Sports Illustrated published its 2005-06 preseason issue, it was only somewhat surprising that the reigning national champion Tar Heels were not among the 65 schools SI predicted to qualify for the NCAA Tournament. It had been well documented that Carolina was defending its crown after losing its top seven scorers, unprecedented in ACC history, and would likely start two and possibly three freshmen.

The Atlantic Coast Sports Media Association voted UNC sixth in the ACC in its preseason poll, a ranking some observers thought might even be too lofty for a team whose leading returning scorer averaged just 3.9 points per game.

And when Gardner-Webb shot 59 percent from the floor in the first half of the opening game, one in which Carolina relinquished a 10-point second-half lead and David Noel hit a last-second three-pointer to give the Tar Heels an 83-80 win, it confirmed that the season ahead would be wild and unpredictable.

That proved to be the case, but not in the way some predicted and Carolina fans feared. Instead, the Tar Heels were one of the country's best stories, winning 23 games, finishing second in the ACC and earning a No. 3 seed in the NCAA Tournament. In a career marked by brilliance, it may have been head coach Roy Williams's finest coaching effort, earning him National and ACC Coach-of-the-Year honors.

The inexperienced Tar Heels turned heads with an early December win at 10th-ranked Kentucky, went 7-1 on the road in conference play, finished the year 12-4 in the ACC and were No. 10 in the final Associated Press ranking.

The Tar Heels knocked off No. 1 ranked Duke on Senior Night in Cameron Indoor Stadium, overcame a 13-point deficit to win at Florida State, a 20-point deficit to beat Georgia Tech and beat 15th-ranked NC State twice, including a 24-point rout in Raleigh.

Despite a lineup that scored exactly one point in the 2005 NCAA title game against Illinois, Carolina led the ACC in field goal percentage defense, assists and rebounding, and was second-best in the league in field goal shooting and scoring.

Williams was a runaway winner as ACC Coach of the Year – the eighth time in his 18 years as a head coach that he has won conference coaching honors – and by consensus was the top coach in the nation. The Associated Press, the United States Basketball Writers Association of America, ESPN.com, SI.com and the Commonwealth Club of Kentucky named Williams the National Coach of the Year.

In three seasons, Carolina is 34-14 in ACC regular-season action. The 34 wins and .708 winning percentage are the best marks ever for any ACC coach after three seasons.

When Carolina beat Murray State, it marked the 17th straight year a Williams-coached team has won a game in the NCAA Tournament. That ties an NCAA record, set previously by former UNC head coach Dean Smith.

Carolina's performance, set against the backdrop of losing juniors Raymond Felton, Sean May and Rashad McCants and freshman Marvin Williams to the 2005 NBA Draft, did not go unappreciated:

"You know the storylines by now," wrote Dave Glenn at ACC-Sports.com. "UNC's starting lineup consists of two true freshmen, two former walk-ons and a guy who wasn't even first-team all-state in high school. But the Tar Heels play extremely hard. As a group they have very high basketball IQs, and they're mentally tough. For the most part, they defend well. They even win on the road. They're basically shattering every preconceived notion about what a woefully inexperienced college basketball team should look like. All of this is a tribute to the players, of course, but it's an even bigger tribute to their leader. Williams wasn't the only coach in America who lost all five starters from last season. He's the only one who's winning big anyway."

"Many Tar Heel observers I know figured he'd be doing a whale of a coaching job if this team finished 8-8 in the league," wrote longtime Durham Herald-Sun columnist Frank Dascenzo. "Without Williams, would these Tar Heels be where they are today? ... The more you stare at the ACC standings, you just can't name a more impressive coaching job than the one by Roy Williams."

"In my mind, he's done an amazing job," said ESPN's Dick Vitale. "To think what he's done there after losing so much from last year's team, it just blows my mind."

To Williams, it was one of the most enjoyable years of his career.

"I love this team," he said after the 2006 NCAA Tournament. "They've accomplished things that maybe people didn't think they could. But they were an unbelievable group of kids that took me for a great ride and I feel fortunate to have coached them."

The 1972 Carolina graduate has the highest winning percentage in the nation among active coaches with 10 years experience and the fourth highest in history, having led his teams to a 493-124 record, a victory rate of 79.9 percent. Williams needs seven wins to reach 500, a mark at which he would arrive in his 19th season, sooner than any other coach in history (Jerry Tarkanian got to 500 in his 20th season).

"He's really a bright man," says Dean Smith. "He has the whole package of what you want as a college head coach. You want somebody who knows basketball, can judge talent, is a competent leader and can teach it in practice, makes good decisions in the game, is highly organized, and also is honest in recruiting.

"He's like Tiger Woods in golf – they have the whole package," Smith adds. "I don't know anyone else who does. I certainly consider him to be the best college coach in the country."

Williams is in his fourth year as Carolina's head coach and 19th as a college head coach. He took over the Tar Heel program on April 14, 2003, after leading the University of Kansas to the NCAA championship game in his 15th year in Lawrence.

"Roy Williams is one of the select few of the greatest coaches in the entire game of basketball," says Bill Walton, NBA Hall of Fame player and TV analyst. "His move to North Carolina ensures for the foreseeable future excellence both on and off the court. The championships will now fall time after time to Chapel Hill. More importantly Coach Williams' impact on young people's lives throughout this great land will change the course of history. We love Coach Williams and admire and respect everything that he does – except for the fact that he's not coaching at UCLA."

Williams led the Tar Heels to their fourth NCAA championship as UNC defeated the Illini, 75-70, on April 4, 2005. May scored 26 points and had 10 rebounds in the finale, one of 13 double-doubles in his last 16 games.

"Coach Williams allowed me to be successful – he put me in positions to be successful," says May. "He pulled out my strengths, hid my weaknesses and taught me how to run the floor. I never wanted to run until I came here, now I love it."

The 2005 national championship capped a season in which the Tar Heels went 33-4, including a 14-2 mark in the ACC. Carolina finished first in the ACC regular-season standings for the first time since 2001 and won the league outright for the first time in 12 years. It was the 10th time Williams led a team to the top of the conference standings.

Carolina went 15-0 at home – Williams' seventh unbeaten home record. The Tar Heels won the Maui Invitational by an average of 21 points per game; led the nation in scoring average, scoring margin and assists; scored 100 or more points six times and 90 or more points on 16 occasions; went 9-3 against ranked teams; and became the third team in history to lead the nation in scoring and win the NCAA championship.

Carolina's fast-paced attack averaged 88.0 points per game, the 15th time his teams have topped 80 points per game.

"We all wanted to win for the seniors, but I especially wanted a national championship for Coach Williams," May said. "He's a great person and a great coach and I wanted to be on his first national championship team. I know he's going to win more, but we can always say we were on his first."

Assistant coach C.B. McGrath and May were the first to congratulate Williams for a title that was cheered across the basketball world because of the respect he has earned across the game.

"C.B. grabbed me, and it was a great hug," recalls Williams. "Then here comes Sean. A hundred million dollars I would give up before I would forget that memory, that big, smelly, sweaty rascal coming and hugging my neck, and saying how happy he was. Money can't buy that kind of feeling."

Williams takes great pride in his teams playing unselfish basketball, taking the best shots available, hitting the boards and playing tenacious, man-to-man defense. The 2005 Tar Heels exhibited all of those traits.

To wit: five different players averaged double-figure scoring, despite just one player averaging more than 30 minutes played per game; the Tar Heels averaged 19.1 assists per game; UNC shot 50 percent or better from the floor 20 times (and won all 20 games) and held the opposition to less than 40 percent shooting 20 times; the Tar Heels went 28-1 in games in which they out-rebounded the opponents; and Carolina held Michigan State and Illinois under 40 percent shooting from the floor in three of four halves played at the Final Four.

"Winning the national championship means all the preparation we had done to get to that point paid off," said McCants. "You sit back and think, all the things we did in practice every day were perfect for us. You have to commend a coach to understand that – he just designed something perfect for a bunch of players who had never won anything and for us to do everything that we've done in this short period of time is amazing."

Williams, whose teams are 241-23 at home (.913), has established himself as one of the top coaches and premier program builders in America. He is one of the most respected men in college basketball among coaches, players, parents, administrators and media. It was evident by the number of well-wishes, congratulatory calls and letters Williams received before and after winning the national championship, including countless numbers from former Kansas players and parents.

"He just wants what is best for his players and he does whatever he can to help them," point guard Quentin Thomas told the Associated Press last year. "He's been patient with me and supportive of me, and that's helped me in the long run."

He has led Kansas and Carolina to 17 conseeutive NCAA Tournament appearanees, the second-longest aetive streak in the eountry and the third longest in NCAA Tournament history. Only Smith (23 years in a row) and Lute Olson (22) have longer NCAA Tournament streaks.

"I know so much more about basketball now than I did a year ago," said Marvin Williams, who was the 2005 ACC Rookie of the Year and the second pick in the 2005 NBA Draft. "Coaeh Williams has so much knowledge about the game it is unbelievable. He is a great coaeh and he loves to teach. He's taught me so much about basketball since last year, especially the little things. I didn't know little things made that big of a difference in a basketball game."

Williams has taken five teams to the Final Four, including 1991, 1993, 2002 and 2003 at Kansas and 2005 at Carolina. He is the 12th coach to lead two schools to the Final Four and the third (with Larry Brown and Frank McGuire) to direct two sehools to the champi-onship game.

"I have so much respeet for him and I am so glad that he's our coach," says former Tar Heel All-America and NBA All-Star Jerry Stackhouse. "I really feel with him the tradition that we all felt when I played here. He has a discipline he learned from Coach Smith and that diseipline is back here now. That's why we were able to have success [in 2005] and win the national ehampionship."

The 56-year-old Williams is tied for sixth all-time in NCAA Tournament wins with 42 and has an NCAA postseason win percentage of .724, fourth-best among aetive coaches. Six of his teams have been seeded No. 1 in a region in NCAA play.

"I always thought if Coach Williams came back to Carolina he was going to get us a national championship," says George Lynch, captain of the 1993 NCAA champions and a 13-year NBA veteran. "He has a great personality and he's fair to his players. He tells them like it is. He came baek and got guys to play the right way and eome together as a team."

Williams has coached a team to 30 or more wins six times, which equals the seeond-most in NCAA history. He has won 20 or more games 16 times in 18 years (winning 19 in his first seasons at Kansas and Carolina), ineluding 14 straight seasons at Kansas, a streak that equaled the third longest in NCAA history.

"Coach Williams is a great eoaeh," says Jaekie Manuel, who twice earned ACC All-Defensive Team honors. "He's going to teach you the fundamentals of the game and off the eourt he cares about his kids. He wants the best for his kids. He's going to push you; he's trying to bring the best out of you. If I have a son, I would definitely let him play for Coach Williams."

In 2003-04, Williams led the Tar Heels to a 19-11 reeord, with a win over No. 1-ranked and eventual national champion Connecticut. Carolina returned to the NCAA Tournament for the first time in three years and beat Air Force in the opening round before falling to Texas, 78-75. Carolina averaged 80.2 points per game, an increase of 10.0 points from the previous year and UNC's highest seoring average since 1994-95.

"Roy is as good as it gets in a person," says Hall of Fame guard and NBA executive Jerry West. "There's nothing deceptive about him. He is what he is – a wonderful person and a great coach. If you watch his teams, you know they've been coached. If you go to his practices, you know why his teams are successful. His players play the right way. They're team-oriented. They play a fun way offensively. They're aggressive. He changes defenses. He does it all. He's just a wonderful coach."

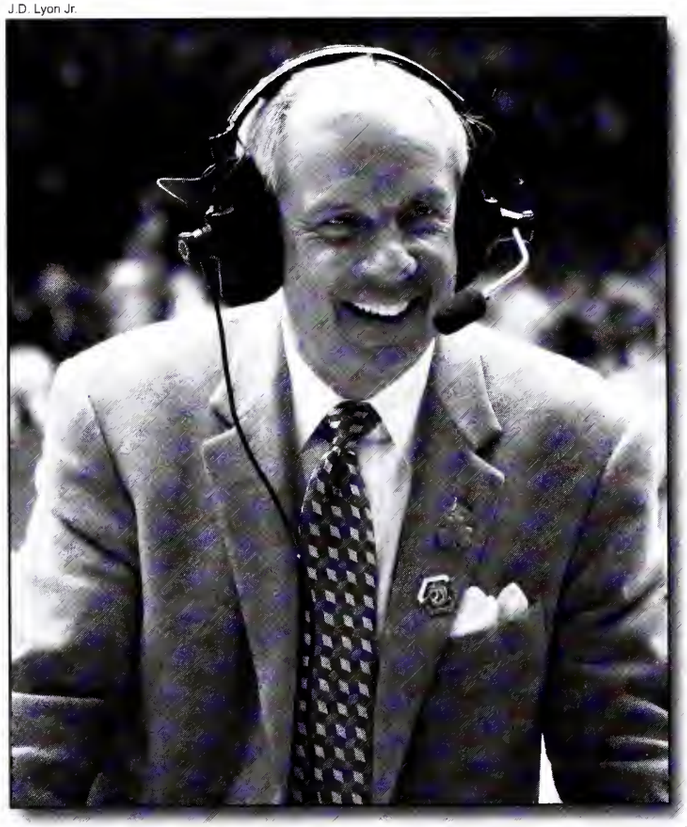
"What separates the good coaches from the great coaches is consistency," says Carolina's all-time leading scorer Phil Ford, an assistant coach with the New York Knicks. "If you are consistently going deep in the NCAA Tournament and having successful seasons year after year with different talent and abilities, that's what separates the good from the great. His track record is one of being consistently good for a long time."

Williams secured his 400th win on Jan. 15, 2003, when Kansas defeated Wyoming, 98-70. He was the third-fastest coach in history to reach 300 wins and fourth fastest to 400. He has won more games than any coach after eight, nine, 10, 11, 12, 13, 14, 15, 16, 17 and 18 seasons as a head coach. He is the second-winningest Jayhawk coach in history behind Smith's college coach, Phog Allen.

"We used to have Dean Smith, who was the best coach in the country," says former Tar Heel head coach Bill Guthridge, who was an assistant at UNC with Williams. "Now we have Roy Williams, who I think is the best coach in the country. He's people-oriented. When he was an assistant here, I know the players really respected and liked him. That was obviously the case at Kansas as well. Those guys played their hearts out for him."

Williams spent 10 seasons as an assistant coach under Smith at Carolina. From 1978-88, he helped coach such Tar Heel standouts as Mike O'Koren, Al Wood, James Worthy, Sam Perkins, Matt Doherty, Michael Jordan, Brad Daugherty, Kenny Smith, Joe Wolf, Steve Hale, Jeff Lebo, J.R. Reid and Scott Williams.

J.D. Lyon Jr.



"I truly learned a lot from Coach Williams when I was at North Carolina," says Michael Jordan. "I consider Roy not only to be a great coach, but a good friend. I know that the Tar Heels are in good hands with Coach Williams."

The Tar Heels played in the NCAA Tournament in each of Williams' 10 seasons. Carolina won the NCAA title in 1982, finished second in 1981 and won or shared six Atlantic Coast Conference regular-season titles and three ACC Tournament championships (1979, 1981, 1982).

"When I think of him, I think of his honesty, integrity and tremendous work ethic," says Daugherty, a five-time NBA All-Star with the Cleveland Cavaliers. "He is a classy, classy individual. But he is also one of the toughest people I have ever met in my life. No one is tougher than Roy Williams, but he is fair. That's why the kids love him so much. When you have played four years for him he will be a friend for life and you will be a better man, and appreciate every ounce of the experience when you are gone.

"If I had to go to war, I'd grab him for my foxhole without question."

Combining his 10 seasons as an assistant at Carolina and 18 years as head coach, Williams has been part of 768 wins and just 185 defeats.

Williams was named head coach at Kansas on July 8, 1988, replacing another former Tar Heel, Larry Brown. The pair teamed together to coach Team USA to a bronze medal at the 2004 Summer Olympics in Athens, Greece.

"He's as good a coach as our sport has," says Brown. "If you ask people around the country, they'll say there's no better college coach than Roy Williams."

In addition to his 2006 national coaching honors, he earned National Coach of the Year honors at Kansas in 1990, 1991, 1992 and 1997 and was Big Eight/Big 12 Coach of the Year seven times (1990, 1992, 1995, 1996, 1997, 2002 and 2003). The New York Athletic Club presented him with its National Coach of the Year award in 2005. He received the John R. Wooden Legends of Coaching Award in 2003 from the Los Angeles Athletic Club. Other recipients of the Wooden Coaching Award include Smith, Mike Krzyzewski, Olson, Denny Crum, Mike Montgomery, Jim Calhoun and Jim Boeheim.

Williams coached a number of the finest Kansas players in history, including Mark Randall, Adonis Jordan, Rex Walters, Greg Ostertag, Scot Pollard, Jacque Vaughn, Raef LaFrentz, Paul Pierce, Drew Gooden, Nick Collison and Kirk Hinrich.

The Jayhawks went 94-18 in conference play over his last seven years and averaged 27.9 wins per season with a high of 35 in 1997-98. He also won 30 in 1989-90, 34 in 1996-97, 33 in 2001-02 and 30 in 2002-03.

He led Kansas to the Final Four in 1991, 1993, 2002 and 2003. The Jayhawks reached the Sweet 16 nine times and the Final Eight on five occasions.

basketball," says 1998 National Player of the Year Antawn Jamison. "He reminds me a lot of Coach Smith. Not just in terms of basketball, but as far as knowing the importance of having good people, caring about making sure they are successful after basketball. He'll have a big influence over every player that comes through the program, preparing them for life. That's what it's all about. It's not just about being a coach, but being like a father figure."

Kansas went 30-8 in 2002-03, his final year in Lawrence. Led by Collison, the NABC National Player of the Year, and Hinrich, another All-America, the Jayhawks beat Duke, Arizona and Marquette en route to the national championship game. It was KU's first back-to-back appearance in the Final Four since 1952-53.

"Roy is as good as there is," says Connecticut head coach Jim Calhoun. "He's a terrific coach and a terrific person. He has taken Dean's system, which was the best, and incorporated it into his own...He gets a lot from his kids. Roy is a first ballot, Hall of Fame coach, and a first-ballot nice guy."

Kansas won nine regular-season conference championships over his last 13 years. In seven years of Big 12 Conference play, his teams went 94-18, capturing the regular-season title in 1997, 1998, 2002 and 2003 and the postseason tournament crown in 1997, 1998 and 1999. In 2001-02, KU became the first Big 12 team to go 16-0 in league play. From 1995-98, Kansas was a combined 123-17 – an average of 30.8 wins per season.

He was hired just months after the Danny Manning-led Jayhawks won the 1988 NCAA championship. Weeks after taking the position, KU was placed on probation for violations that took place prior to his arrival..

Williams' teams went 201-17 (.922) in Allen Fieldhouse, and won 62 consecutive games in Allen from February 1994 to December 1998.

Kansas was a regular in the Associated Press Top 25 from 1991 to 1999, placing in the AP poll for 145 consecutive weeks. Williams' teams were ranked in the Top 10 in 194 AP polls since 1990.

Williams had Kansas in the AP Top 25 in 242 of 268 weekly polls. Kansas reached the No. 1 ranking in the country in six different seasons and was ranked at least No. 2 in the nation in 11 of the 15 seasons. The Tar Heels finished the 2004-05 season ranked No. 1 in the coaches' poll and No. 2 in the Associated Press poll. Last year, the Tar Heels began the year out of the Top 25, but finished the year ranked No. 10. That was the 11th time in 18 years his teams finished in the Top 10 in the AP poll.

Williams has coached 21 players to first-team all-conference honors, including four Tar Heels in the past three years. McCants was the ACC's leading vote getter in 2003-04, May and Felton were selected in 2004-05 and freshman Tyler Hansbrough was a unanimous selection in 2005-06. Hansbrough became the first freshman in league history to be unanimously selected to the All-ACC team. He also won ACC Rookie of the Year honors, the sixth time one of Williams's players has won conference rookie-of-the-year honors.

Five Jayhawks won conference player of the year honors and May was named the 2005 ACC Male Athlete of the Year.

Hansbrough became the first UNC freshman to ever earn first-team All-America honors after leading the Tar Heels in scoring, rebounding, field goal percentage and steals. It was the ninth first-team selection by one of Williams's players and it marked the second straight year that Carolina's top inside threat earned first-team All-America honors (May in 2005).

Two players – Gooden and Collison – were voted the best player in the country by the NABC. He coached four KU players to consensus first-team All-America honors – LaFrentz in 1997 and 1998, Pierce in 1998, Gooden in 2002 and Collison in 2003.

"I was just coming (to Kansas) to play basketball for a man I knew I could trust and a man I hoped would make my dreams a reality," said LaFrentz, a two-time Big 12 Player of the Year. "Thanks to Coach Williams for doing that. Thanks to him for always being there, for always being an example for every player who has come into his program and, most importantly, thanks for being a friend."

Fourteen of his players have been selected in the first round of the NBA Draft, including the four Tar Heels who were selected in the first 14 picks in the 2005 draft: Randall (1991), Walters (1993), Ostertag (1995), Pollard (1997), Vaughn (1997), LaFrentz (1998), Pierce (1998), Gooden (2002), Hinrich (2003), Collison (2003), Marvin Williams (2005), Felton (2005), May (2005) and McCants (2005).

Kansas led the nation in field goal percentage and scoring in 2002 and in scoring margin in 2003; held opponents to the lowest field goal percentage in the country in 2001 (37.8 percent); led the nation in winning percentage in 1997 and 2002; shot better than 50 percent from the floor seven times and led the country in field goal percentage in 1990 at 53.3 percent and in 2002 at 50.6 percent; shot a combined 49.4 percent from the floor in 15 seasons; led the nation in assists in 2001 and 2002 and was seventh in the nation in 2003; scored 100 or more points 71 times (once every 13 games); averaged 82.7 points per game in 15 years; averaged 90 or more points in two seasons (92.1 in 1990 and 90.9 in 2002).

Last year, the Tar Heels were fifth in the nation in rebounding and sixth in assists per game.

Academic priority is an important characteristic of Williams' program. Each Carolina senior in his tenure has either received his degree or is on track to do so. Two players – Byron Sanders and Melvin Scott – have earned Academic All-ACC honors.

Three Kansas players were named first-team Academic All-America– Ryan Robertson in 1999, Jacque Vaughn and Jerod Haase in 1997 and Vaughn in 1996 – and 31 Jayhawks earned first-team academic all-conference honors.

"He will win with class and dignity because that's what the man is about," says Joe Posnanski, who covered the Jayhawks for the Kansas City Star. "He will have the Tar Heels running fast and scoring in bunches, and he will build on the legacy of the man he admires most."

Williams grew up outside of Asheville, N.C., in the small community of Biltmore. He attended T. C. Roberson High School, where he earned letters in basketball and baseball for four seasons. In basketball, playing for Coach Buddy Baldwin, he was named all-county and all-conference for two years (1967 and 1968), all-western North Carolina in 1968 and served as captain in the North Carolina Blue-White All-Star Game.

Much of Williams' coaching style comes from spending so many years observing and then coaching with Smith. Williams played on Carolina's freshman team in 1968-69 under Guthridge.

Williams often sat in on Smith's varsity practice sessions taking notes and furthering his knowledge of the game, notes Williams maintains even today. Williams' practices are intense, instructive and precise.

"Practices are very intense, you get a lot done in a small amount of time," says 2005 Tar Heel tri-captain Jawad Williams. "When you put fun and hard work together, that's very nice. We get a lot more accomplished."

Roy Williams earned two degrees from Carolina — a bachelor's degree in education in 1972 and an M.A.T. in 1973.

In 1973, Williams began his coaching career at Charles D. Owen High School in Swannanoa, N.C. He coached basketball and boys' golf for five years, ninth-grade football for four years and served as athletic director for two years.

He joined Smith's staff as an assistant coach in 1978, adding to his income by traveling all over the state selling basketball team calendars and delivering Smith's weekly TV show to affiliates. While a member of Smith's staff, the Tar Heels went 275-61.

Williams has been active in international circles, as well. The 2004 U.S. Olympic Team assignment was his fourth with USA Basketball. In 1991, Williams worked under P.J. Carlesimo at the World University Games in Sheffield, England, where the USA won the gold medal. In 1992, he helped coach the United States Olympic Development Team, a squad of eight college all-stars who scrimmaged the first U.S. Olympic Dream Team. In 1993, Williams served as head coach of the USA Under-22 Team in a qualifying tournament in Argentina. He also served as a lecturer and camp director for the West German National Junior Team.

He served on the board of directors of the National Association of Basketball Coaches, and was president in 2001-02. In addition, Williams served on the NCAA basketball rules committee for six years, chairing the committee in 2000-01.

Several of Williams' former staff members have gone on to head coaching positions, including Neil Dougherty (in his fifth year at TCU), Kevin Stallings (in his eighth season at Vanderbilt), Mark Turgeon (in his seventh year at Wichita State), Matt Doherty (formerly at Notre Dame, Carolina and Florida Atlantic, now at SMU), Steve Robinson (formerly at Tulsa and Florida State) and Jerry Green (formerly at Oregon and Tennessee). Jay Price, a manager at Kansas, has been an assistant at Purdue and Illinois.

Year-by-Year as a Head Coach

1988-89: Williams turned down several head coaching opportunities while at UNC until the Kansas job opened up in 1988. His first team had only eight scholarship players and was ineligible for postseason play. But the Jayhawks won 13 of their first 14 games, including 11 straight, and finished with a 19-12 record.

1989-90: Kansas won its first 19 games, including all four in the Preseason NIT. The Jayhawks went from being unranked in the preseason poll to No. 1 or No. 2 for 13 consecutive weeks. A 30-5 season and an NCAA Tournament appearance helped earn Williams Big Eight and National Coach of the Year honors.

1990-91: Kansas went 10-4 in conference play and earned a share of the Big Eight title. In the NCAA Tournament, Kansas posted victories over New Orleans, Pittsburgh, Indiana and Arkansas to capture the NCAA Southeast Regional and earned a Final Four berth. Playing in front of 47,100 fans at the Indianapolis Hoosier Dome, Williams guided KU to a 79-73 victory over Smith and North Carolina, putting the Jayhawks in the NCAA title game against Duke.

1991-92: Kansas went 27-5 and was ranked as high as No. 2 in the national polls. The Jayhawks won the conference by three full games and beat Oklahoma State in the Big Eight Tournament title game.

1992-93: Kansas won its third straight Big Eight crown – again by three full games – was ranked No. 1 for two weeks and posted a 29-7 record. In the NCAA Tournament, KU defeated Ball State, Brigham Young, California and No. 1-ranked Indiana to win the Midwest Regional en route to the Final Four for the second time in three years. Eventual champion North Carolina beat the Jayhawks in the semifinals. It was the second and final time Williams' and Smith's teams faced each other.

1993-94: Kansas won the Preseason NIT for the second time and advanced to the NCAA Sweet 16.

1994-95: Kansas finished 11-3 in the Big Eight to win its fourth league title in five seasons. Impressive non-league wins over No. 1 Massachusetts, No. 2 Connecticut and No. 6 Florida followed to help Kansas earn a No. 1 seed in the Midwest Regional, where KU advanced to the Sweet 16.

1995-96: The Jayhawks closed out the Big Eight by winning their fifth title in six years. Kansas, which also had non-league wins over UCLA, Utah and Indiana, earned a No. 2 seed in the NCAA West Regional, where it advanced to the Elite Eight before losing to Syracuse.

1996-97: Despite injuries to senior starters Jacque Vaughn, Scot Pollard and Jerod Haase, the Jayhawks established KU records with a 22-0 start and 29 regular-season victories. Kansas won the league by four games with a 15-1 record, then won the first Big 12 postseason tournament title. Kansas concluded the season at 34-2 after losing to eventual NCAA champion Arizona in the Sweet 16.

1997-98: First-team All-Americas Raef LaFrentz and Paul Pierce led Kansas to a school record-tying 35 wins, its second-straight Big 12 crown and Big 12 Tournament title. The Jayhawks, who won the Preseason NIT in November, went 35-4 overall and 15-1 in the Big 12.

1998-99: Led by seniors Ryan Robertson and T.J. Pugh, KU went 23-10 and won its third-straight Big 12 Tournament title. The Jayhawks lost a hard-fought overtime game to Kentucky in the second round of the NCAA Tournament.

1999-00: One of the youngest teams in KU history fought through numerous injuries to compile a 24-10 record. When Nick Collison, Drew Gooden and Kirk Hinrich all appeared in the starting lineup, it marked the first time since the 1982-83 campaign that three freshmen started a game at KU.

2000-01: KU led the nation in field goal percentage defense and went 26-7, finished second in the Big 12 regular-season race and advanced to the Sweet 16 for the first time since 1997 before bowing to No. 1 seed Illinois.

2001-02: The Jayhawks went 33-4, won the Big 12 with an unprecedented 16-0 record and advanced to the Final Four for the first time since 1993. KU tied a school record by beating nine ranked opponents and set a school record by scoring 100 or more points 12 times. Williams was named Big 12 Coach of the Year and Gooden was named Big 12 Player of the Year and first-team All-America.

2002-03: Kansas went 30-8, including a 14-2 record in the Big 12 that produced Williams' ninth regular-season conference title. Led by Collison, the NABC National Player of the Year, and Hinrich, another All-America, the Jayhawks beat Duke, Arizona and Marquette en route to the national championship game. It was KU's first back-to-back appearance in the Final Four since 1952-53.

2003-04: Carolina went 19-11 and earned a spot in the NCAA Tournament for the first time in three years. The Tar Heels beat No. 1 ranked Connecticut as well as NCAA finalist Georgia Tech and ACC Tournament champion Maryland. Carolina beat Air Force in Denver in the NCAA first round.

2004-05: Carolina went 33-4 and won the ACC regular-season title with a 14-2 record. The Tar Heels beat Oakland, Iowa State, Villanova and Wisconsin to advance to the Final Four. In St. Louis, UNC beat Michigan State and No. 1 Illinois to win the national championship.

2005-06: Carolina went 23-8 and finished second in the ACC with a 12-4 record. UNC went 7-1 in ACC road games, including wins at NC State, Maryland and No. 1 ranked Duke. Tyler Hansbrough became the first freshman to earn first-team All-America honors in UNC history and unanimous All-ACC selection. The Tar Heels were a No. 3 seed in the NCAA Tournament.

JOE HOLLADAY

JOE HOLLADAY

Assistant Coach
Oklahoma '69
4th Year at Carolina
14th Year on Roy Williams' Staff

Joe Holladay is in his fourth year as an assistant coach with the Tar Heels and his 14th as a member of Roy Williams' coaching staff. He has a combined record of 387-94 (.805) on the bench with Williams.

The Tar Heels won the 2004-05 Atlantic Coast Conference regular-season title and the NCAA championship. It was the seventh time his teams have finished first in the conference race and the third time in four years he was a member of a Final Four squad. The Tar Heels were No. 1 in the nation in scoring, assists and scoring margin, fifth in field goal percentage and eighth in rebounding.

Last year, the Tar Heels posted a pair of Top-10 road wins at Duke and Kentucky and finished second in the ACC, despite having the most inexperienced team in school history. The surprise success earned Williams ACC and national coaching honors.

Holladay came to Carolina prior to the 2003-04 season and helped the Tar Heels return to the NCAA Tournament. UNC improved its scoring production by 10 points from the previous season and knocked off No. 1 ranked and eventual national champion Connecticut.

Holladay's responsibilities include recruiting, scouting and day-to-day basketball operations. He oversees the academic progress of the student-athletes. Byron Sanders and Melvin Scott have earned ACC All-Academic honors.

Including Tar Heels Marvin Williams, Raymond Felton, Sean May and Rashad McCants, 12 of Holladay's players have been selected in the first round of the NBA Draft. Four of his student-athletes earned first-team academic All-America honors and he has coached 26 first-team academic all-conference honorees in the last 11 years.

Holladay joined Williams at the University of Kansas prior to the 1993-94 season after 23 highly successful years as a high school coach, teacher and administrator. The Jayhawks posted a cumulative record of 312-71 (.815), and won six conference regular-season championships and three Big 12 Tournament titles during his tenure. Kansas played in the 2002 and 2003 NCAA Final Fours, including the 2003 national championship game.

At Kansas, Holladay coached National Players of the Year Drew Gooden and Nick Collison and first-team All-Americas Jacque Vaughn, Raef LaFrentz, Paul Pierce and Kirk Hinrich.

Kansas finished the year ranked in the Top 10 in the Associated Press poll six times, including No. 1 in 1997 and No. 2 in 1998 and 2002.

A 1969 University of Oklahoma graduate with a degree in history, Holladay was a standout guard for the Sooners from 1966-69. As a senior, he served as team captain.

Holladay earned a master's degree in counseling in 1975 from East Central State University in Oklahoma.

He went to Kansas after working 13 years as head coach and eight years as athletics director at Jenks (Okla.) High School. Holladay previously served as a prep coach in the Oklahoma towns of Norman, Bartlesville, Tulsa, and Lindsay.

In 1998, Holladay was inducted into the Oklahoma High School Coaches Association Hall of Fame, and in 2002, he was inducted into the inaugural 20-member group of the Oklahoma Basketball Coaches Association Hall of Fame.

One of his top players at Jenks High School, Steve Hale, played at North Carolina from 1982-86 under then-assistant coach Roy Williams.

Holladay was an outstanding prep baseball player. He was selected by the Chicago White Sox in the Major League Baseball Draft.

Holladay and his wife, Roi, a former schoolteacher, have a daughter, Heather, who is in television commercial production, and a son, Captain Mathew Holladay, a graduate of the U.S. Military Academy, who served in Iraq.

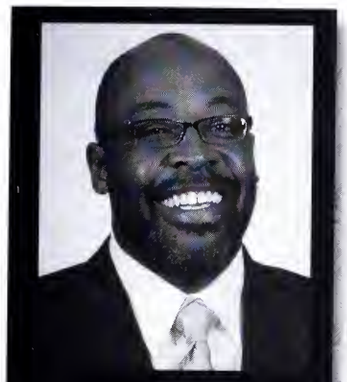
STEVE ROBINSON



STEVE ROBINSON

Assistant Coach
Radford '81
4th Year at Carolina
12th Year on Roy Williams' Staff

Steve Robinson is in his fourth year as an assistant coach at the University of North Carolina and his 12th as a member of Roy Williams' coaching staff.

Last year, Carolina played three freshmen in the starting lineup for much of the season, but won 23 games and earned a No. 3 seed in the NCAA Tournament. Forward Tyler Hansbrough received unprecedented honors at the national and ACC level for a freshman and Williams was the conference and NCAA Coach of the Year.

In 2004-05, the Tar Heels went 33-4, won the ACC regular-season title and beat the No. 1 ranked team in the nation to win the NCAA championship. Robinson helped coach four players who were selected in the first round of the 2005 NBA Draft, including Final Four MVP Sean May and ACC Rookie of the Year Marvin Williams. Raymond Felton won the Bob Cousy Award as the top point guard in the country.

It was only the second time in NBA history one school had four players chosen in the top 14 selections of one draft.

The Tar Heels averaged 88.0 points per game, the 10th time in as many years that Robinson has teamed with Williams to coach a squad averaging 80 or more points. The Tar Heels were No. 1 in the nation in scoring and assists, fifth in field goal accuracy and seventh in three-point shooting.

In 2003-04, Robinson coached three different Tar Heels who led the ACC in scoring, rebounding and assists. His primary responsibilities include scouting, recruiting and bench coaching. He was recently named one of the top 25 recruiters in college basketball.

Robinson was head coach at the University of Tulsa for two years (1995-97) and at Florida State University for five years (1997-2002).

As head coach at Florida State, he led the Seminoles to the second round of the 1998 NCAA Tournament, becoming the first coach in school history to qualify for the NCAA Tournament in his first season. The Seminoles went 18-14, beat No. 5 -anked Arizona, the defending champions, and upset fifth-seeded TCU in the first round of the NCAA Tournament.

Robinson was head coach at Tulsa in 1995-96 and 1996-97. He led the Golden Hurricane to a 46-18 record and back-to-back appearances in the NCAA Tournament. In his first year, Tulsa won 22 games and won the Missouri Valley Tournament for the first time in 10 years. In 1996-97, Tulsa went 24-10 and advanced to the second round of the NCAA Tournament. For his efforts, Robinson was named the Coach of the Year in the WAC Mountain Division. The 24 wins were the second-most in Tulsa history. Robinson coached future NBA players Michael Ruffin and Shea Seals while at Tulsa.

Robinson has a record of 266-74 (.782) on the bench with Williams.

He was an assistant at Kansas from 1988-95 and in 2002-03, during which the Jayhawks posted a combined record of 214-59. The Jayhawks won five Big Eight Conference regular-season titles and made Final Four appearances in 1991 and 1993. He was the team's academic coordinator; nine players made the Big Eight All-Academic Team and 37 had grade point averages of 3.0 or better.

He coached a number of Kansas standouts, including first-team All-Americas Jacque Vaughn and Raef LaFrentz, All-Big Eight selections Kevin Pritchard, Mark Randall, Adonis Jordan and Rex Walters and Big Eight Newcomer of the Year Jerod Haase.

Before joining Williams in 1988, Robinson spent two years as an assistant coach at Cornell and three seasons at his alma mater, Radford. In 1988, Cornell won the Ivy League title and advanced to the NCAA Tournament for the first time in 35 years.

A native of Roanoke, Va., Robinson graduated from William Fleming High School, and attended Ferrum Junior College, where he played basketball for two seasons. He was one of three student-athletes to receive Radford's first athletic scholarships, and was team captain in 1980 and 1981. He earned his bachelor's degree in health and physical education in 1981 and his master's degree in counseling in 1985, both from Radford.

He is a member of both the Ferrum Junior College and Radford University Halls of Fame.

Robinson was born Oct. 29, 1957. He and his wife, Lisa, have four children – daughters, Shauna and Kiaya, and sons, Tarron and Denzel.

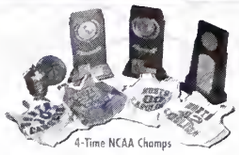
C.B. McGRATH



C.B. McGRATH

Assistant Coach
Kansas '98
4th Year at Carolina
8th Year on Roy Williams' Staff

C.B. McGrath is in his fourth year at the University of North Carolina and his eighth season as a member of Roy Williams' basketball staff. McGrath played point guard for Williams at Kansas. He was a team captain in 1997-98 and lettered in four seasons.

In addition to his bench duties, McGrath coaches UNC's junior varsity program and oversees the Roy Williams Carolina Basketball Camp, coordinates team video and the high school coaches clinic.

Last year, McGrath helped Williams win ACC and National Coach-of-the-Year honors as the Tar Heels went from unranked in the preseason polls to No. 10 in the nation in the final rankings.

McGrath was an assistant coach for the first time in 2004-05 as the Tar Heels went 33-4, won the ACC regular-season title with a 14-2 record and claimed the 2005 NCAA championship with a 75-70 win over Illinois. Point guard Raymond Felton earned first-team All-ACC and All-NCAA Final Four honors and was the winner of the Bob Cousy Award as the top point guard in the nation.

In his seven years on Williams' staff at Kansas and Carolina, those teams have a combined record of 188-52 and played in three Final Fours.

McGrath earned a scholarship prior to the start of his freshman season at Kansas. He was the top reserve behind first-team All-America Jacque Vaughn in 1994-95 and Ryan Robertson as a senior.

During his playing career, the Jayhawks won four Big Eight or Big 12 regular-season championships and the Big 12 Tournament championship in 1997 and 1998. Kansas went 123-17 and was ranked No. 5, 4, 1 and 2 in the nation, respectively, in the final Associated Press polls.

The Jayhawks were a perfect 58-0 at Allen Fieldhouse in McGrath's career.

In 1997-98, McGrath was a tri-captain, along with Raef LaFrentz and Billy Thomas. McGrath also teamed with Greg Ostertag, Scot Pollard and Paul Pierce and roomed with current Tar Heel assistant coach Jerod Haase.

McGrath played in 112 career games, scored 82 points, had 113 assists and 35 steals. He had a better than 2:1 assist to turnover ratio, including 61 assists and just 24 turnovers as a senior. He scored his first basket as a freshman — a three-pointer — at NC State's Reynolds Coliseum.

He was a two-time Academic All-Big 12 selection.

Colin Bryan (C.B.) McGrath was born Nov. 21, 1975, in Indianapolis, Ind. He is one of 20 members of his family who have attended the University of Kansas.

McGrath attended Topeka West High School, where he earned 13 varsity letters in basketball, cross country, track and golf. He was the Kansas High School Player of the Year in basketball as a senior and placed in the top 10 in the state in cross country and golf.

He earned a B.A. in human biology and a master's degree in education. McGrath's wife, Kris played tennis at KU, where she was the Big 12 Player of the Year. The couple had twin daughters, Kate and Addison, in August 2006.

Jerod Haase, a Naismith and Wooden Award candidate while playing shooting guard at the University of Kansas, is in his fourth year at North Carolina and his eighth season as a member of Roy Williams' staff.

Last year, Haase's second as a bench assistant, the Tar Heels 23-8, won at Kentucky and Duke and won seven of eight ACC road games, went 12-4 in the ACC and were a No. 3 seed in the NCAA Tournament. He helped Williams win ACC and National Coach-of-the-Year honors.

Two years ago, Haase helped lead the Tar Heels to a 33-4 record and 2005 NCAA championship.

That was the third Final Four Haase has been part of as a member of Williams' staff. While at Kansas, the Jayhawks played in the 2002 Final Four and the 2003 national championship game.

Kansas and Carolina have combined to win 188 of 217 games (75 percent) in his seven years on Williams' staff.

Haase attended the University of California in 1992-93, and then transferred to Kansas. He helped lead the Jayhawks to three consecutive conference titles and finished his career ranked in the Top 10 among school leaders in assists, three-point field goals and steals.

He started 99 of 101 games at Kansas and scored 1,264 points, an average of 12.5 per game. Haase scored in double figures 74 times, including 20 or more points 13 times.

In his three years, the Jayhawks went 89-13 and were ranked No. 5, 4 and 1 in the nation in the final media poll, respectively. As a senior, Haase started with Jacque Vaughn, Scot Pollard, Paul Pierce and Raef LaFrentz as Kansas went 34-2. He averaged 12.0 points despite playing with a broken wrist.

He scored a career-high 30 points against Temple as a junior. That year he was named to the Big Eight All-Defensive Team. He scored 16 points, including the game-winning three-point field goal, to beat Arizona, 83-80, in the 1996 NCAA regional semifinal.

As a sophomore in 1994-95, the South Lake Tahoe, Calif., native was named the Big Eight Conference Newcomer of the Year and was a second-team all-conference selection. He led Kansas with 15.0 points a game, including a season-high 26 against Missouri and 20 against No. 2-ranked Connecticut.

He started 23 games in 1992-93 as a freshman at Cal, where he teamed in the backcourt with Jason Kidd. Haase scored 13 points in the Bears' NCAA second round win over Duke.

In 1995, Haase teamed with Tim Duncan, Allen Iverson and Kerry Kittles to win the gold medal at the World University Games.

A 1997 Kansas graduate in business administration, Haase was a first-team GTE Academic All-America as a senior. He was also a second-team Academic All-America in 1996 and was academic all-conference for three years. He earned a Master's of Science degree in business at KU in 2000.

Haase, who roomed with C.B. McGrath in college, co-wrote 'Floor Burns,' detailing the 1996-97 season, which sold more than 30,000 copies. Floor burns are a statistic the Kansas stat crew created in honor of Haase, who had 165 of them as a junior. He also produced a basketball instructional video.

Born April 1, 1974, he is one of five brothers and sisters to play intercollegiate sports. He was married to the former Mindy Meidinger of Lenexa, Kan., in 1999. The couple had a son, Gavin, born in September 2006.

MARC DAVIS
Head Athletic Trainer/ Physical Therapist

Marc Davis is the head athletic trainer for the University of North Carolina men's basketball team, a position he has held since the 1977-78 season. He has been a part of Tar Heel national championship teams in each of the last three decades.

Davis received his Bachelor of Science degree in physical therapy from the University of North Carolina in 1974. After graduating from Carolina, he worked as a physical therapist at Danville Memorial Hospital in Danville, Va., from October 1974 to May 1975. He began his current tenure on the sports medicine staff at Carolina in July of 1975.

The 55-year-old Davis, a native of Wilmington, N.C., and alumnus of New Hanover High School, is a member of the American Physical Therapy Association and the National Athletic Trainers Association.

He was the recipient of the award for the outstanding physical therapist of the year for 1998 by the North Carolina Physical Therapy Association.

Davis' duties at Carolina consist of providing physical therapy and athletic training services to Carolina athletic teams. In addition to the men's basketball team, he also serves as head trainer for the men's and women's swimming and diving teams.

He also provides similar services to members of the general student body who are recommended to him by Student Health Service physicians.

Davis is married to the former Paula Gee. They have a 17-year-old daughter, Irma Consuelo.

JONAS SAHRATIAN
Strength & Conditioning Coordinator

Jonas Sahratian (pronounced suh-RAY-shun) is entering his third season as the strength and conditioning coordinator for the Tar Heel men's basketball program after serving in the same capacity at the University of Kansas for five seasons.

Sahratian coordinates strength and conditioning for men's basketball and also works with the diving team.

He worked with Carolina head coach Roy Williams in Lawrence from January 1999 to April 2003. In 2003-04, he worked with KU basketball and also coordinated strength and conditioning for the volleyball, swimming and diving teams.

A native of Detroit, Mich., Sahratian graduated from Western Michigan University in 1997 with a bachelor of science degree in exercise science. In 2000, he received his master's in exercise physiology from Kansas.

In addition to working with Kansas athletics, Sahratian interned for two years at the Chicago Bulls/Vermeil's Sports and Fitness in Deerfield, Ill. He worked there during the Bulls' NBA championship seasons in 1996-97 and 1997-98.

Sahratian is a certified strength and conditioning specialist through the National Strength and Conditioning Association and a certified club coach through USA Weightlifting.

He and his wife, Grechen, were married in August of 2005.

WAYNE WALDEN
Associate Director of the Academic Support Center

Wayne Walden joined the University of North Carolina academic advisory staff in the summer of 2003 after spending 16 years in the student support services office at the University of Kansas.

At Carolina, Walden coordinates academic support for men's basketball, volleyball and men's and women's swimming and diving. He oversees scheduling, registration, structured study halls, tutorial services and progress toward degrees for the student-athletes in those programs.

Walden was the Director of Degree and Career Counseling at Kansas and worked with the men's basketball, baseball, tennis and volleyball programs. He was also an instructor in KU's School of Education, where he taught a course designed to help seniors make the transition to post-college experiences.

Walden is a native of Topeka, Kan. He graduated from KU in 1984 with a degree in business administration and earned his master's in counseling psychology from Kansas in 1990.

ERIC HOOTS
Video Assistant

Eric Hoots is in his third season as video assistant in the North Carolina Basketball office. His primary duties include taping Tar Heel games, coordinating scouting tape exchange and supervising day-to-day video needs.

Hoots, a 2004 UNC graduate with a degree in African-American Studies and Interpersonal Communications, was a three-year Tar Heel letterman as a varsity manager from 2001-2004. He served as head manager as a senior.

Hoots also was a junior varsity manager for one season.

A native of Newton, N.C., Hoots attended Bandys High School in Catawba, where he played two years of varsity basketball. He says his favorite part of Carolina Basketball is every day at practice.

TAR HEELS EXCEL IN NCAA APR NUMBERS

The NCAA released its academic progress rate (APR) scores in March 2006. In the two-year APR figures released by the NCAA, Carolina was in the 90-100th percentile and third among ranked teams at that point with an APR of 989.

"That was one of the main reasons I went to Carolina. A lot of the other programs were telling me how I could be this and that, but Carolina always talked about getting an education first. I know how important it is to Coach Smith that the players get their degrees. In some ways it is a show of respect for Coach and the Carolina family to go ahead and work and get your degree."

LEADERSHIP CAROLINA ACADEMY

As the nation's premier leadership development program in collegiate athletics, the Carolina Leadership Academy develops, challenges and supports student-athletes, coaches and staff in their continual quest to become world class leaders in athletics, academics and life.

Carolina was named one of the "New Ivies" in 2006 by Newsweek, citing UNC's top quality education in a non-Ivy League setting.

Kiplinger's Personal Finance magazine has ranked Carolina as the nation's best value for five years in a row because of its top-shelf education at an affordable cost.

The University of North Carolina was ranked the fifth-best public university in U.S. News & World Report's 2007 "Best Colleges" guidebook. UNC's Kenan-Flagler Business School tied for fifth among undergraduate programs and tied for second among public universities.

Carolina had the highest ranking of any major public research university in the 2004 Black Enterprise-DayStar rankings, the most recent ratings of the best academic and social fits for African-American students.

WHY CAROLINA?

The Tar Heel Family

"Playing at Carolina has been everything plus more. The people here are so great around Franklin Street, on campus, off campus. You don't have any really bad days. When you do have bad days there's people here to pick you up. Just being around this program, being around the people here is something I'll cherish for the rest of my life. The tradition and the people you have in Carolina Basketball is big. For me to be a part of that, I can't even put it into words. Being associated in the same sentence with Michael Jordan, James Worthy, Coach Smith, Coach Williams and Raymond Felton ... that's something big and for me to be a part of that is just a blessing in the sky."

- 2006 graduate and NBA Draft pick David Noel

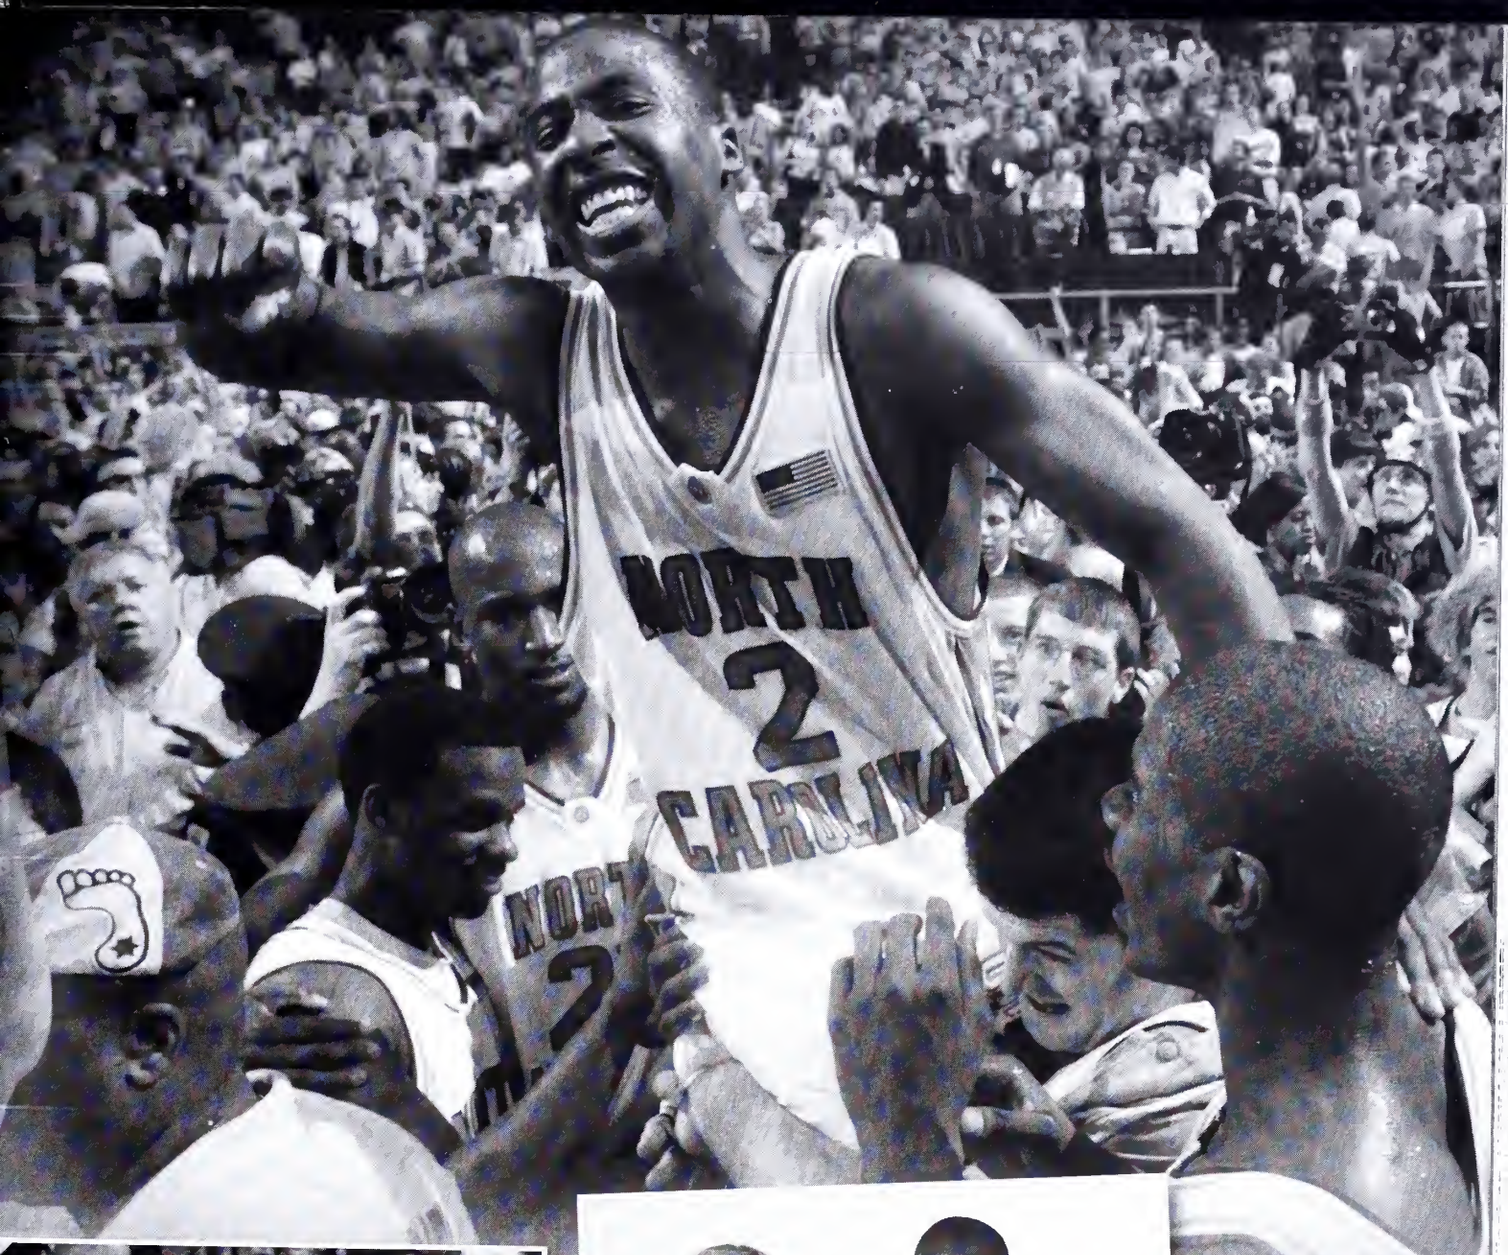
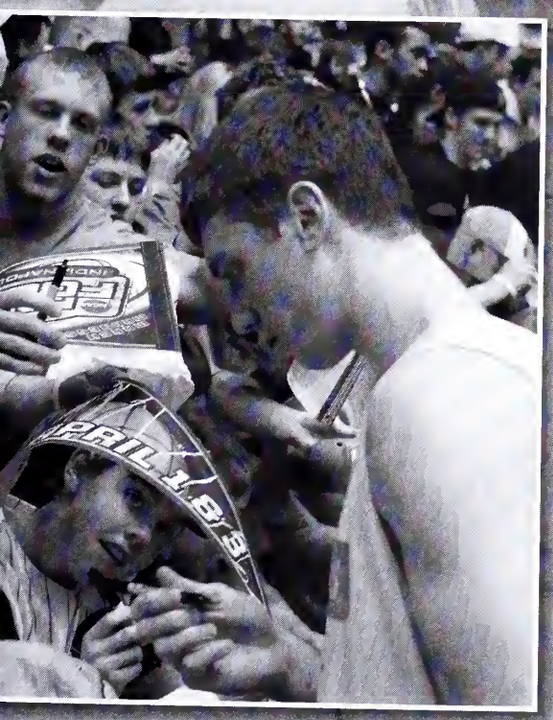
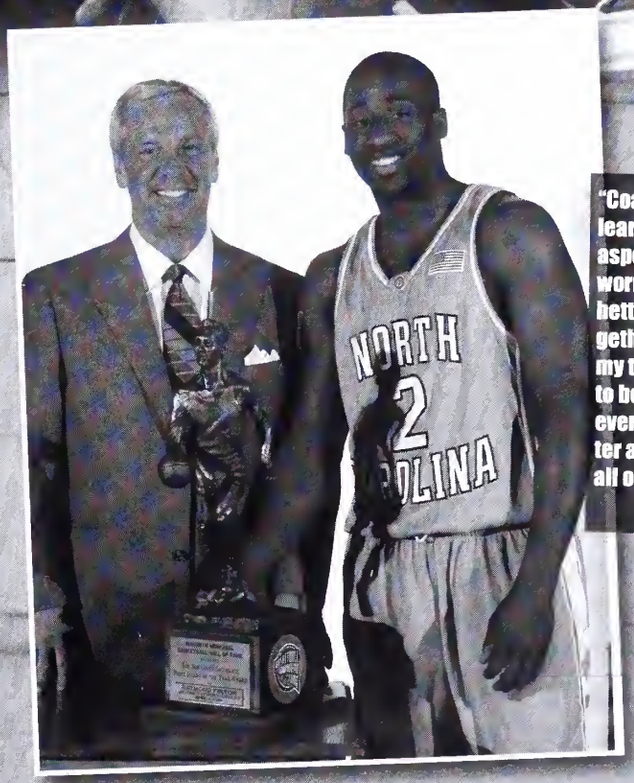
"Coming to Carolina is the best decision I've ever made. People in this community opened their arms to me. It's a place where I can always say I love. It's a place where I can always call home, where I can see myself living for a long time. I'm forever grateful for my memories here and the people I've met here, the relationships I've developed. It's something I'll always cherish for the rest of my life.

"Whenever I come back, people are going to know me because I was on a national championship team. That's part of the greatest memory, that you'll have an impact on people's lives you never met, you don't even know, who aren't your age, who are four, five, six, seven years old who are starting to learn the game. And one of the reasons they'll want to come to Carolina is they saw you play and they saw the way you represented the University."

- Sean May





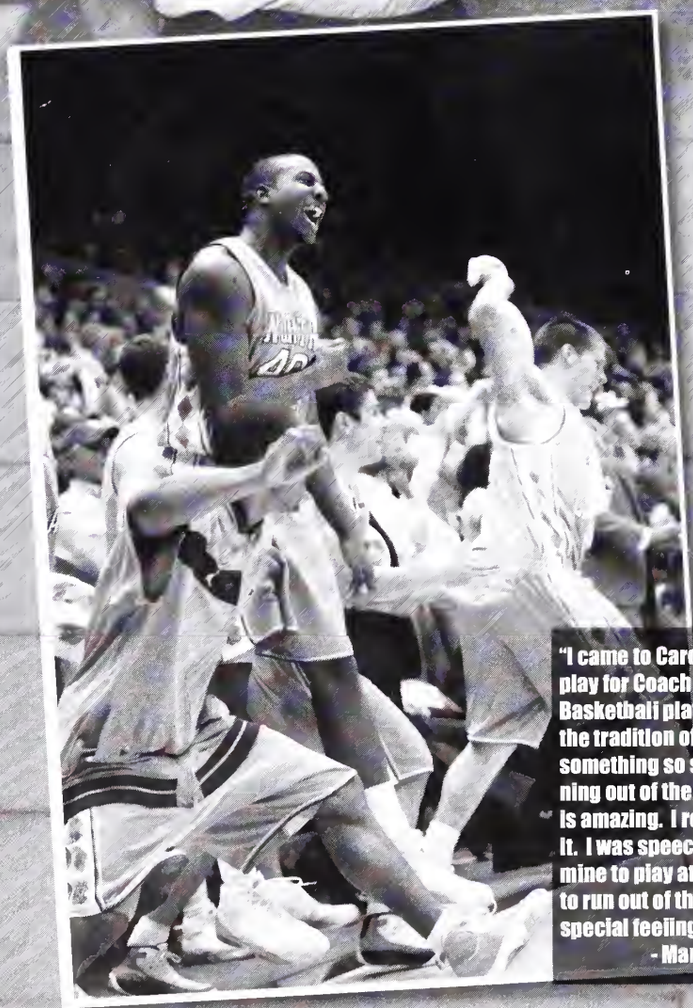


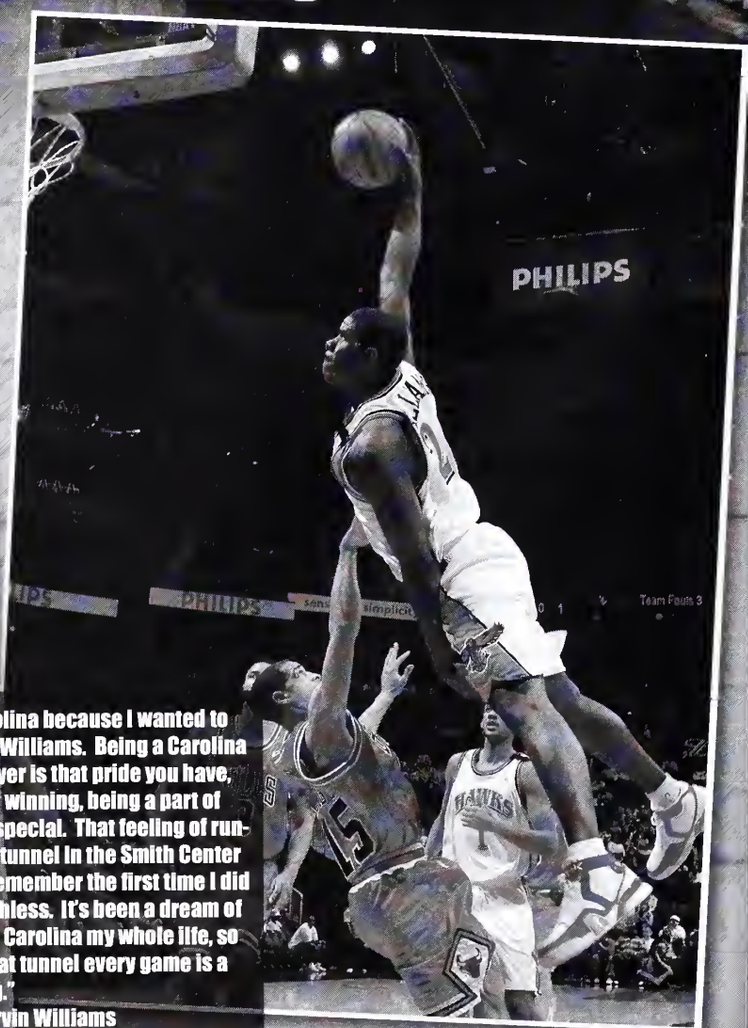
"Coach Williams helped me learn the game from every aspect. He taught me not to worry about scoring, to play better defense, to play together as a team, just lead my team. He taught me how to be a guy that makes everybody on the court better and get mine in between all of that."

- Raymond Felton

WHY CAROLINA?

The Tar Heel Family





"I came to Carolina because I wanted to play for Coach Williams. Being a Carolina Basketball player is that pride you have, the tradition of winning, being a part of something so special. That feeling of running out of the tunnel in the Smith Center is amazing. I remember the first time I did it. I was speechless. It's been a dream of mine to play at Carolina my whole life, so to run out of that tunnel every game is a special feeling."

- Marvin Williams

"I know so much more about basketball now than I did a year ago. Coach Williams has so much knowledge about the game it is unbelievable. He is a great coach who loves to teach. He's taught me so much about basketball, especially the little things. Like positioning on defense, you have to box out, you have to be tough, you have to play defense for 35 seconds. I've never done that."

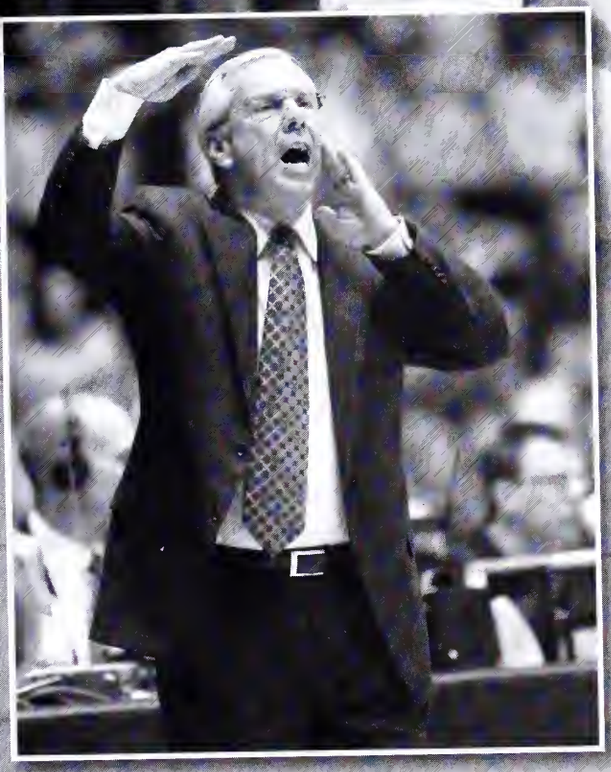
- Marvin Williams

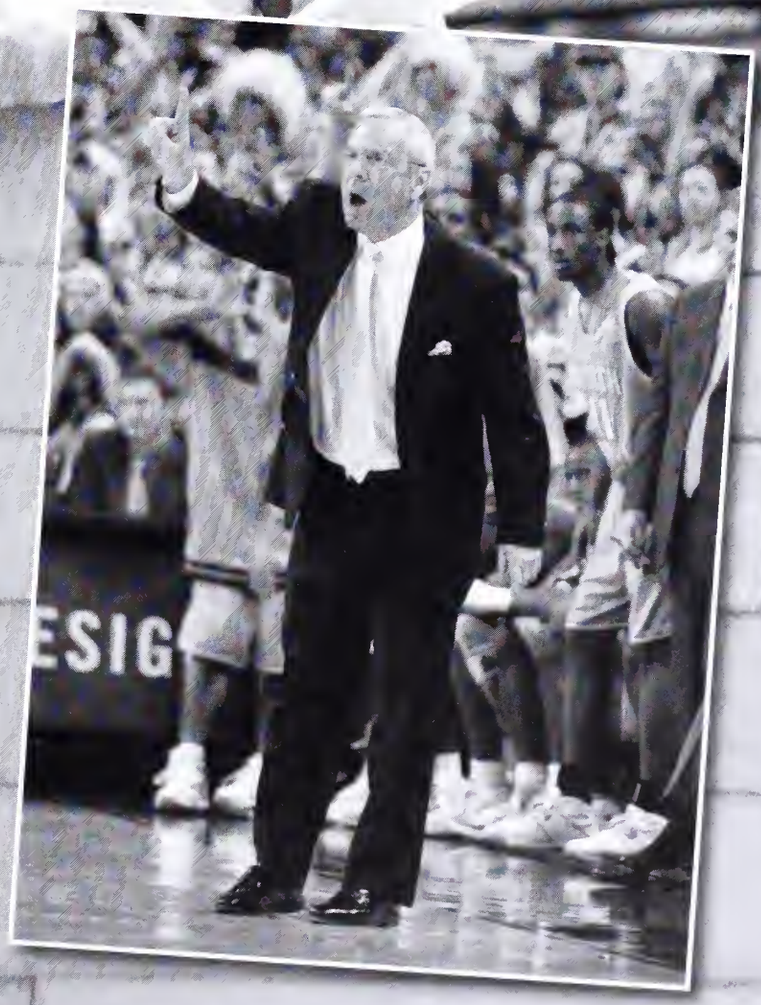
"Winning the national championship means all the preparation we had done to get to that point has paid off. And you sit back and think, all the things we did were perfect for us. You have to commend a coach to understand that — he just designed something perfect for a bunch of players who had never won anything and for us to do everything that we've done in this short period of time is amazing."

- Rashad McCants

ROY WILLIAMS

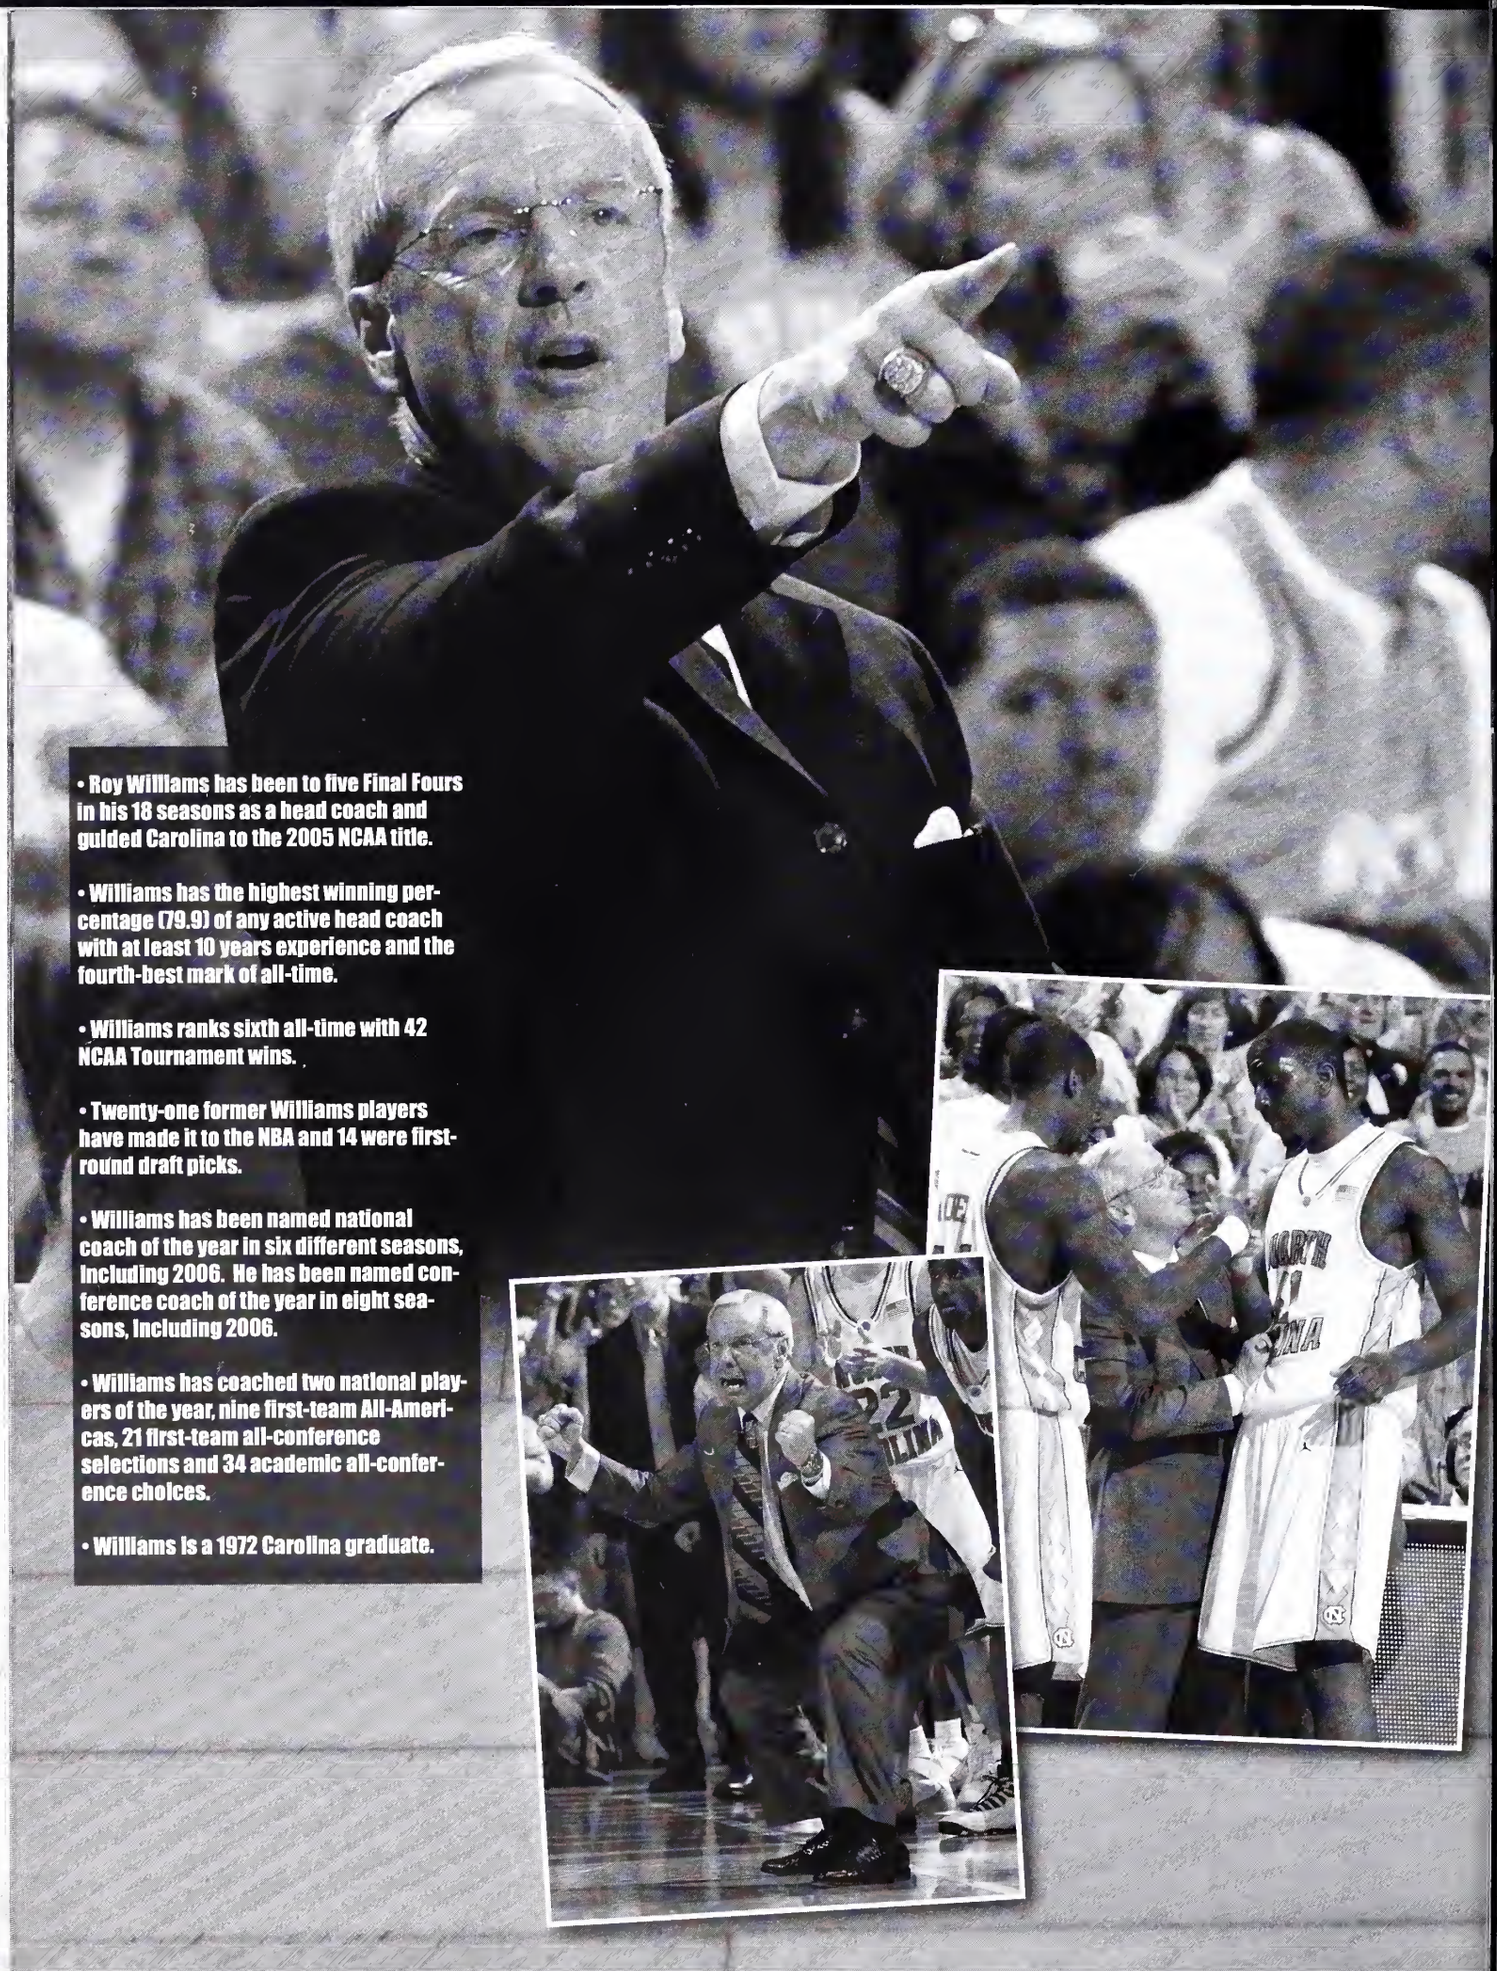
College Basketball's Best





"Roy Williams is one of the select few of the greatest coaches in the entire game of basketball. His move to North Carolina ensures for the foreseeable future excellence both on and off the court. The championships will now fall time after time to Chapel Hill."

- Hall-of-Famer Bill Walton



• Roy Williams has been to five Final Fours in his 18 seasons as a head coach and guided Carolina to the 2005 NCAA title.

• Williams has the highest winning percentage (79.9) of any active head coach with at least 10 years experience and the fourth-best mark of all-time.

• Williams ranks sixth all-time with 42 NCAA Tournament wins.

• Twenty-one former Williams players have made it to the NBA and 14 were first-round draft picks.

• Williams has been named national coach of the year in six different seasons, including 2006. He has been named conference coach of the year in eight seasons, including 2006.

• Williams has coached two national players of the year, nine first-team All-Americas, 21 first-team all-conference selections and 34 academic all-conference choices.

• Williams is a 1972 Carolina graduate.

"Both May and Felton have a very exceptional basketball IQ. They are coachable and they are in a situation where they can grow. Coming from one of the best college basketball programs definitely helps. They've played the best competition, and they've won a championship. So they know how to win."

Carolina's 10 NBA players combined to earn almost $63 million in salaries during the 2005-06 season.

UNC has had more players drafted by the NBA and more first-round picks than any other ACC school. Four Tar Heels went in the first 14 picks in 2005, making Carolina the only school in the nation to have four NBA Draft Lottery picks in the same year.

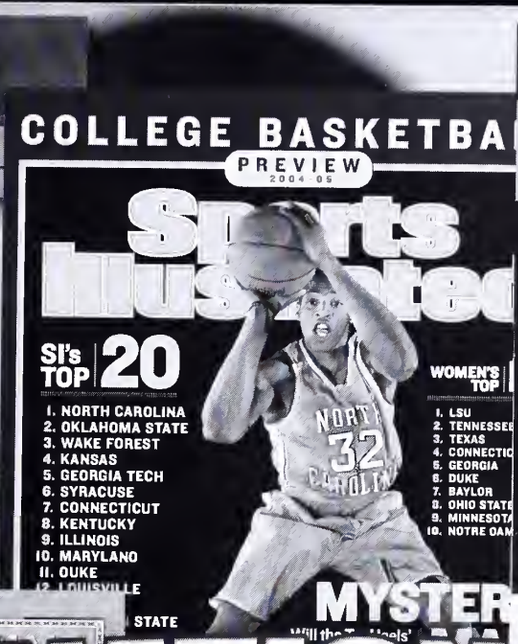
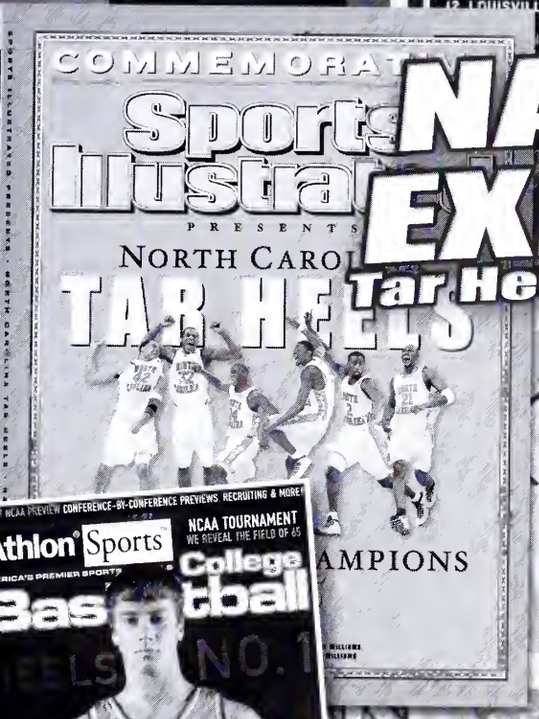
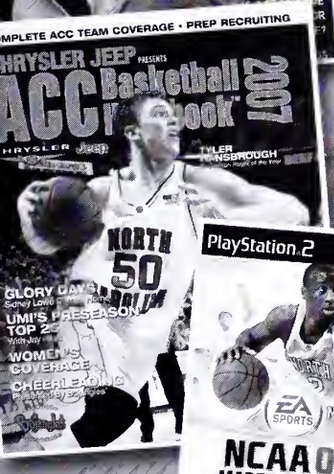
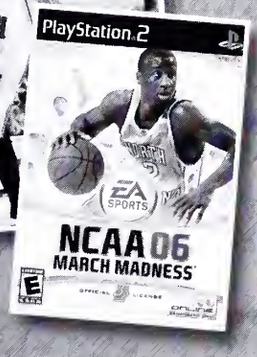
Tar Heels In The Spotlight









CAROLINA-DUKE SETS ESPN RATINGS RECORD
The Carolina-Duke game on March 4, 2006, set a record for the biggest audience in ESPN college basketball history. The game was seen by an average of 3.78 million households.

At least 28 regular-season and all of Carolina's ACC and NCAA Tournament games will be televised in 2006-07. At least twenty-four of those games will be nationally televised.

In five of the last six years, more officially-licensed UNC apparel was sold than any other school in America.

UNC Makes A Difference Off The Court

The Carolina men's basketball team in 2005-06 contributed approximately $65,000 to four local organizations — the Chapel Hill Interfaith Council Homeless Shelter, the Ronald McDonald House, Carolina's Student Aid Fund and the Pediatric Oncology/Hematology Department at UNC Hospitals. The money was raised through the sale of basketballs autographed by the Tar Heel team.

Tar Heels continue their good works long after leaving UNC. In 2006, former Tar Heel and current NBA star Jerry Stackhouse paid to refurbish a church in his hometown of Kinston, N.C., for its pastor — his mother, Minnie.

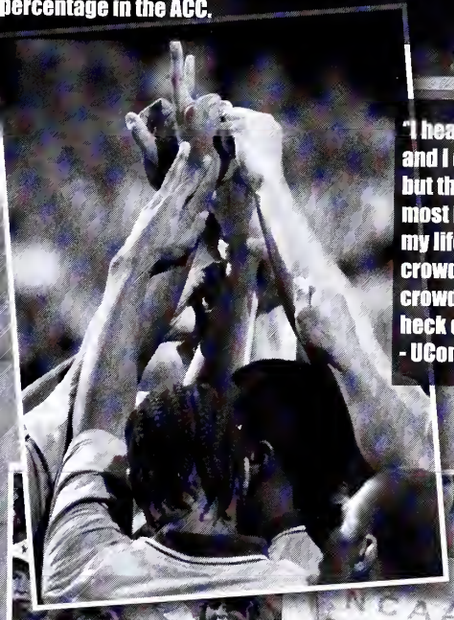
GAME DAY IN CHAPEL HILL

One Of The Top Venues In College Basketball

Carolina ranked third in the nation in attendance in 2005-06, averaging over 20,000 fans per home game. The Tar Heels have ranked in the top five every year since the Smith Center opened full-time.

UNC has won over 83 percent of its games in the Smith Center, the highest home winning percentage in the ACC.



"I hear about the wine and cheese crowd and I don't know where the hell they are, but they were not here today. That is the most bogus thing I have ever heard in my life. We were here last year, and the crowd was great, and this year the crowd was even greater. This is one heck of a home-court advantage."

2005-06 SEASON REVIEW NOTES

TAR HEELS REACH NCAA SECOND ROUND

The University of North Carolina men's basketball team went 23-8 overall in 2005-06 and 12-4 in the Atlantic Coast Conference, finishing in second place in the ACC standings. The Tar Heels were the No. 3 seed in the NCAA Washington, D.C., regional and advanced to the second round before losing to eventual Final Four participant George Mason in the University of Dayton Arena in Dayton, Ohio. Carolina was ranked No. 10 in the final Associated Press poll and No. 14 in the final ESPN/USA Today coaches poll.

TAR HEELS HAND OUT END-OF-THE-YEAR HONORS

Senior forward David Noel was selected the Most Valuable Player and junior guard Wes Miller was named the Most Improved Player and Most Outstanding Defensive Player as Carolina celebrated its season at the end-of-year awards ceremony on April 11 at the Smith Center. The awards were selected by vote of the Tar Heel players and coaches.

Noel was also named co-captain with Byron Sanders. Noel averaged 12.9 points and 6.8 rebounds, had 107 assists, 23 blocks and 34 steals in leading the Tar Heels to a 23-8 record.

Miller was UNC's defensive player of the game nine times and led the Tar Heels with 64 three-point field goals. He shot 44.1 percent from three-point range, the seventh-highest three-point percentage in Carolina single-season history.

Other awards winners included: Sanders (Burgess McSwain Athletic Director's Scholar-Athlete Award); Tyler Hansbrough (Butch Bennett Award as the freshman who exemplifies determination, sportsmanship and sacrifice); and Dewey Burke (Foy Roberson Award for inspiration and behind-the-scenes contributions).

Statistical award winners included: Hansbrough for highest field goal percentage and rebounding average; Reyshawn Terry for highest free throw percentage; and Bobby Frasor for most assists.

WILLIAMS MAKES 17TH STRAIGHT NCAA TOURNAMENT APPEARANCE

◆ Tar Heel head coach Roy Williams took his 17th consecutive team to the NCAA Tournament in 2005-06. The first 14 of those squads were at Kansas and the last three have been at Carolina. He is 42-16 as a head coach in NCAA Tournament play.

◆ Williams' 17 straight NCAA appearances mark the second-longest active streak in the nation and the third-longest all-time.

◆ Williams has 42 all-time NCAA Tournament wins, fourth among all active coaches and tied for sixth all-time. His Tournament winning percentage of .724 ranks fourth among active coaches.

HANSBROUGH SETS UNC FRESHMAN SCORING AVERAGE MARK

Freshman Tyler Hansbrough scored 587 points in 2005-06 and nearly broke the school record for points by a freshman in a season. Joseph Forte holds the record with 600 points in 1999-2000. Rashad McCants scored 594 as a freshman in 2002-03.

Hansbrough's scoring average of 18.9 points per game was the highest by a freshman in Carolina history. McCants' 17.0 ppg in 2002-03 was the previous record, followed by Forte's 16.7 ppg in 1999-2000.

The Carolina bench celebrates during the closing moments of the win at No. 1 Duke. The Tar Heels have more wins over No. 1 teams than any school in America.

CAROLINA LEADS THE NATION IN WINS OVER NO. 1-RANKED TEAMS

Carolina has 12 wins over No.-1 ranked teams in the Associated Press poll in its history, more than any other school in the nation. In 2005-06, UNC won at No. 1 Duke on March 4. Carolina has seven wins against Duke when the Blue Devils are ranked No. 1 in the AP poll. Roy Williams is 3-1 vs. No. 1 teams as head coach at Carolina, with wins over Connecticut (Jan. 17, 2004), Illinois (Apr. 4, 2005) and Duke (March 4, 2006) and a loss to Duke (Feb. 5, 2004).

HANSBROUGH NAMED FIRST-TEAM ALL-AMERICA

Tyler Hansbrough was named first-team All-America by The Sporting News and the Rupp Award foundation, becoming the first Tar Heel men's basketball player to earn first-team All-America honors as a freshman.

Hansbrough was also named a third-team All-America by the Associated Press, the National Association of Basketball Coaches and Basketball Times. He was named the National Freshman of the Year by The Sporting News, ESPN.com, SI.com, the U.S. Basketball Writers Association and Basketball Times.

No other Tar Heel freshman had ever made first-, second- or third-team All-America. Antawn Jamison was an honorable mention pick by Basketball Weekly in 1996.

HANSBROUGH NAMED ACC FRESHMAN OF THE YEAR

Carolina's Tyler Hansbrough was a unanimous choice as the ACC Freshman of the Year. Hansbrough is the first unanimous ACC Rookie of the Year in conference history. Hansbrough is the seventh Tar Heel to be named ACC Rookie of the Year, joining Sam Perkins (1981), Michael Jordan (1982), J.R. Reid (1987), Ed Cota (1997), Joseph Forte (2000) and Marvin Williams (2005).

WILLIAMS RAKES IN THE NATIONAL COACHING HONORS

Roy Williams was named National Coach of the Year by several organizations in 2006, including the Associated Press, the U.S. Basketball Writers Association of America (USBWA), the Rupp Award, SI.com and ESPN.com.

Williams is the fifth Carolina head coach to win national coach-of-the-year honors, joining Frank McGuire (1957), Dean Smith (1977-1979-1982-1993), Bill Guthridge (1998) and Matt Doherty (2001). Williams won national coach-of-the-year honors at Kansas in 1990, 1991, 1992 and 1997.

WILLIAMS ACC COACH OF THE YEAR

Roy Williams was named the ACC Coach of the Year on March 7, receiving 94 of 108 votes cast by ACSMA. Duke's Mike Krzyzewski was second with six votes.

It was the eighth time in 18 seasons as a head coach that Williams has been named his conference's coach of the year. He won the Big 8/12 Coach of the Year award seven times (in 1990, 1992, 1995, 1996, 1997, 2002 and 2003).

HANSBROUGH, NOEL, TERRY EARN ALL-ACC HONORS

Tar Heels Tyler Hansbrough, David Noel and Reyshawn Terry all earned All-Atlantic Coast Conference honors. Hansbough was named to the first team, Noel to the second team and Terry to the third team.

Hansbrough was one of three unanimous selections to the All-ACC first team, joining Duke's J.J. Redick and Shelden Williams. Hansbrough is the first Tar Heel to earn unanimous first-team honors since Joseph Forte in 2000-01. Hansbrough is the sixth freshman in ACC history to be named first-team All-ACC and the first ever to be a unanimous selection.

2005-06 SEASON REVIEW NOTES

HANSBOROUGH, FRASOR ON ACC ALL-FRESHMAN TEAM

Tar Heels Tyler Hansbrough and Bobby Frasor both were named to the ACC's All-Freshman team. Joining the duo on the squad were Greg Paulus and Josh McRoberts of Duke and Tyrese Rice of Boston College. Hansbrough was the only unanimous selection to the team. Hansbrough and Frasor are the 11th and 12th Tar Heels to make the All-ACC Rookie Team.

TAR HEELS POST 29TH TOP-10 FINISH IN AP POLL

Carolina was ranked No. 10 in the final Associated Press poll and No. 14 in the final ESPN/USA Today coaches poll. The 2005-06 season was the first time since the 1984-85 campaign that Carolina began the season unranked in the AP poll and climbed into its Top 10. UNC has been ranked in the Top 10 of the AP poll 534 times, most in ACC history. The '05-'06 season marked the 29th time that Carolina has finished in the Top 10 of the AP poll.

BEST ROAD ACC PERFORMANCE

Carolina went 7-1 on the road in ACC play in 2005-06, its best road record in the ACC since the conference schedule expanded to 16 games in the 1991-92 season. UNC previously had gone 6-2 on the road four times (in 1992-93, 1997-98, 2000-01 and 2004-05).

Carolina's best road records all-time in ACC play include five undefeated seasons — 7-0 in 1983-84 and 1986-87, 6-0 in 1956-57 and 1975-76 and 5-0 in 1959-60.

CAROLINA TOPS 20-WIN PLATEAU

◆ North Carolina (23-8) reached the 20-win plateau with its win over Virginia on March 1. Carolina has won at least 20 games 48 times in its history. The Tar Heels have posted 20-win seasons in 33 of the last 36 years.

◆ Roy Williams has won 20 or more games 16 times in 18 seasons as a head coach. He has won 19 or more games in all 18 of his seasons.

◆ Carolina won at least 20 games for an NCAA-record 31 consecutive seasons from 1970-71 to 2000-01. In that span, the Tar Heels won at least 25 games 21 times and at least 30 games three times.

ACC Championships

The Tar Heels went 14-2 in ACC play in 2005 and won their 24th regular-season Atlantic Coast Conference championship. UNC has won 15 outright, shared nine others and won 15 ACC Tournament titles. Duke is second with 17 regular-season titles and has also won 16 tournament championships. The Tar Heels last won the ACC Tournament in 1998.

ACC 50

The Tar Heels placed 12 on the ACC 50th Anniversary Team, more than any other school. Carolina's honorees included Lennie Rosenbluth, Billy Cunningham, Larry Miller, Charles Scott, Bobby Jones, Walter Davis, Phil Ford, James Worthy, Sam Perkins, Michael Jordan, Brad Daugherty and Antawn Jamison.

ACC Players of the Year

Ten different Tar Heels have been named ACC Player of the Year, including Larry Miller, who won the award in 1967 and 1968. Other Tar Heel recipients include Lennie Rosenbluth (1957), Pete Brennan (1958), Lee Shaffer (1960), Billy Cunningham (1965), Mitch Kupchak (1976), Phil Ford (1978), Michael Jordan (1984), Antawn Jamison (1998) and Joseph Forte (2001).

All-Americas

Forty-seven Tar Heels have earned All-America honors, including 33 first-team honorees. The most recent first-team selection was Tyler Hansbrough in 2005-06.

Phil Ford (1976-78), Mike O'Koren (1978-80) and Sam Perkins (1982-84) earned first-team All-America honors on three occasions. Ford, O'Koren and Perkins and NC State's David Thompson and Virginia's Ralph Sampson are the only three-time, first-team All-Americas in ACC history.

Carolina is third in NCAA history with 13 consensus first-team All-Americas. They include George Glamack (1940 and 1941), Lennie Rosenbluth (1957), Larry Miller (1968), Robert McAdoo (1972), Phil Ford (1977 and 1978), James Worthy (1982), Michael Jordan (1983 and 1984), Sam Perkins (1983 and 1984), Kenny Smith (1987), J.R. Reid (1988), Jerry Stackhouse (1995), Antawn Jamison (1998) and Joseph Forte (2001).

All-ACC

Carolina has placed 65 players on the All-ACC first team, the most in league history. Duke is second with 54. Tyler Hansbrough was a unanimous selection as a freshman in 2005-06.

Seven Tar Heels have earned first-team honors three times – Lennie Rosenbluth (1956-58), York Larese (1959-61), Billy Cunningham (1963-65), Charles Scott (1968-70), Phil Ford (1976-78), Sam Perkins (1982-84) and Antawn Jamison (1996-98).

Draft Day

Carolina has had 90 players selected in the NBA Draft, including 35 players taken in the first round. The Tar Heels have had 16 players drafted in the first round in the last 18 years. In 2005, Marvin Williams (2nd), Raymond Felton (5th), Sean May (13th) and Rashad McCants (14th) became the first school to have four players taken in the NBA Draft Lottery.

James Worthy and Brad Daugherty were selected No. 1 in the overall draft. Worthy was selected in 1982 by the Lakers; Daugherty was taken No. 1 by Cleveland in 1986.

Michael Jordan was the third player selected in the 1984 Draft behind Hakeem Olajuwon (Houston) and Sam Bowie (Portland).

Final Four

Carolina has played in 16 Final Fours, most in the nation. The Tar Heels played in the Final Four in 1946, 1957, 1967, 1968, 1969, 1972, 1977, 1981, 1982, 1991, 1993, 1995, 1997, 1998, 2000 and 2005. The Tar Heels won the NCAA title in 1957, 1982, 1993 and 2005.

Rusty Clark (1967-69), Bill Bunting (1967-69) and Ed Cota (1997-98, 2000) are the only Tar Heels to start in three different Final Fours. Carolina holds the NCAA record for most players who have played in a Final Four with 135.

Final Four MVPs

Sean May had 26 points and 10 rebounds in Carolina's 75-70 win over Illinois in the 2005 NCAA championship game and was named the Most Outstanding Player of the Final Four. May is the third Tar Heel to win that award, along with James Worthy in 1982 and Donald Williams in 1993.

500 ACC Wins

The Tar Heels have won 537 regular-season ACC games, more than any other school in league history. Duke is second with 488 wins. No other ACC school has 400 ACC wins.

Freshmen

Carolina has had 11 players named to the ACC All-Freshman Team since its inception in 1992-93. Tyler Hansbrough made the team in 2005-06, joining Marvin Williams, Raymond Felton, Rashad McCants, Jerry Stackhouse, Rasheed Wallace, Antawn Jamison, Ed Cota, Kris Lang, Joseph Forte and Jawad Williams as All-ACC Freshman selections.

Seven Carolina players have been named ACC Rookie of the Year, including Sam Perkins (1981), Michael Jordan (1982), J.R. Reid (1987), Cota (1997), Forte (2000), Marvin Williams (2005) and Hansbrough (2006).

Twenty-three Tar Heels have started their first game, the latest being Bobby Frasor, Marcus Ginyard and Hansbrough in 2005-06.

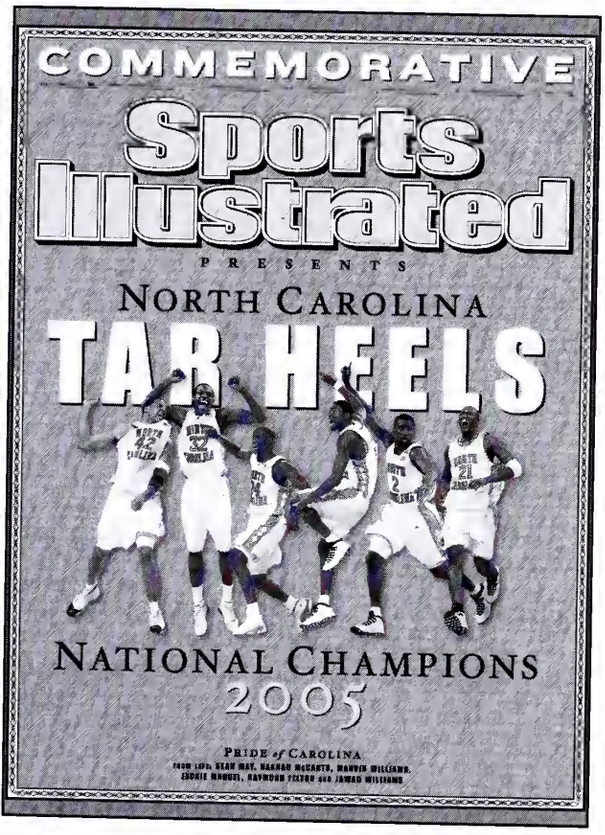
NCAA Tournament

Carolina is second in NCAA history with 38 appearances, 126 games played and 89 wins in the NCAA Tournament. The Tar Heels established an all-time record with 27 consecutive trips to the Tournament from 1975-2001. UNC has the third-best win percentage (.706) in Tournament history.

No. 1 vs. No. 2

Carolina has played in seven games involving the top two ranked teams in the country by the Associated Press poll and the Tar Heels are 7-0 in those games (4-0 as No. 1 and 3-0 as No. 2).

A list of those games:
March 23, 1957 – No. 1 UNC 54, No. 2 Kansas 53
Dec. 26, 1981 – No. 1 UNC 82, No. 2 Kentucky 69
Jan. 9, 1982 – No. 1 UNC 65, No. 2 Virginia 60
Feb. 4, 1986 – No. 1 UNC 78, No. 2 Ga. Tech 77
Feb. 3, 1994 – No. 2 UNC 89, No. 1 Duke 78
Feb. 5, 1998 – No. 2 UNC 97, No. 1 Duke 73
Apr. 4, 2005 – No. 2 UNC 75, No. 1 Illinois 70



No. 1

Carolina has been ranked No. 1 in the nation in the Associated Press poll in 15 different seasons since the AP began its rankings in 1948-49. Those seasons include 1957, 1958, 1959, 1978, 1982, 1983, 1984, 1986, 1987, 1988, 1993, 1994, 1995, 1998 and 2001.

The Tar Heels have been No. 1 on 84 occasions. Carolina is second in weeks ranked No. 1 in the country behind UCLA (128).

Carolina has been ranked in the Top 10 in 534 polls. That is the second-highest figure in NCAA basketball history. Carolina has appeared in the AP poll 703 times, more than any other school in history. Duke is second in ACC history ranked 564 times.

Carolina is the only school in the country with 12 wins over the No. 1 ranked team in the AP poll, including a victory at Duke in 2006.

1,000-Point Scorers

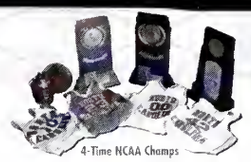
The Tar Heels have had 58 players reach 1,000 points. That figure is the most in the nation. Louisville is second with 57, Duke has 54, Kentucky is fourth with 52 and Kansas is fifth with 48.

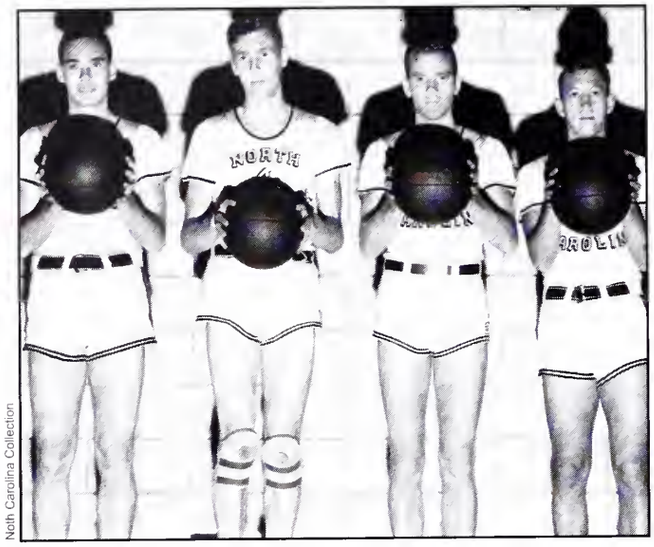
Phil Ford (2,290), Sam Perkins (2,145), Lennie Rosenbluth (2,045), Al Wood (2,015) and Charles Scott (2,007) – netted at least 2,000 points.

Wins

The Tar Heels have won 1,883 basketball games, the second-most in NCAA history. Carolina, Kentucky (1,926) and Kansas (1,873) are the only programs in the country with at least 1,800 wins.

CAROLINA BASKETBALL HISTORY





North Carolina Collection

The 1946 Tar Heels, led by (l-r) John Dillon, Bob Paxton, Jim White and Jim Hayworth, made the first Final Four appearance in school history.

Jan. 27, 1910: Carolina defeats Virginia Christian, 42-21, in first game.

Feb. 20, 1915: Lynchburg YMCA wins 63-20, the most lopsided loss in UNC history (43 points).

Feb. 28, 1922: Cartwright Carmichael, Monk McDonald lead UNC to 40-26 win over Mercer for Southern Conference (SoCon) Tournament title.

March 4, 1924: 26-16 win over Alabama wins SoCon title and caps 26-0 season. Helms Foundation later selects Carolina as national champions.

Feb. 18, 1926: A 17-8 loss to NC State marks the fewest points in UNC history, but two weeks later, Carolina beats Mississippi State to win the SoCon Tournament.

Feb. 10, 1941: Two-time All-America George Glamack scores a record 45 points in 76-53 win over Clemson. Later that year, UNC loses to Pittsburgh and Dartmouth in first-ever NCAA Tournament appearance.

March 21, 1946: 57-49 win over NYU in Madison Square Garden is Carolina's first in the NCAA Tournament. Five days later, Oklahoma A&M beats UNC, 43-40, in NCAA championship game. Hook Dillon scores 16 for Tar Heels in title game, but Bob Kurland leads A&M with 23.

Dec. 3, 1951: 100-57 win over Furman marks the first of 169 games in which Carolina scores 100 or more points. The Tar Heels are 151-18 in those games.

Feb. 29, 1952: Duke's Dick Groat scores 48, Bernie Jernicki grabs 31 rebounds in 94-64 Blue Devil win.

Dec. 1, 1952: Frank McGuire Era begins with 70-50 win over The Citadel. McGuire would post a 164-58 record in nine seasons.

Dec. 12, 1953: 82-56 win over South Carolina is UNC's first ACC game and win.

Feb. 8, 1954: Virginia's Buzz Wilkinson scores 48 in 83-69 Wahoo win, most points ever vs. UNC in an ACC game.

March 4, 1954: UNC loses first-ever ACC Tournament game, 52-51, to eventual champion NC State.

Dec. 14, 1955: Lennie Rosenbluth scores 29 as 16th-ranked Carolina beats fifth-ranked Alabama, 99-77, in UNC's first game as ranked team in AP poll.

Jan. 14, 1956: Rosenbluth ties UNC record with 45 points in a 103-99 win at Clemson. The Bronx native goes 15 for 23 from the floor and 15 for 24 from the line.

Feb. 24, 1956: Rosenbluth has 31 points and 14 boards in 73-65 win over Duke that clinches UNC's first-ever ACC regular-season title. Tar Heels, 11-3 in ACC, get first ACC Tournament win (over Virginia in quarterfinal), but are upset by #20 Wake Forest in semifinals.

Dec. 4, 1956: Rosenbluth sets UNC scoring record with 47 in season-opening win over Furman. Rosenbluth makes 20 of 37 shots from the floor and adds 17 rebounds.

Dec. 29, 1956: Carolina beats Wake Forest, 63-55, to win Dixie Classic for first time, one of four UNC wins that year over the Deacons (by a combined 18 points).

Jan. 30, 1957: Tar Heels beat Western Carolina, 77-59, in UNC's first-ever game as No. 1 ranked team in the nation (poll released Jan. 22).

Feb. 5-9, 1957: Rosenbluth scores eight of UNC's extra-session points in double-overtime win at Maryland followed by a 75-73 win over Duke as Tommy Kearns hits two free throws in the final minute to keep their unbeaten streak alive.

March 1, 1957: Rosenbluth scores 40 at Duke to cap perfect 14-0 ACC record. Rosenbluth, the National Player of the Year, sets UNC record averaging 28.0 points for the season.

March 15-16, 1968: Fourth-ranked Tar Heels beat No. 3 St. Bonaventure and No. 8 Davidson behind regional MVP Rusty Clark to advance to Final Four. Clark has 22 points and 17 rebounds in regional final. Tar Heels beat Ohio State in Final Four, but fall to Lew Alcindor and UCLA, 78-55, for national title in Los Angeles Sports Arena.

Feb. 26, 1969: Bill Bunting leads balanced effort with 14 points as Tar Heels beat South Carolina in Columbia to wrap up third straight ACC regular-season title.

March 8, 1969: Charles Scott scores 40 points, 29 in the second half, as Carolina beats Duke, 85-74 in ACC title game. Duke leads by nine at the half, but Scott sets ACC championship game scoring record and wins MVP honors.

March 15, 1969: Scott hits the game-winning jumper at the buzzer to beat Lefty Driesell's Davidson Wildcats, 87-85, to win NCAA East Regional and advance to third consecutive Final Four. Carolina loses to Purdue behind Rick Mount's 36 points.

Jan. 17, 1970: Scott scores 43 in 91-90 loss to Wake Forest. Later that year, the ACC's leading scorer and co-Male Athlete of the Year scores 41 points in ACC Tournament loss to Virginia. Scott averages 27.1 points, the third-highest mark by a Tar Heel.

March 13, 1971: South Carolina beats UNC, 52-51, on a Tom Owens lay-up at the buzzer in the ACC championship game. Owens' basket followed a jump ball with just three seconds to play. Lee Dedmon shared MVP honors as a member of the second-place team.

March 27, 1971: Bill Chamberlain scores 34 points and had 10 rebounds as UNC beats Georgia Tech, 84-66, to win the NIT. The Tar Heels also beat Julius Erving and Massachusetts in the first round, Providence and Duke (in the semifinal), all in Madison Square Garden.

Jan. 29, 1972: A 92-72 win over Maryland is Carolina's 1,000th victory. The Terps won the rematch in overtime, but Carolina won the rubber match, 73-59, to win the ACC Tournament. MVP Robert McAdoo averaged 15 points in the Tournament and Dennis Wuycik scored 24 in the championship game.

March 18, 1972: Second-ranked Carolina beats No. 3 Penn, 73-59, to advance to the Final Four. Wuyick (18), McAdoo (17) and George Karl (16) lead Carolina past the Quakers. McAdoo has 24 points and 15 rebounds in Final Four loss to Florida State, but fouled out with 13 minutes to play. McAdoo declares for the NBA after his junior year, his only year as a Tar Heel, and was selected No. 1 in the NBA Draft.

Jan. 19, 1974: All-America Bobby Jones steals the ball and drives the length of the floor for a game-winning lay-up as time expires in 73-71 win at Duke.

March 2, 1974: Freshman Walter Davis banks in a 35-footer at the buzzer to send the game to overtime, where the Tar Heels beat Duke, 96-92. Carolina trails the Blue Devils by eight points with 17 seconds to play in regulation, but UNC rallies behind Jones, who had four points and a steal.

March 6-8, 1975: Phil Ford becomes first freshman to win ACC Tournament MVP honors after leading Carolina to the title with 70-66 victory over defending NCAA champion NC State and David Thompson. Tar Heels beat Wake Forest, 101-100, in overtime in the quarterfinal after trailing by eight points with 50 seconds to play. Brad Hoffman sends the game into overtime with a 12-foot jumper with two seconds to play. Ford scores 29 and UNC needs overtime again to knock out Clemson in semifinals, then scores 24 in championship game win over Norm Sloan's Wolfpack.

Feb. 14, 1976: Mitch Kupchak has 35 points and 21 rebounds and Walter Davis has 26 points, 11 boards and six steals as Carolina works four overtimes to beat Tulane, 113-106, in the Louisiana Superdome. It is the longest game in Carolina history.

March 8, 1976: Wally Walker scores 21 points to lead sixth-seeded Virginia to 67-62 win over regular-season champion UNC in ACC championship game. It is the Cavaliers' first and only ACC Tournament title.

March 5, 1977: Ford scores 26 and freshman Mike O'Koren adds 21 as Carolina returns the favor from a year before, beating Virginia, 75-69, in the ACC final. Tournament MVP John Kuester handles the ball after Ford fouls out with 5:45 to play and goes 6 for 6 from the line. Ford scores 19 of his 26 in the first half. Bruce Buckley gives UNC the lead for good, breaking a 67-all tie.

March 17, 1977: Ford hyper-extends his right elbow, but scores 29 points, including the winning free throw with two seconds left in 79-77 win over Notre Dame (on St. Patrick's Day) in the NCAA East Regional semifinal.

March 19, 1977: Walter Davis, playing with a broken finger on his shooting hand, scores 21 points as fifth-ranked UNC beats No. 13 Kentucky, 79-72, to reach the Final Four.

March 26, 1977: O'Koren scores 31 as Tar Heels edge No. 4 UNLV, 84-83, in national semifinal. Carolina loses a second-half lead and the championship two days later to Al McGuire's Marquette Warriors, 67-59.

Jan. 7, 1978: The Tar Heels set an NCAA field goal percentage record by making 16 of 17 shots from the floor in the second half. Carolina shoots 94.1 percent in second half of 76-61 victory.

Feb. 25, 1978: Ford scores a career-high 34 points on 13 of 19 shooting from the floor in his final game at Carmichael Auditorium, an 87-83 win over Duke. Ford clinches third straight ACC regular-season title with two free throws with six seconds left.

Dec. 16, 1978: O'Koren's 18 points and six assists out-duels Magic Johnson's 18 points, six assists and eight turnovers in UNC's 70-69 win over No. 3 Michigan State. The Spartans went on to win the 1979 NCAA title.

Jan. 17, 1979: Dudley Bradley steals the ball from Clyde Austin and dunks home the game-winner with seconds to play in a 70-69 win over NC State in a game that stuns the Reynolds Coliseum crowd. Carolina led 40-19, but the Pack came back to take the lead before Bradley's heroics.

Feb. 24, 1979: Carolina holds the ball in the first half and fails to score as Duke leads, 7-0, at intermission. The Tar Heels wait 12:25 into the game before attempting a shot. Both teams score 40 in the second half and Duke wins, 47-40, in one of the most famous delay games ever played.

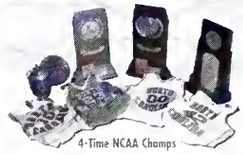
March 3, 1979: One week after the 47-40 game in Durham, 7th-ranked Carolina beats No. 5 Duke, 71-63, in ACC Tournament finals. Bradley, the MVP, had 16 points, seven steals and four assists and O'Koren led with 18 points.

March 11, 1979: ACC champion Tar Heels, ranked No. 3 in the nation, are upset by Penn, 72-71, in Raleigh in the NCAA Tournament. Quaker forward Tony Price scores 25. Duke loses to St. John's the same day in what was dubbed "Black Sunday."

Jan. 12, 1980: Al Wood scores 20 and Dave Colescott adds 18 as 15th-ranked Tar Heels knock off No. 1 Duke at Cameron.

Feb. 28, 1981: Gene Banks hit a turnaround baseline jumper to beat Carolina, 66-65, in overtime. Banks scored 25 points. Freshman Sam Perkins led UNC with 24.

CAROLINA BASKETBALL HISTORY



March 7, 1981: Carolina overcomes a 36-32 halftime deficit by shooting 63 percent in the second half and beats Maryland, 61-60, in the ACC championship game. James Worthy leads with 19. Jimmy Black's steal and lay-up gives Carolina the lead for good. Perkins scores 22 in quarterfinal vs. NC State and 18 in semifinal vs. Wake Forest and becomes the second freshman to earn ACC Tournament MVP honors.

March 28, 1981: Senior forward Al Wood, who was the West Regional MVP after a 21-point, 17-rebound effort in Final 8 win over Kansas State, torches Virginia for 39 points in the Final Four. Wood sets a national semifinal scoring record by making 14 of 19 from the floor and 11 of 13 from the line. Perkins holds National Player of the Year Ralph Sampson to three field goals and 11 points.

March 30, 1981: Isiah Thomas has 23 points, five assists and four steals to lead Indiana past UNC, 63-50, in the NCAA championship game in Philadelphia. Wood leads Carolina with 18 points. The game tips off less than eight hours after an assassination attempt on President Ronald Reagan. The game is almost postponed due to the events in Washington, D.C.

Nov. 28, 1981: Michael Jordan scores 12 points in his debut with the top-ranked Tar Heels, a 74-67 win over Kansas.

Dec. 26, 1981: Worthy (26), Perkins (21) and Jordan (19) combine for 66 points as No. 1 Carolina beats No. 2 Kentucky, 82-69, in the N.J. Meadowlands. It's the first and only time the two schools that rank 1-2 in all-time victories will play as the top two ranked teams in the AP poll.

Jan. 9, 1982: In another 1 vs. 2 match-up, top-rated Carolina edges Virginia, 65-60, despite Sampson's 30 points and 19 rebounds. Worthy and Jordan combine for 33 points.

March 7, 1982: Leading 44-43 with 7:34 to play, Carolina spreads the floor and beats the Cavaliers, 47-45, for the ACC championship. Matt Doherty makes three of four free throws in the final 28 seconds to secure the win and the ACC title. Virginia shoots 67 percent from the floor, but only gets 33 field goal attempts. Worthy leads UNC with 16 points.

March 27, 1982: Perkins scores 25 points and grabs 10 rebounds and Jordan drops in 18 as UNC beats Houston, 68-63, in the Final Four semifinal in New Orleans. The Tar Heels shoot 59 percent from the floor.

Allen Dean Steele/Daily Tar Heel

March 29, 1982: Freshman Michael Jordan hits this game-winning jump shot to lift the Tar Heels to a 63-62 win over Georgetown in the 1982 NCAA championship game in New Orleans.

March 29, 1982: Final Four MVP James Worthy scores a game-high 28 points and Michael Jordan hits the game-winning shot from the left wing with 17 seconds to play as Carolina beats Georgetown, 63-62, in one of the Final Four's greatest championship games ever played. Worthy makes 13 of 17 shots from the floor and has three steals, including one at the end of the game that seals the victory. Jordan scores 16, and Georgetown's freshman center Patrick Ewing has 23 points and 11 rebounds. The win gives Dean Smith his first of two NCAA championships. The Tar Heels trail, 32-31, at halftime, but shoot 61 percent in the second half (11 of 18).

Nov. 30, 1982: Defending NCAA champs drop their first two games against St. John's and Missouri and avoid an 0-3 start when Jordan comes up with a steal and a spinning, 24-foot jumper at the buzzer to send Tulane game into overtime. Tar Heels prevail, 70-68 in triple OT.

Jan. 15, 1983: Perkins scores 36 in Charlottesville and Tar Heels knock off second-ranked Virginia, 101-95.

Feb. 10, 1983: Top-ranked Carolina trails No. 3 Virginia by 16 points in the second half and by 10 with 4:12 to play, but pulls out an improbable 64-63 win, one of the most memorable ever in Carmichael Auditorium. Jordan's offensive rebound basket pulls the Tar Heels to within a point, then Jordan strips Rick Carlisle of the ball and slams home the go-ahead basket.

Dec. 3, 1983: Second-ranked Carolina wins at Stanford, 88-75, to give Dean Smith his 500th victory.

Feb. 12, 1984: Joe Klein scores 20 as Eddie Sutton's Arkansas Razorbacks upset No. 1 Carolina, 66-65, in Pine Bluff, Ark. Jordan scores 21 in defeat.

March 3, 1984: Playing his final home game, Matt Doherty hits a runner in the lane that ties the game at the end of regulation and the Tar Heels beat Duke in two overtimes, 96-83, to preserve a perfect 14-0 mark in the ACC. Jordan and Perkins, also playing in their Carmichael finales, score 25 apiece and Steve Hale has 13 assists.

March 22, 1984: Freshman guard Steve Alford scores 27 points to lead unranked Indiana to a 72-68 win over No. 1 Carolina in the NCAA second round in Atlanta. Perkins scores 26 in his final game as a Tar Heel and finishes his career first at UNC in rebounding and second in scoring. Jordan battles foul trouble and an injured finger, scoring 13 points in just 26 minutes before fouling out. The Hoosiers shoot 69 percent (11 for 16) in the second half and 65 percent for the game.

Dec. 27, 1985: Ranzino Smith and Kevin Madden both score 17 points to lead nine players in double figures as Carolina scores a school-record 129 points in 129-45 win over Manahattan in Miami.

Jan. 4, 1986: Brad Daugherty scores 28 points in 90-79 win over NC State in the final regular-season game played in Carmichael Auditorium. The Tar Heels conclude play there with a 169-20 record.

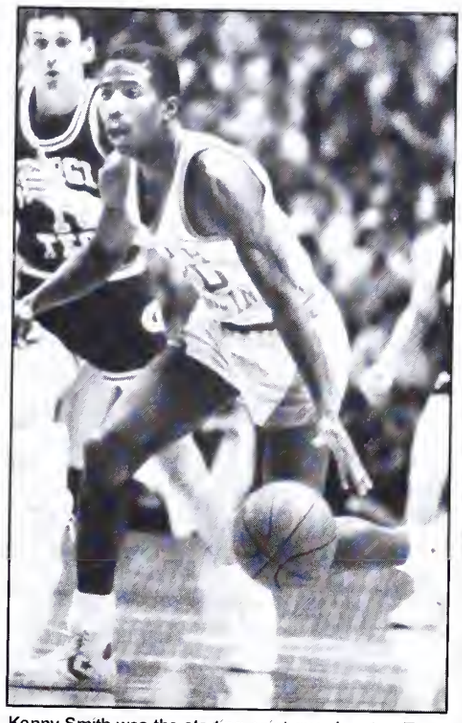
Jan. 18, 1986: Hale scores 28 and Daugherty adds 23 and 11 rebounds as No. 1 Carolina beats No. 3 Duke, 95-92, in first game played in the Smith Center.

Feb. 4, 1986: Daugherty's 22 points and Joe Wolf's 14 points, 13 rebounds lead No. 1 UNC past No. 2 Georgia Tech, 78-77, in overtime in Atlanta.

Feb. 20, 1986: Len Bias scores 35 points to lead Maryland to 77-72, overtime win, UNC's first defeat in the Smith Center.

March 7, 1987: Joe Wolf scores 27 and Jeff Lebo nets 22 in 84-82, double-overtime win over Virginia in the ACC semifinals. The next day, sixth-seeded NC State goes 14 for 14 from the line and beats the top-seeded Tar Heels, 67-66, for the ACC title.

March 21, 1987: No. 2 ranked Carolina is upset by No. 10 Syracuse, 79-75, in the NCAA East Regional final. Rony Seikaly leads the Orange with 26 points. Kenny Smith has 25 points and seven assists in his final game as a Tar Heel.



Kenny Smith was the starting point guard on two Tar Heel teams that went undefeated in ACC play — the 1983-84 and 1986-87 squads.

Nov. 21, 1987: In a rematch of the previous year's regional final, Carolina beats No. 1 ranked Syracuse, 96-93, in overtime in the Hall of Fame Classic. Playing without a suspended J.R. Reid, the Tar Heels rally from an 11-point halftime deficit. Ranzino Smith (21), Lebo (20) and freshmen Rick Fox (15) and Pete Chilcutt (14) lead UNC.

March 19, 1988: Carolina shoots a school-record 79.0 percent from the floor (49 of 62) in 123-97 rout over Loyola Marymount in NCAA Tournament second round. Ranzino Smith makes 11 of 14 shots en route to 27 points. UNC has 36 assists on 49 baskets. Carolina has 26 turnovers, 20 more than Loyola, and wins by 26.

Nov. 18, 1988: Lebo sets school record with 17 assists in 111-84 win over Chattanooga in Preseason NIT.

Jan. 18, 1989: Playing without Lebo, who was injured in 106-83 loss at Virginia the previous game, UNC beats No. 1 and unbeaten Duke, 91-71, in Cameron. Scott Williams scores 22 to lead the Tar Heels.

March 12, 1989: Steve Bucknall's three-point play with 1:46 left breaks a 66-all tie and Tournament MVP J.R. Reid leads with 14 points as UNC beats Duke, 77-74, in Atlanta to win Carolina's first ACC championship in seven years. The game is one of the most intense in ACC history. Carolina commits 26 turnovers, but holds Duke to 39 percent shooting, including 3 of 23 from three-point range.

Nov. 24, 1989: King Rice's bank shot at the buzzer beats James Madison, 80-79, in the first round of the Maui Classic. Carolina rallies from a 79-70 deficit with less than a minute to play.

Dec. 27, 1989: Rice (22) and Fox (20) lead seven Tar Heels in double figures as UNC beats Kentucky, 121-110, in Louisville. It is the highest scoring, non-overtime game in UNC history.

March 17, 1990: Fox banks in the game-winner as time expires and eighth-seeded Carolina beats No. 1 ranked and top-seed Oklahoma, 79-77, in the NCAA second round.

Jan. 9, 1991: Hubert Davis scores 25 in a 105-73 win over Maryland, Dean Smith's 700th win. He is the first ACC coach to win 700 games.

Feb. 7, 1991: Carolina beats NC State, 92-70, in Chapel Hill. The night before, the same teams play in Raleigh, a 97-91 Wolfpack win. The Feb. 7 game, which is also Carolina's 1500th victory, is re-scheduled from Jan. 15, 1991, because of the outbreak of the Gulf War.

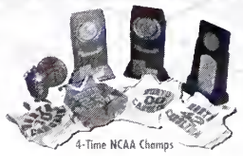
March 10, 1991: Tournament MVP Rick Fox scores 25, Hubert Davis adds 17 and Rice has seven assists and no turnovers as Carolina routs Duke, 96-74, in ACC championship game. Duke had won both regular-season games.

March 24, 1991: NCAA East Regional MVP Rick Fox and Hubert Davis each score 19 points as Carolina holds off Mark Macon and Temple, 75-72, to advance to the Final Four for the first time since 1982. Macon scores 31 and narrowly misses a long three-pointer at the buzzer that would sent the game to overtime.

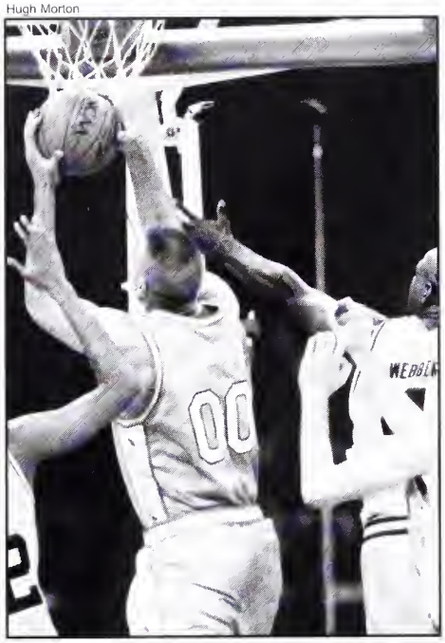
March 30, 1991: Hubert Davis leads all scorers with 25 points, but Carolina shoots 38 percent for the game (3 of 18 from three-point range) and falls to Kansas, 79-73, in Indianapolis in the Final Four. The Jayhawks are coached by former UNC assistant Roy Williams.

Feb. 2, 1992: Derrick Phelps sets UNC record for steals with nine in 86-76 win at Georgia Tech.

CAROLINA BASKETBALL HISTORY



Hugh Morton



April 5, 1993: Eric Montross scores 16 points as Carolina downs Michigan 77-71 for Dean Smith's second national championship.

Feb. 5, 1992: In a game most remembered for blood streaming down the back of Eric Montross' head, UNC beats defending NCAA champion and No. 1 Duke, 75-73, causing the students to rush the floor for the first time ever at the Smith Center.

Feb. 8, 1992: Carolina trails Wake Forest by 22 points, but rallies for an 80-78 win on Brian Reese's buzzer-beating jumper. The Deacons led by 11 with 6:17 to play, before a 10-0 run by UNC. Hubert Davis leads the Tar Heels with 30.

Dec. 29, 1992: Jalen Rose's offensive rebound basket at the buzzer gives No. 6 Michigan a 79-78 win over No. 5 Carolina in the semifinals of the Rainbow Classic in Honolulu. The teams would meet again later that season.

Jan. 27, 1993: Florida State leads by 17 at halftime and 73-54 with less than nine minutes to play. Carolina reels off 15 straight points, however, and takes the lead for good on a George Lynch steal and dunk with just under two minutes to play. Donald Williams seals the win at the free throw line as UNC outscores the Seminoles, 28-4, over the last nine minutes.

March 28, 1993: Cincinnati's Nick Van Exel scores 21 first-half points and the Bearcats lead Carolina by as many as 15 in the first half. Then Derrick Phelps clamps down on Van Exel and East Regional MVP George Lynch scores 21 and grabs 14 rebounds in 75-68 overtime win to send Carolina to the Final Four. Lynch had 22 against Arkansas in the regional semifinal. Donald Williams had 22 and 20 in the two regional games.

April 5, 1993: Final Four MVP Donald Williams score 25 points for the second Final Four game in a row, Montross scores 16 and Lynch posts his fourth straight double-double as Carolina avenges earlier loss to Michigan with 77-71 victory. The win gives Dean Smith his second NCAA championship. Williams hits 5 of 7 three-pointers in both Final Four games, including a 78-68 win over Roy Williams-led Kansas in the semifinal.

Feb. 3, 1994: Carolina prevails, 89-78, in the first-ever meeting against Duke in which the schools are ranked 1-2 in the country. Second-ranked Tar Heels get 18 points, six assists and no turnovers from Phelps.

March 12, 1994: ACC Tournament classic as UNC erases five-point deficit late in regulation and beats Wake Forest, 86-84 in overtime. Dante Calabria send the game to overtime and Jerry Stackhouse wins it. It is Dean Smith's 800th win.

March 20, 1994: No. 1 Carolina is knocked out of the NCAA Tournament in the second round, 75-72, by Boston College.

Feb. 2, 1995: Stackhouse (25), Rasheed Wallace (25) and Donald Williams (24) combined for 74 points and Carolina beats Duke, 102-100, in double overtime. Blue Devil guard Jeff Capel sends the game into second overtime with long three-pointer, but a Jeff McInnis steal and basket provides the winning margin for UNC.

March 11-12, 1995: Wallace scores 33 in overtime win over Maryland in ACC semifinals, then sprains an ankle late in the championship game against Wake Forest. The Deacons, led by 37 points from Randolph Childress, beat Carolina, 82-80, in overtime.

March 25, 1995: No. 4 Carolina beats No. 2 Kentucky, 74-61, in Birmingham to advance to Final Four. Regional MVP Jerry Stackhouse has 18 points, 12 rebounds, six assists, two steals and two blocks. UNC falls to Arkansas in the Final Four, in part due to a leg injury Stackhouse suffers 12 seconds into the national semifinal.

Jan. 8, 1997: Carolina leads Maryland in Chapel Hill by 22, but the Terps outscore UNC, 41-9, to win 85-75. UNC would begin ACC play 0-3 and avoids an 0-4 start by outscoring NC State 12-0 in the final two minutes of a 59-56 win on Jan. 15.

Feb. 12, 1997: Ed Cota's baseline floater with 4.5 seconds to play gives Carolina a 45-44 win at NC State. It is the fewest points ever by Carolina in a Dean Smith victory.

March 8-9, 1997: ACC Tournament MVP Shammond Williams scores 24 in semifinals vs. Wake Forest and 23 in championship vs. NC State as Carolina wins ACC Tournament for 13th and final time under Dean Smith.

March 15, 1997: Carolina beats Colorado, 73-56, in NCAA Tournament second round in Winston-Salem. The news of the day is the win is Dean Smith's 877th, breaking Adolph Rupp's all-time record for coaches.

March 23, 1997: Shammond Williams scores 22 and Vince Carter adds 18 as Carolina beats Louisville, 97-74, to send Dean Smith to his 11th Final Four. Smith would coach his final game, a 66-58 loss to Arizona, in Indianapolis on March 29, 1997.

Oct. 9, 1997: Dean Smith retires after 36 years as head coach. Bill Guthridge, Smith's assistant for 30 years, is named head coach. Guthridge leads UNC to a 34-4 record, ACC title and Final Four berth, and is named National Coach of the Year.

Feb. 5, 1998: Antawn Jamison, the 1998 National Player of the Year, scores 35 points as No. 2 Carolina beats No. 1 Duke, 97-73.

March 25, 1995: Dean Smith, Rasheed Wallace and No. 4 Carolina beat No. 2 Kentucky to advance to the Final Four.

CAROLINA BASKETBALL HISTORY

Feb. 8, 1998: Shammond Williams scores 42 in 107-100 double overtime win at Georgia Tech.

Feb. 11, 1998: Carolina wins its 1700th game, a 60-45 victory at Virginia.

March 8, 1998: Jamison shakes off a leg injury and earns ACC Tournament MVP honors with 22 points and 18 rebounds. The Tar Heels score last 15 points in 83-68 win over top-ranked Duke in ACC Tournament championship. Carolina later advances to Final Four as the top-ranked team with a 75-64 win over Connecticut, but is upset by 7th-ranked Utah, 65-59.

March 19, 2000: Joseph Forte scores 17 points and Ed Cota has 10 assists to lead No. 8 seed Carolina to a 60-53 win over top seed Stanford in the NCAA second round.

March 24-26, 2000: Wins over Tennessee and Tulsa send Bill Guthridge to his second Final Four in three years as head coach. Freshman Joseph Forte scores 28 in 59-55 regional final win over Tulsa. Guthridge retires in June 2000 with a three-year record of 80-28.

Nov. 10-11, 2000: Carolina beats Winthrop, 66-61, in Matt Doherty's first game as head coach. The next night, Forte drops 38 on Tulsa to set the Smith Center scoring record.

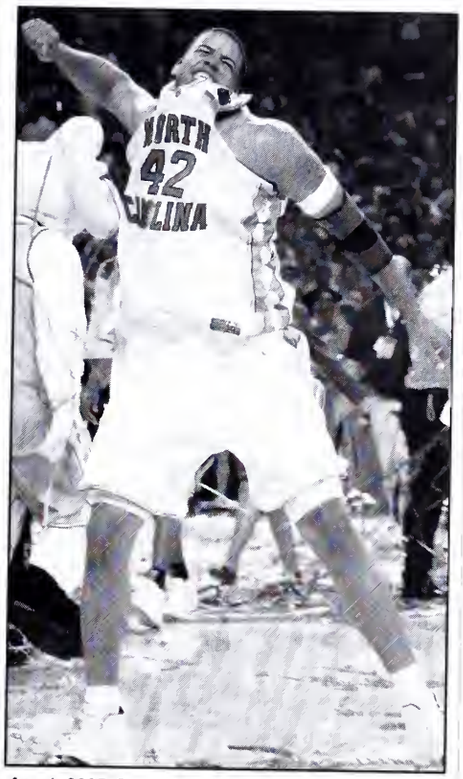
Dec. 4-17, 2000: Brendan Haywood and Jason Capel post triple-doubles in wins over Miami and Buffalo, respectively.

Feb. 1, 2001: Haywood hits two free throws with one second to play to give UNC an 85-83 win at Duke. Forte is sensational with 24 points, 16 rebounds, six assists and three steals.

Jan. 9, 2002: Juan Dixon scores 29 as Maryland beats UNC, 112-79, the most points ever allowed by Carolina in a regulation game. The Tar Heels would finish the year 8-20, missing the NCAA Tournament for the first time since 1974.

Nov. 18, 2002: Rashad McCants scores 28 points in his freshman debut and starts with Raymond Felton and Sean May – the first time in history the Tar Heels start three freshmen – in 85-55 win over Penn State.

Nov. 27, 2002: McCants scores 25 as Tar Heels upset Roy Williams and No. 2 Kansas, 67-56, in Preseason NIT semifinals. UNC knocks off Stanford two nights later to win the title.



Apr. 4, 2005: Sean May and Carolina top Illinois 75-70 for Roy Williams' first national championship.

Jan. 18, 2003: McCants scores 27 as UNC upsets No. 6 Connecticut, 68-65. The win is Carolina's 1,800th, making UNC only the second school to have 1,800 wins.

Feb. 8, 2003: Jawad Williams scores 20 in 61-60 win over Florida State, making UNC the first school with 500 ACC victories.

March 14, 2003: Three weeks after losing by 40 points at Maryland, Carolina upsets the Terps, 84-72, in ACC quarterfinals behind 25 points from Jawad Williams and 20 points, 10 assists from Felton.

Nov. 22, 2003: Carolina beats Old Dominion, 90-64, in Roy Williams' first game as head coach. Williams took over the program on April 14, 2003, two weeks after Doherty resigned. Doherty went 53-43 in three seasons.

Dec. 7, 2003: Felton sets a UNC record with 18 assists against George Mason.

Dec. 20, 2003: Wake Forest tops Carolina, 119-114 in triple overtime, in one of the ACC's most memorable regular-season games ever played.

Jan. 17, 2004: No. 9 Carolina beats No. 1 Connecticut, 86-83, as McCants scores 27, including UNC's final 10 points. His three-pointer with six seconds to play beats the Huskies, who later that year win the NCAA title.

March 6, 2005: Marvin Williams' three-point play with 17 seconds left gives Carolina a 75-73 win over Duke as the Tar Heels clinch first in the ACC regular-season standings outright for the first time since 1993. Sean May has a game-high 26 points and 24 rebounds, the most ever by a player in the Smith Center.

March 27, 2005: May earns Syracuse Regional MVP honors with 29 points and 12 rebounds in an 88-82 win over Wisconsin that sends Roy Williams to the Final Four for the first time as UNC's head coach. McCants hits a go-ahead three-pointer late and blocks a Badger three attempt to preserve the win.

April 2, 2005: Senior captain Jawad Williams scores 20 points and the Tar Heels hold Michigan State to 29 percent shooting from the floor in the second half in an 87-71 UNC win in the national semifinals.

April 4, 2005: Marvin Williams tips in the game-winner with 1:17 to play, Final Four MVP Sean May has a game-high 26 points and Raymond Felton makes key plays down the stretch as No. 2 Carolina beats No. 1 Illinois, 75-70, to win UNC's fourth NCAA title and the first for Coach Roy Williams. Felton hits a three to break a 65-all tie, then adds a steal and three clutch free throws in the final minute. The Illini, who had been ranked No. 1 since early December and had just one loss all year, went 12 for 40 from three-point range.

June 28, 2005: Carolina becomes first school to have four lottery selections in one NBA Draft as Marvin Williams (2), Felton (5), May (13) and McCants (14) go in the first 14 picks.

Feb. 15, 2006: Tyler Hansbrough scores an ACC-freshman-record 40 points in an 82-75 win over Georgia Tech in the Smith Center.

March 4, 2006: Carolina beats No. 1 Duke 83-76 on Senior Night in Durham. The Tar Heels' four freshmen (Bobby Frasor, Marcus Ginyard, Danny Green and Tyler Hansbrough) out-scored Duke's four seniors (including first-team All-Americas J.J. Redick and Shelden Williams), 55-51.

✓ Smith has more wins (879) than any other coach in NCAA Division I history.

✓ In 36 years, Smith coached Carolina to 11 Final Fours, two national titles and 13 ACC Tournament Championships.

✓ More than 96 percent of Smith's lettermen graduated.

✓ From 1981 to 1989, Carolina was ranked in the final Top 10 of both the Associated Press and coaches' poll each year.

✓ The Tar Heels shot 50 percent or better in 23 of Smith's 36 seasons.

✓ Smith was named the second-best coach in college basketball history (behind John Wooden) by the NABC in 2000.

✓ Smith was inducted into the Naismith Memorial Basketball Hall of Fame in Springfield, Mass., in 1983. He was also inducted into the North Carolina Hall of Fame in 1981. In 2006, he was named to the inaugural class of the National Collegiate Basketball Hall of Fame (along with James Naismith, John Wooden, Oscar Robertson and Bill Russell).

✓ Smith was voted ACC Coach of the Year eight times - in 1967, 1968, 1971, 1976, 1977, 1979, 1988 and 1993.

When ESPN's award-winning Sports Century program selected the greatest coaches of the 20th Century, it came to no surprise that Carolina basketball coach Dean Smith was among the top seven of all-time. Smith joined other legends Red Auerbach, Bear Bryant, George Halas, Vince Lombardi, John McGraw and John Wooden as the preeminent coaches in sports history.

Smith's tenure as Carolina's basketball coach from 1960-97 is a record of remarkable achievement and consistency. In 36 seasons at UNC, Smith's teams had a record of 879-254. His teams won more games than those of any other Division I men's basketball college coach in history.

• Under Smith, the Tar Heels won at least 20 games for 27 straight years and 30 of his final 31. No coach in history has ever produced that many consecutive 20-win seasons.

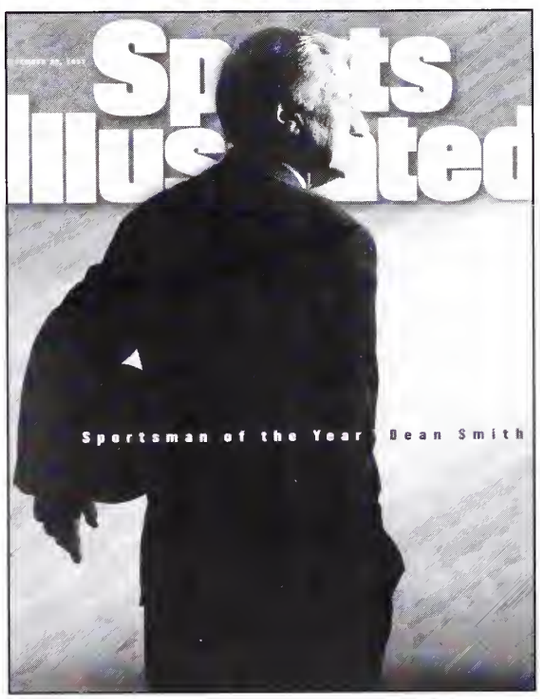
• Carolina was ranked in the final Top 10 of both the Associated Press and coaches' polls each year from 1981-89. That nine-year run is the second-longest streak of Top 10 finishes in history, exceeded only by UCLA's 13-year string from 1967 to 1979.

• The Tar Heels were ranked among the nation's final Top 15 teams in 28 of his last 31 seasons, missing only in 1970, 1990 and 1996, and were among the Top 10 on 23 occasions during that period. Smith's teams finished the season ranked No. 1 in at least one of the two major polls four times (1982, 1984, 1993 and 1994).

• Smith's teams were also the dominant force in the ACC. The Tar Heels under Smith had a record of 364-136 in ACC regular-season play, a winning percentage of .728.

• The Tar Heels finished at least third in the ACC regular-season standings for 33 successive seasons. In that span, Carolina finished first 17 times, second 11 times and third five times.

• Smith's teams finished in the ACC upper division all but one time. That was in 1964, when Caolina was fifth and had its only losing record in ACC regular-season play under Smith at 6-8.



Dean Smith was named the 1997 Sports Illustrated Sportsman of the Year.

• Carolina won 13 ACC Tournaments under Smith. Mike Krzyzewski of Duke ranks second in ACC Tournament titles with 10.

• His teams played in 11 Final Fours, second in number only to Wooden, who had 12.

• Smith's teams made a record 23 consecutive appearances in the NCAA Tournament. Arizona's Lute Olson has the second-longest streak in history at 22.

• In his last 31 years, Smith led the Tar Heels into the NCAA Tournament 27 times. That is an NCAA record (now shared with Bob Knight).

• Carolina reached the Sweet 16 of NCAA play each season from 1981-93. That 13-year streak is the second-longest in Tournament history to a 14-year stretch by UCLA from 1967 to 1980.

The awards and accolades continue to be given to Smith, even after he stepped down as Carolina's head coach on October 9, 1997. Smith was named Sportsman of the Year by Sports Illustrated, Honorary Coach of the Year by the United States Olympic Committee, received the Arthur Ashe Award for Courage at the annual ESPY Awards, and was honored with special awards for contributions to basketball by the Atlanta Tipoff Club and New York Athletic Club.

In 2006, he was named to the inaugural class of the National Collegiate Basketball Hall of Fame (along with James Naismith, John Wooden, Oscar Robertson and Bill Russell).

Smith also became the first recipient of the Mentor Award for Lifetime Achievement, given by the University of North Carolina Committee on Teaching Awards for "a broader range of teaching beyond the classroom."

He's recognized throughout the sports world for his character, his innovations to the game and his ability to have established Carolina's program as one of the greatest in college basketball. Smith's players consistently produce on the floor, in the classroom and in life.

When Smith broke Rupp's record in 1997, his coaching peers had this to say.

John Wooden: "What's more impressive to me about Dean than the record is how good he is as a teacher of basketball. I've always said he's a better teacher of basketball than anyone else. I couldn't begin to teach players the things Dean has taught them. I've admired him because there's more to him than just wins."

Bob Knight: "Let me say some things that he won't say. He's going to say an awful lot about teams and that's the way it should be. But let me put it in perspective. His being able to do that and do it at a single institution, do it through all the years without ever having a problem with any kind of recruiting violation or probation, is a very singular accomplishment in college basketball. I think it's a great achievement, indicative of a guy who really knows how to coach and has decided from day one that things are going to be done the absolute right way. He's not going to tell you, but just take my word for it. That's a great, great accomplishment for a coach."

Mike Krzyzewski: "It's singularly such a tremendous accomplishment. Whatever is written about him in a positive sense he justly deserves. I know he'll give credit, as we all would, to the players who have played for us, but in this situation the praise for him should rise well above that for the players who played for him."

Roy Williams: "He has a basketball program, he doesn't have a team. And when you have a program, you're concerned about the kids' entire lives, their entire existence ... and what they're going to do after they leave you and what kind of effect you can have on them as they mature."

Dave Odom: "What boggles the mind about him, at least to me, are the numbers of nights he's gone into the arena and been ready to compete on every single possession. I've not done it anywhere close to half as often and there are nights when it seems the season will never end. And yet, he's there, ready to go, always figuring out a way to beat you. Whenever I think about it, I shake my head in wonder."

Terry Holland: "He has been a target for all of us who coached in the ACC to shoot for. It is not always the most pleasant position to be in. The Carolina program was the measuring stick to everybody who came into the league. He has been willing to be the measuring stick. He helped create national exposure not only for North Carolina, but also for the other ACC teams as well and made us all improve our programs."

Perhaps his greatest form of praise on a worldwide level came when a group of his peers, including Hall of Fame coaches Henry Iba, Pete Newell and Auerbach, chose Smith to coach the U.S. Olympic basketball team in the 1976 Montreal Games. The Americans finished a controversial second to the Soviet Union at Munich in 1972. Smith was given the challenge of trying to develop a team to regain the Gold Medal against a group of improving international teams.

He named his long-time assistant, Bill Guthridge, and Georgetown's John Thompson, to be his assistants on the Olympic Team staff. Smith's teaching skills were put to one of their toughest tests.

Smith molded a group of college all-stars into a cohesive unit during a few short weeks in that summer of 1976 and led them to the gold medal, sweeping through the Games undefeated and beating Yugoslavia in the championship game. Emphasizing a tough pressure defense and a fast-breaking, attacking style on offense, the Americans returned to the top of the international game.

Just as Smith used his talents to develop that 1976 all-star team into an Olympic champion, he has prepared a host of players for successful careers in the NBA.

"UNC is a plus-four school," Orlando Magic Vice President of Basketball Operations-Player Personnel John Gabriel said about Smith's teams, "meaning that if I rate a player as the 10th-best player in the NBA Draft, being a Tar Heel automatically jumps him to number six. The plus-four rating is based upon the success of former Tar Heels in the NBA."

The Miami Heat's Pat Riley, who coached former Tar Heel standout James Worthy to three world titles with the Los Angeles Lakers, is another believer in Smith's program.

"We always look for players from North Carolina," said Riley. "If we could draft players every year from North Carolina, we'd do it. You know they know how to play. The players are so full of character like James and Michael Jordan. I have a lot of respect for Coach Smith. I'm the beneficiary of a man who has taught all these guys how to play the game. When they come to the pros, they're refined. They're ready to step right in."

During his last 31 seasons, since Smith's Tar Heels won their first ACC title in 1967, the Tar Heels had a record of 813-207, winning 79.7 percent of their games.

In 23 of those 31 seasons, Carolina won either the ACC regular-season, tournament or both. Most schools are happy just to win 20 games in a season. At Carolina, it became a habit. No school in the country won more total games in that 31-year period than Carolina. UCLA was second with 751. The Tar Heels also had the most wins over his last 20 seasons with 539, and over his last 10 years with 268.

For Smith and his players, the word "class" applied to the team's exemplary sportsmanship on the court, to its excellent academic performance and to Smith's belief that basketball involves many complexities that must be learned over the course of time — that coaching and playing the game is a classroom situation in its own right.

Smith's teams have won championships at every level. There were NCAA titles in 1982 and 1993 and the NIT in 1971. His gold medal-winning team at the 1976 Summer Olympic Games makes Smith one of only three men in history to coach teams to that troika of an NCAA title, NIT championship and Olympic victory. The others are Pete Newell and Bob Knight.

Smith's coaching skills and dedication to playing with class are the reasons he was inducted into the Naismith Memorial Basketball Hall of Fame in Springfield, Mass., in 1983. He was also inducted into the North Carolina Sports Hall of Fame in 1981.

A key to Smith's success was his ability to change Carolina's style to fit his personnel. He favored an offense which used the fast break whenever possible and featured a quick passing attack. But, he was also comfortable in a more disciplined style of play. He liked to play multiple defenses to confuse opponents. However, his preference was a pressure, man-to-man to speed up the action.

The fast-breaking attack, great teamwork in a set offense and steals produced by the defense resulted in a number of easy baskets. Along with good shot selection, those things have helped Carolina annually rank among the best shooting teams in the nation. Carolina failed to hit at least 50 percent from the field just four time in his last 27 years. Even in those four seasons, Carolina topped the ACC in field goal shooting each year.

Among Smith's many innovations were the run-and-jump defense, the scramble defense out of man-to-man pressure defense, the point zone, team huddles at the foul line, double-teaming the screen-and-roll, the free-lance passing game and multiple screens against zone defenses.

Born February 28, 1931, in Emporia, Kan., Dean Edwards Smith grew up as the son of public school teachers. He graduated from Topeka High School in 1949 and went to the University of Kansas on an academic scholarship. He played varsity basketball and baseball and freshman football for the Jayhawks. He was a member of Jayhawk basketball teams that won the NCAA title in 1952 and finished second in 1953.

Smith was an assistant coach at Kansas to Phog Allen and Dick Harp, then served in the U.S. Air Force as a lieutenant. While in the service, he played and coached basketball in Germany. Smith served for three years as an assistant basketball coach under Bob Spear, recognized by his peers as one of the outstanding coaches in the history of the game, and one year each as head baseball and head golf coach at the United States Air Force Academy. In 1958, the late Frank McGuire asked him to join his staff at Carolina as an assistant coach. Smith served as an assistant under McGuire for three years before McGuire resigned to become head coach of the NBA's Philadelphia Warriors in the summer of 1961. At that time, Carolina Chancellor William Aycock tapped the 30-year-old Smith to become UNC's head coach.

Smith shared his knowledge of the game with a talented group of assistants. Many of his assistants went on to head coaching jobs, including Larry Brown, Roy Williams, John Lotz, Kenny Rosemond, Eddie Fogler, Randy Wiel and Bill Guthridge.

Smith's talents do not lie solely in tutoring quality college coaches as is evidenced by the number of outstanding players who have gone on to professional careers after their days in Chapel Hill. In Smith's 36-year tenure, more than 50 of his players went on to play pro basketball in the NBA or ABA and more played in other professional leagues both in the United States and overseas.

Six of Smith's players won rookie of the year awards in either the NBA or ABA, including Charlie Scott, Robert McAdoo, Walter Davis, Phil Ford, Michael Jordan and Vince Carter.

"Coach taught me the game, when to apply speed, how to use your quickness, when to use that first step, or how to apply certain skills in certain situations," says Jordan. "Dean Smith gave me the knowledge to score 37 points a game and that's something people don't understand."

Smith coached players who went on to become doctors, lawyers and businessmen. Better than 95 percent of his lettermen earned their degrees.

NBA head coach George Karl: "I don't think any of the lettermen can really express the family atmosphere that he's built, the tradition that he's built of loyalty and camaraderie. It's a fraternity that's very much admired by basketball people in the world."

Michael Jordan: "The camaraderie that he has with his players goes a long way. He's taught a lot of us similar traits and we've accepted that and we've moved on as players and people. That's something we treasure more so than maybe our basketball experience — the things that we learned away from the game.

"He's like a second father to me. When I first left school I was unsure, nervous, scared, going into a situation I wasn't really comfortable with and I didn't know if I was ready for it. He calmed me down with a fatherly attitude, taking me under his wing and teaching me a lot of things about being an adult."

Phil Ford: "My first impression of Coach Smith was honesty. He didn't promise me playing time. In fact, he told me I might have to play on the junior varsity my first year. That kind of set me back. But my mom really liked that because she said, 'Phil, if he's not out here promising you that you will start, that means you go there and work hard and do the best that you can do, then he won't be out promising your job to another high school player.' And if you think about it, that made a lot of sense."

Larry Brown: "Nobody's done it better over a longer period of time than he has. He won in the '60s, '70s, '80s and '90s and if you look at his teams, they've always been innovative, he hasn't been lost or left behind. He's always stayed ahead. He's kept young. He's learned to deal with all kinds of athletes and the changes we've all faced."

Smith was the winningest coach in the history of the NCAA Tournament with 65 victories (currently second). In 36 ACC Tournaments, he had a coaching record of 58-23, a winning percentage of .716.

Smith, who played for the legendary Phog Allen at Kansas in the early 1950s, is one of only two men to both play on and coach an NCAA championship team. Smith was a member of the Jayhawk squad that won college basketball's top prize in 1952. He then coached the Tar Heels to national titles in 1982 and 1993. Knight is the other person to accomplish the feat. Bob Knight played on Ohio State's 1960 championship team and then coached Indiana to three titles.

After taking Carolina to the NCAA championship game in 1977, Smith was named National Coach of the Year by the NABC. He received similar honors from the U.S. Basketball Writers Association and Basketball Weekly in 1979 and from Medalist in 1982. He was named the Naismith National Coach of the Year in 1993 after leading the Tar Heels to the national crown.

In 1993, the Atlantic Coast Sportswriters Association named Smith the ACC Coach of the Year, an honor he received on seven other occasions as well—1967, 1968, 1971, 1976, 1977, 1979 and 1988.

FRANK McGUIRE & BILL GUTHRIDGE

Frank McGuire

Frank McGuire came to Chapel Hill prior to the 1952-53 season after five seasons at St. John's. His 1952 team had reached the NCAA championship game before losing to Kansas.

His nine-year record was 164-58. Carolina finished first or tied for first place in the Atlantic Coast Conference standings five times in this period.

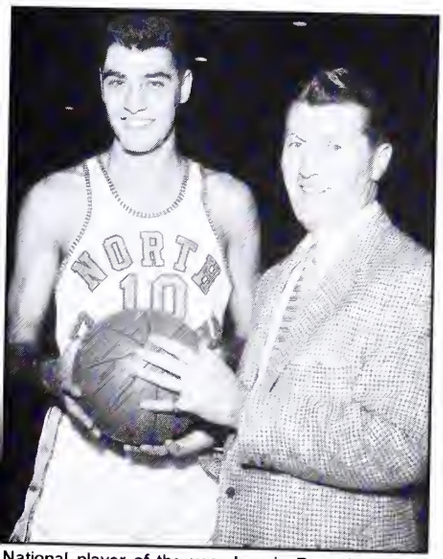
UNC COACHING RECORD
164-58, nine seasons

EDUCATION
✓ St. John's '36

COACHING HIGHLIGHTS
✓ Is the only coach in history to win ACC titles at two different schools.
✓ Is a member of the Naismith Hall of Fame
✓ Coached Carolina to the 1957 NCAA championship
✓ Was a three-time national coach of the year.

With his many contacts among New York high school coaches, he developed a pipeline of top talent for Carolina. This "underground railroad" brought players like Lennie Rosenbluth, Tommy Kearns, Pete Brennan, Joe Quigg and Bob Cunningham to Chapel Hill. They were the starters on McGuire's greatest team — the 1957 squad that went 32-0 and swept the NCAA title.

McGuire also brought New York-area stars like York Larese, Doug Moe, Donnie Walsh, Larry Brown and Billy Cunningham to Carolina.



National player of the year Lennie Rosenbluth and McGuire led the Tar Heels to the 1957 NCAA title.

The highlight of McGuire's Tar Heel career was the 1957 season. Rosenbluth was one of the national scoring leaders, averaging 28.0 points a game. Of Carolina's 32 victories, 13 were by 10 points or less.

The 1957 Final Four in Kansas City is regarded as one of the most exciting ever played. Carolina topped Michigan State, 74-40, in a triple-overtime semifinal game. The next game the Tar Heels had to go three overtimes again before outlasting Kansas, featuring Wilt Chamberlain, 54-53.

McGuire hired Dean Smith to be his top assistant prior to the 1958-59 season. Smith replaced McGuire when he moved to the NBA in 1961.

As coach of the Philadelphia Warriors, he led his team to a 49-31 record. The Warriors—with Hall of Famers Paul Arizin, Tom Gola and Chamberlain—lost to the Boston Celtics in the Eastern Conference finals.

McGuire returned to the college ranks for the 1964-65 season at South Carolina. He compiled a 283-142 record in 16 seasons with the Gamecocks. That gave him a career record of 549-236 in 30 years. He led South Carolina to its only ACC regular-season title in 1970 and only ACC Tournament championship in 1971.

McGuire, a member of the Naismith Hall of Fame, was the first coach in history to win 100 games at three schools and also to take two schools to the NCAA championship game. He remains the only man in history to win ACC titles at two schools.

He was named national coach of the year three times—in 1952 at St. John's, 1957 at Carolina and 1970 at South Carolina.

Bill Guthridge

Bill Guthridge led the Tar Heels to two Final Fours in three years as head coach and was consensus National Coach of the Year in 1998. He won more games than any college head coach in history after two seasons and tied Everett Case for most coaching victories after three years. He played or coached in 14 Final Fours, more than any person in NCAA history. That includes two as a head coach at Carolina, 10 as a Tar Heel assistant coach, and one each as a player and assistant coach at his alma mater, Kansas State.

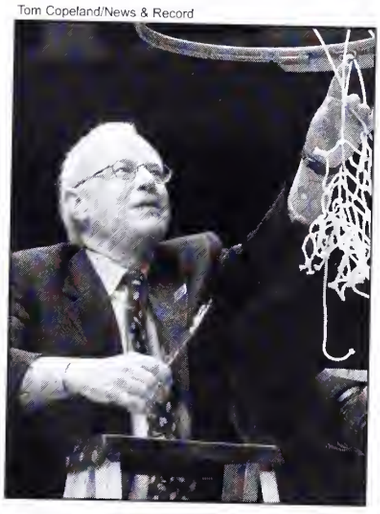
HEAD COACHING RECORD
80-28, three seasons

EDUCATION
✓ B.S., Mathematics
Kansas State '60
✓ M.A., Education
Kansas State '63

COACHING HIGHLIGHTS
✓ Won more games (58) in his first two years than any coach in NCAA history and shares the NCAA record for most wins by a three-year coach (80).
✓ Was just the second coach in history to lead teams to two Final Fours in his first three seasons as a head coach.
✓ Was the consensus national coach of the year in 1997-98.
✓ Was a part of 14 Final Fours, including one as a player, 11 as an assistant coach and two as a head coach.

Guthridge was Dean Smith's assistant for 30 years. He joined the UNC staff in 1967 after five years as assistant to Tex Winter at Kansas State. In his 33 seasons at Carolina, the Tar Heels won two NCAA championships (1982 and 1993), played in 12 Final Fours, won the ACC Tournament championship 13 times and played in the ACC Tournament championship game a total of 22 times. The Tar Heels finished first or tied for first in the ACC regular season 16 times, finished second or tied for second in the ACC regular season 11 times, and finished third or tied for third in the ACC regular season six times.

Tom Copeland/News & Record



He was a part of 867 wins in 33 seasons at Carolina and 960 college coaching victories overall, including 93 wins on the staff at Kansas State. He was on the sidelines for a record 73 NCAA Tournament victories, including 71 at Carolina and two at Kansas State.

The Parsons, Kan., native posted an 80-28 record in three seasons as Carolina's head coach. Guthridge led the 1998 and 2000 UNC teams to the Final Four. He joined Ohio State's Fred Taylor as just the second man in history to lead teams to two Final Fours in his first three seasons as a head coach. He was named National Coach of the Year in 1997-98 by the National Association of Basketball Coaches, the Atlanta Tipoff Club (Naismith Award), CBS/Chevrolet, the Columbus (Ohio) Touchdown Club and The Sporting News. That year, UNC went 34-4 and Guthridge set the NCAA record for wins by a first-year head coach with 34. He directed UNC to the 1998 Atlantic Coast Conference Tournament championship and was named the ACC Coach of the Year.

He coached 1997-98 National Player of the Year Antawn Jamison and 1998-99 NBA Rookie of the Year Vince Carter, both of whom entered the NBA Draft after their junior seasons. In his tenure at UNC, he coached five National Players of the Year, six ACC Players of the Year, five ACC Rookies of the Year and 28 first-team All-ACC players. He also coached 66 players who were selected in the NBA and/or ABA Drafts.

Guthridge was an assistant coach along with Hall of Famer John Thompson under Dean Smith in 1976 when the United States won the Olympic gold medal in Montreal.

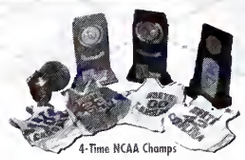
1957 NCAA CHAMPIONS



North Carolina's march toward the NCAA championship in the 1957 Final Four provided legendary head coach Frank McGuire with the defining moment of his career and the Tar Heel faithful with more than a few tense moments.

Battle-torn and weary, the Tar Heels faced a seemingly insurmountable challenge as they headed into the third overtime period against Kansas in the national championship game.

Having already taken three overtime periods to defeat Michigan State in the semifinals, the Tar Heels found themselves without national player of the year Lennie Rosenbluth, who had fouled out in the waning moments of regulation. They were playing a Kansas team led by Hall of Famer Wilt Chamberlain in the not so friendly confines of Kansas City, Mo.

The Tar Heels fought on without Rosenbluth and found themselves behind by one point in the final seconds of the third overtime. After a missed shot, the ball landed in the hands of junior center Joe Quigg near the top of the key. All that stood between him and the national title was Chamberlain.

Lennie Rosenbluth & Wilt Chamberlain

Quigg drove the lane, drawing a foul from Chamberlain with six seconds remaining. After a Carolina time out, Quigg, a 72 percent free throw shooter, calmly stepped to the line and drained both shots, securing a 54-53 victory and Carolina's second national championship. Carolina finished the season a perfect 32-0 en route to the Tar Heels' first NCAA championship.

Rosenbluth had 20 points and five rebounds in the championship game and Quigg scored 10 points and garnered nine rebounds.

Carolina had its fair share of overtime experience entering the Final Four, securing an overtime victory over South Carolina and a double overtime victory over Maryland in the regular season.

That experience may have been the difference as the Tar Heels continually came through with clutch plays throughout the Final Four. In the semifinal, neither team was able to open more than a six-point lead as Michigan State tested Carolina's mettle throughout the game.

Junior forward Pete Brennan kept Carolina's championship hopes alive when he nailed a baseline jumper with three seconds remaining in the first overtime to extend the game to another period. Both teams struggled in the second overtime, scoring only one bucket each. Carolina finally pulled away in the third overtime period scoring the first six points and holding on to a 74-70 victory.

Rosenbluth was the star of the 1957 squad. His 27 points and 8.6 rebounds a game in regular season play led the Tar Heels to the ACC championship and the NCAA tournament berth. Three of the victories came over fellow Big Four and ACC team Wake Forest, with whom Carolina had developed an intense rivalry.

At the end of his senior season, Rosenbluth held on to every major Carolina basketball record except for free-throw percentage and total rebounds in a season.

The championship season was Carolina's only trip to the Final Four under the tutelage of Frank McGuire, who left in 1961 to coach in the NBA. He later went on to coach at South Carolina. In nine years, McGuire led the Tar Heels to three Top 10 finishes and six Top 20 finishes.

The next Final Four appearance for the Tar Heels came under McGuire's replacement, Dean Smith, who began his Final Four legacy in 1967.

1982 NCAA CHAMPIONS

Every Carolina Basketball fan remembers The Shot. It is the most famous play in Tar Heel history and one of the most famous in college athletics. It won Dean Smith his first national championship and launched Michael Jordan as the greatest player in the sport's history.

Eric "Sleepy" Floyd had just hit a jumper in the lane to give Georgetown a 62-61 lead as 61,612 fans looked on at the New Orleans Superdome. Carolina called a timeout with 32 seconds remaining. Smith instructed point guard Jimmy Black to draw the Hoya zone defense to one side of the court and look to get the ball inside to James Worthy. But Black couldn't get the ball to Worthy. Smith had designed the play so that if that happened, Black could swing the ball to an open man on the far side of the court. Black found that open man, freshman Michael Jordan.

Jordan stood 16 feet to the left of the basket. Catch-jump-shoot. No hesitation. The ball found the bottom of the net. Carolina 63, Georgetown 62. Fifteen seconds remained on the clock.

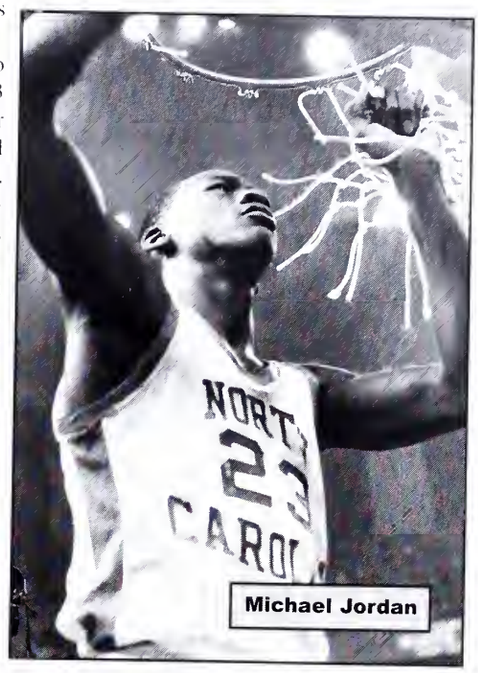
Georgetown's Fred Brown got the ball near mid-court and looked for an open teammate. He passed the ball in Floyd's direction, but instead found Worthy, who raced downcourt with the ball to seal the victory. It was appropriate that Worthy clinched the win, since he had already muscled and finessed his way through the Hoya defense en route to five dunks and 28 points.

Worthy was not intimidated by the tenacious defense of Hoya freshman center Patrick Ewing, who logged two blocked shots and three steals to go with his 23 points and 11 rebounds. Throughout the game, Worthy challenged the Hoyas frontline and hit 13 of his 17 field goal attempts.

Carolina advanced to the title game with a 68-63 semifinal victory over Houston. Sam Perkins had 25 points and 10 rebounds.

UNC began and finished the year ranked No. 1 in the country in the Associated Press poll. In fact, Carolina held the No. 1 ranking for all but five weeks in 1981-82.

The Tar Heels posted a 32-2 record, losing only to Wake Forest at home when Perkins was sick and did not play and at Virginia. Carolina did beat the Cavaliers, 47-45, in the ACC Tournament championship game in Greensboro. Worthy had 16 points and Matt Doherty had 11 points and four assists. Carolina led 34-31 at the half, but the game is most remembered for the Tar Heels using a delay game in the second half. Leading 44-43 with 7:34 to play, Carolina held the ball. Doherty hit three free throws in the last 28 seconds to win the game.



Michael Jordan

Top-ranked and top-seeded Carolina then survived a scare from James Madison in the first round of the NCAA Tournament, beating the Dukes, 52-50, in Charlotte. A 74-69 win over Alabama and a 70-60 triumph over Villanova in Raleigh's Reynolds Coliseum sent the Tar Heels to New Orleans for the Final Four.

Senior guard Jimmy Black was one of five starters in double figures in the regional final win over Villanova. Black had 11 points and 10 assists.

Dean Smith on 1982 — "We had three starters back from the year before, plus Matt Doherty, who I counted as a co-starter in 1981. Two of our best games all year were in New Orleans against Houston and Georgetown. Jordan had his best game as a freshman in the final, but Worthy was the obvious MVP. His play gets overshadowed because of Michael's shot. And Perkins was a true hero for his play against Olajuwon in the semifinals. He was sensational.

"The play was No. 1 to post up Worthy, then have Perkins come in behind him. Or you could go crosscourt to the wing for Michael and he was wide open from 17-18 feet. It looked good, I was right in line with him. Then we we put on our scramble defense. Worthy was out of position, but Jordan stopped the pass that made Fred Brown throw it away."

1993 NCAA CHAMPIONS

Dean Smith had been there before. The last time his Tar Heels walked on the Superdome floor, they walked off as NCAA champions.

Now, after a grueling ACC season that included five other Top 25 teams; after a tough road through the East Regional bracket that required an overtime victory to escape the final; after defeating a Roy Williams-coached Kansas squad that had beaten the Tar Heels just two years prior in the national semifinal— Carolina was back on the Superdome floor playing for the national championship.

The 1993 Tar Heels were ready. Center Eric Montross and senior forward George Lynch anchored the team and shooting guard Donald Williams provided the spark from the outside. Point guard Derrick Phelps ran the offense and a handful of role players brought everything together in typical Dean Smith fashion.

Michigan was ready too, though. The raucous Wolverines, led by vocal center Chris Webber and the rest of the "Fab Five," had lost the championship game in 1992 and were hungry to redeem themselves. They won a hard-fought overtime battle against Jamal Mashburn and the Kentucky Wildcats in the national semifinal, 81-78, and were confident they would return to Ann Arbor with a championship.

The styles of the two teams couldn't have been any farther apart. The Tar Heels were a traditional Dean Smith team — talented, disciplined and focused. The Wolverines had brought a brash, new feel to the game, famous for their black shoes, baggy shorts and playground style of play.

The teams battled back and forth throughout the game. Michigan led by 10 in the first half, but Carolina rallied for a 42-36 lead at intermission. The Wolverines built a 67-63 lead with 4:30 left to play, but the Tar Heels scored nine unanswered points to take a 72-67 lead with 1:03 to play.

Trailing by four, Williams began the 9-0 run with a three-pointer, then Phelps hit a fastbreak layup to give UNC the lead with 3:07 to play. Baskets by Lynch and Montross upped the lead to five with a minute to go.

Michigan responded with a Ray Jackson jump shot and a Chris Webber put-back to bring the Wolverines back to within 72-71 with 36 seconds to play.

Carolina junior forward Pat Sullivan was fouled with 20 seconds left and went to the line for a one-and-one. Sullivan connected on the first, but missed the second and Webber got the rebound with the Wolverines trailing 73-71.

Webber stumbled and appeared to travel, but the officials made no call. He then dribbled past halfcourt and found himself surrounded by the Tar Heels and called a timeout. However, Michigan did not have any timeouts remaining and the officials called a technical foul on the Michigan bench.

Williams hit two free throws and Carolina marched on to a 77-71 victory. It was only appropriate that Williams stood at the line at the end of the game, as he dominated the Final Four en route to Most Outstanding Player honors. Williams made five of seven three pointers and scored 25 points in both the national semifinal and championship games.

The Tar Heels finished the season 34-4, winning 18 consecutive games at one point. Carolina had even faced Michigan early on in the season at the Rainbow Classic and lost, 79-78, courtesy a last-second shot from Wolverine point guard Jalen Rose.

The 18-game win streak was snapped by a 77-75 loss to Georgia Tech in the ACC Tournament championship game. The Tar Heels played that game without Phelps, who injured his back when he was fouled from behind on a layup attempt in the ACC semifinal against Virginia.

George Lynch

Hugh Morton

Despite the loss to the Yellow Jackets, Carolina was No. 1 in the East Regional. Wins over East Carolina, Rhode Island and Arkansas setup a regional championship against Cincinnati in the Meadowlands. The Bearcats had played in the Final Four in 1992.

Nick Van Exel hit six three-pointers in the first half and the Bearcats built a 29-14 lead with 7:08 left in the opening half, but the Tar Heels rallied to pull within one at halftime.

In the second half, Phelps clamped down on Van Exel, limiting him to just one field goal.

Carolina led late in regulation, but Tarrance Gibson's driving layup with 35 seconds to play tied the game. The Tar Heels had a a chance to win at the buzzer, but Brian Reese's dunk attempt after an out-of-bounds play with 0.8 seconds left ricocheted off the back iron.

Williams starred in overtime, hitting back-to-back three-pointers and the Tar Heels hung on for a 75-68 win.

Lynch was the heart and soul of the team and recorded double-doubles in each of the last four NCAA Tournament victories.

Dean Smith on 1993 — "We had a such great leader in George Lynch and our team had a lot of confidence. We were very poised. I know I had a lot of confidence in Derrick Phelps and Lynch. The last four games all were close games. Arkansas went down to the wire, Cincinnati we should have won in regulation, but won in overtime. Michigan was a great game with Donald Williams hitting key shots. So many of those games could have gone either way."

2005 NCAA CHAMPIONS

It began with an upset loss to Santa Clara and ended by beating No. 1 ranked Illinois in St. Louis. Along the way, the Tar Heels went 33-4, won the ACC regular-season title with a 14-2 record and defied the experts who said they were too selfish to win a national title.

Instead, led by seniors Jawad Williams, Jackie Manuel and Melvin Scott, and under the tutelage of second-year head coach Roy Williams, the Tar Heels became the best team in the nation. Carolina led the country in scoring and assists and held the opposition to 40 percent shooting.

Center Sean May arguably became the finest player in the country, racking up eight straight double-doubles and averaging 17.5 points and 10.7 rebounds.

Point guard Raymond Felton joined May on the All-ACC first team and won the Bob Cousy Award as the best point guard in the country. He led the ACC in assists and hit 44 percent from three-point range.

Carolina lost at Wake Forest and Duke, but clinched its first outright conference title since 1993 with a 75-73 win over the Blue Devils in the regular-season finale. May had 26 points and 24 rebounds and Marvin Williams capped a rally from nine points behind with a three-point play with 17 seconds remaining.

UNC survived a first round scare in the ACC Tournament from Clemson in large part thanks to Felton's career-high 29 points. But Georgia Tech bounced the Tar Heels from in the semifinals behind Will Bynum's 35 points.

Carolina earned a No. 1 seed and opened NCAA play against Oakland in front of a raucous crowd in Charlotte. UNC took out any lingering frustrations from the ACC Tournament in the first half, shooting 73 percent from the floor en route to a 59-33 advantage. Marvin Williams and Sean May combined for 39 points and 16 rebounds and Carolina opened its title run with a 96-68 win.

Iowa State was next in round two. Leading 36-33, UNC closed the first half with nine unanswered points. Iowa State never came within single digits in the second half. May had 24 points and 17 rebounds and Marvin Williams added 20 points and 15 boards.

Fifth-seeded Villanova gave Carolina a stern test in Syracuse in the Sweet 16. The Wildcats went to a four-guard offense and built a 21-9 lead midway through the first half behind Randy Foye's hot shooting. May scored 12 of UNC's 29 points as the Tar Heels clawed to within four at the break. UNC took the lead for good on a McCants three with 7:20 to play and extended its lead to 10 points with 3:45 remaining.

But Felton fouled out with 2:13 to play and the Wildcats pulled to within 64-62 with 40 seconds left. Scott, who took over the point, canned two free throws for a four-point lead. Villanova made one free throw and had a chance to tie, but Allen Ray was whistled for a travel with nine seconds to play.

May dominated the regional final against Wisconsin with 29 points and 12 rebounds. The game was tied at 44 at halftime, but UNC went on a 14-0 run early in the second half. McCants had a key block and three-pointer in the final three minutes to secure the win.

Michigan State led UNC by five at halftime in the national semifinals, but UNC outscored the Spartans, 54-33, in the second half to post an 87-71 win. May scored 22 and Jawad Williams had 20. The Tar Heels held Michigan State to 34 percent shooting.

No. 2-ranked Carolina squared off against top-ranked Illinois in the championship. The Illini had been ranked No. 1 since Dec. 6th. But the Tar Heels built a 40-27 halftime lead behind 14 points from McCants and eight points and six assists from Felton.

The Illini made 5 of 19 threes in the first half, but got hot and tied the game at 65-65 with 5:34 to play. Felton knocked home a long three moments later, but the game was tied again at 70 with 2:40 to play.

The Tar Heels took the lead for good with 1:27 to play as Marvin Williams tipped in a missed shot. Illinois missed a pair of three-pointers; then Felton stole a pass. Felton hit three free throws in the final seconds to give Carolina a 75-70 win and Roy Williams his first NCAA title. May, the Final Four MVP, had 26 points and 10 rebounds.

Roy Williams on 2005 — "I had watched One Shining Moment for so many years, and I had always wanted to watch it from the arena, from the floor, when it was about my team. It was a moment where I reached up to wipe a tear away because as a coach, that is the moment. That's what you dream about."

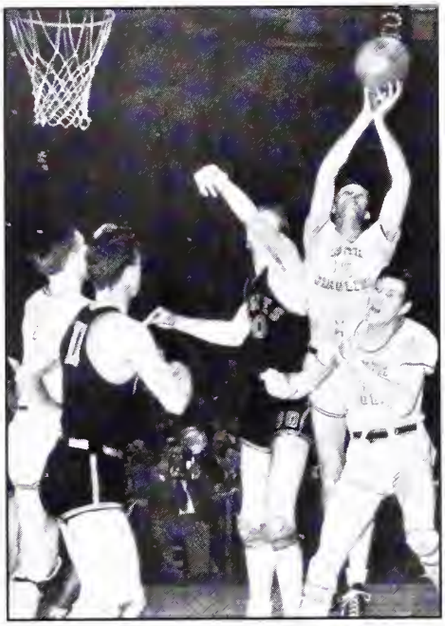
FINAL FOURS



"Bones" McKinney grabs a rebound in the 1946 NCAA title game. Carolina has been to at least one Final Four in each of the last seven decades.

1946

Carolina finished first in Southern Conference play with a 13-1 record, but was beaten by Wake Forest in the SoCon Tournament semifinals. Duke won the postseason title, but the NCAA Committee selected Carolina to represent District 3 in the NCAA Tournament at New York's Madison Square Garden.

NYU was favored to beat UNC in the East Regional semifinal, but 27-year-old Bones McKinney scored 11 points to lead Carolina to a 57-49 win. McKinney originally played at NC State, but enrolled at Carolina in January 1946 after being discharged from the U.S. Army.

John "Hook" Dillon, a sophomore from Georgia and Carolina's leading scorer with 12.9 points per game, and Bob Paxton led Carolina past Ohio State in the East Regional final. The Buckeyes led by five with less than three minutes to play, but Paxton sent the game into overtime with a jump shot with under 20 seconds to play. Dillon scored the key shot in overtime as UNC held on for a 60-57 win.

Defending national champion Oklahoma A&M beat Carolina, 43-40, in the championship game, despite Dillon's 16 points. Seven-foot center Bob Kurland had 23 points to lead the Aggies.

Junior forward Larry Miller, the ACC Player of the Year, and five heralded sophomores led the Tar Heels to a 22-6 record, an ACC title and first Final Four under head coach Dean Smith.

Carolina reached the Final Four with a 96-80 victory over Boston College in the Eastern Regional final. Senior forward Bob Lewis earned regional MVP honors after scoring 31 points in the championship game. Miller added 22 points and center Rusty Clark posted a double-double with 18 points and 18 rebounds.

The Tar Heels lost to Dayton, 76-62, in the national semifinals in Louisville, Ky. Flyer forward Don May scored 34 points and grabbed 15 rebounds. Clark had 19 points and 11 rebounds and Miller scored 13 points and grabbed 13 rebounds.

"The big thing is we had to win the ACC Tournament before we could even go to the NCAA Tournament," says Coach Smith. "I was concerned about how we would do in the NCAAs in overcoming the excitement of winning the ACC Tournament. We did go to the Final Four with three sophomore starters that year. That was a thrilling time."

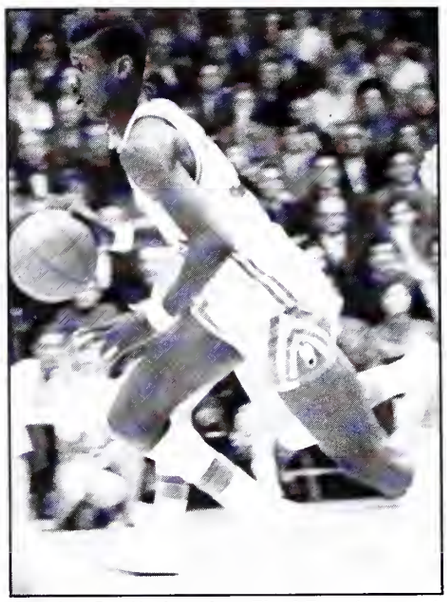
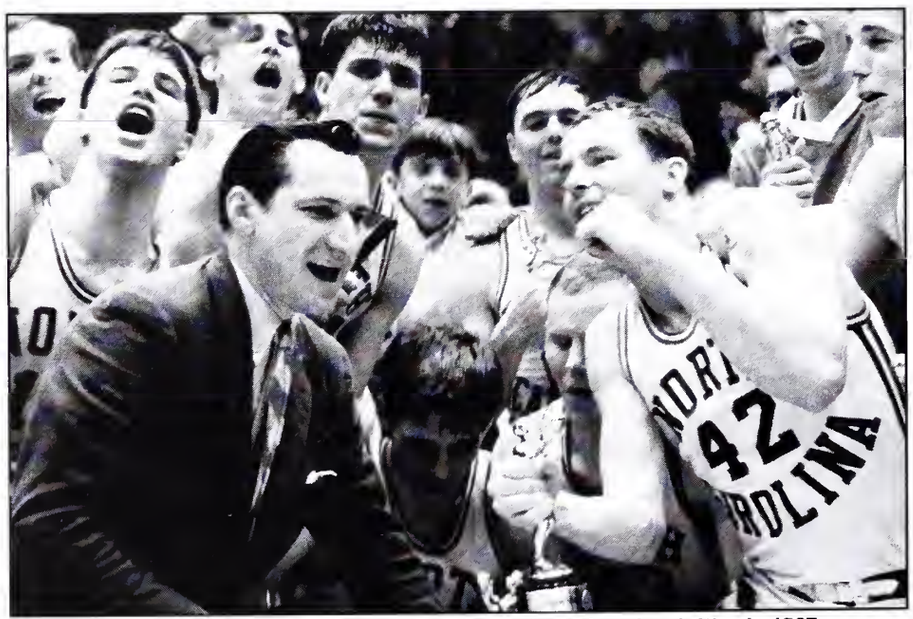
Carolina beat Ohio State, 80-66, to advance to the national championship game. Junior forward Bill Bunting had 17 points and 12 rebounds and Miller logged 20 points and six rebounds. Miller had earned All-America honors and was the MVP at the ACC Tournament for the second year in a row.

Carolina played defending champion UCLA for the championship in the Los Angeles Sports Arena. National Player of the Year Lew Alcindor scored 34 points and pulled down 16 rebounds to lead the Bruins to a 78-55 win, their fourth title in five years. Miller led the Tar Heels with 14 points and six rebounds.



Charles Scott played on Final Four teams at Carolina in 1968 and 1969.

"We were ready this time for the NCAAs, based on the year before," says Coach Smith. "We were great against undefeated St. Bonaventure with Bob Lanier in the opening round. The field was not seeded in those days. We faced Lew Alcindor and UCLA in the championship game. I do think that was the best college team I had ever seen to that date."



The Tar Heels won the first of three straight ACC and NCAA regional titles in 1967.

FINAL FOURS

Robert McAdoo was the 1972 ACC Tournament MVP and later had 24 points and 15 rebounds in the Final Four vs. Florida State.

Phil Ford, Dean Smith and the Tar Heels reached the 1977 NCAA championship game.

First-team All-America Charles Scott led Carolina with 22.3 points and 7.1 rebounds per game. Carolina advanced to the NCAA Tournament with a stellar comeback victory over Duke in the ACC finals. Led by Scott, who scored 40 points and nabbed five rebounds, the Tar Heels rallied from a nine-point halftime deficit to defeat the Blue Devils, 85-74.

Scott had 22 points, nine rebounds and six assists against Duquesne and 32 points, six rebounds and four assists against Davidson in the regional final. He hit the game-winner as time expired to give the Tar Heels the 87-85 win over Lefty Driesell's Wildcats to send Carolina to the Final Four.

The Boilermakers' Rick Mount scored 36 and Bill Keller added 20 to lead Purdue to a 92-65 victory in the national semifinals.

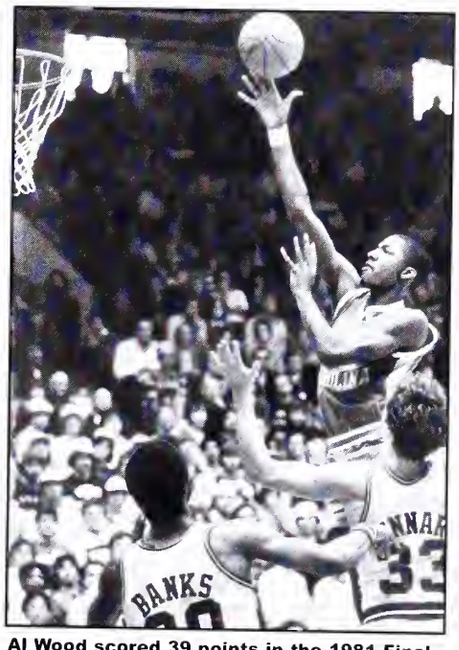
The Tar Heels earned an NCAA bid with a 73-64 victory over Maryland in the ACC Championship, avenging an earlier 79-77 overtime loss to the Terps.

George Karl had 18 points and Dennis Wuycik added 16 to lead UNC to a 92-69 rout of South Carolina in the opening round of the NCAA Tournament. Wuycik (18), Robert McAdoo (17) and Karl (16) led UNC to a 73-59 win over Penn in the regional final.

Carolina lost to Florida State, 79-75, in the Final Four. McAdoo had 24 points and 15 rebounds, but his teammates made 19 of 51 shots from the floor, and the Tar Heels could not overcome a 13-point halftime deficit. Ron King led Florida State with 22 points.

"This was one of our great teams," says Coach Smith. "We played extremely well to get to the Final Four, paying back South Carolina for beating us in the ACC Tournament the year before. We beat a very good Penn team. We were ranked No. 2 in the nation and UCLA was No.1. I think we looked past Florida State ahead to UCLA. McAdoo fouled out with 13 minutes to play."



Al Wood scored 39 points in the 1981 Final Four win over Virginia.

Injuries dominated the storylines in the incredible run to the championship game.

In the second round, Phil Ford scored 27 points to lead the Tar Heels, playing without an injured Walter Davis, to a 69-66 win over Purdue. On St. Patrick's Day, the Tar Heels trailed Notre Dame by 14 in the second half, but John Kuester had 14 points, eight assists and seven steals and Ford scored 29 points, including two free throws with two seconds remaining, to earn a 79-77 win.

Davis, despite a broken finger, scored 21 points as the Tar Heels beat Kentucky, 79-72, in the East Regional final.

The Tar Heels trailed UNLV, 49-43, at the half, in the national semifinals, but the Tar Heels prevailed, 84-83, behind freshman Mike O'Koren's 31 points and eight rebounds. Davis made all seven of his field goal attempts and finished with 19 points.

In the championship, Al McGuire's Warriors built a 39-27 lead, but Carolina surged ahead in the second half. However, Butch Lee (19), Bo Ellis and Jim Boylan (14 apiece) led Marquette to the title.

"Coach Guthridge called that our most amazing year," says Coach Smith. "We had more huggers that year – that means when the game is over we are all hugging in the dressing room. We lost our All-America center Tom LaGarde in February; then we had a great run. Walter couldn't shoot against Notre Dame, but Phil happened to make free throws even with his hyper-extended elbow. We held the ball against Kentucky in the second half to go to the Final Four. Then O'Koren came on and was great against UNLV. We lost to a really good Marquette team. Jimmy Boylan was terrific against us in the final – he once called wanting to transfer to Carolina, but I suggested he call Coach McGuire instead."

The Tar Heels swept through the West Regional with little trouble, beating Pittsburgh, Utah and Kansas State. Sam Perkins had 15 points, 11 rebounds and four blocks in the regional semifinals and 16 points and 11 boards in the regional final against Kansas State. Wood was outstanding against the Wildcats, scoring 21 points and pulling down 17 rebounds.

The national semifinal was a clash between the ACC regular season champion Virginia and ACC Tournament champion UNC.

This time, the Tar Heels kept Ralph Sampson in check. Sampson scored only 11 points and Virginia could not find an answer for Wood, who scored 39 points and added 10 rebounds. The game was tied at 27 at halftime, but Carolina outscored Virginia, 51-38, in the second half to earn a 78-65 victory.

Bob Knight's Indiana Hoosiers beat the Tar Heels 63-50 in the national championship game. The game was played only hours after an assassination attempt on President Ronald Reagan. Isiah Thomas led the Hoosiers with 23 points. Wood and Perkins combined for 29 points for UNC.

Toronto-born and Bahamas-raised Rick Fox was joined in the starting lineup by seniors Pete Chilcutt (center) and King Rice (point guard), junior guard Hubert Davis and sophomore forward George Lynch.

Carolina cruised to the East Regional final, beating Northeastern, Villanova and Eastern Michigan, all by double-digits, then beat Temple, 75-72, in the New Jersey Meadowlands to return to the Final Four for the first time since 1982. Davis and Fox each scored 19 points and Rice added 12 points and seven assists to get by the Owls. Temple guard Mark Macon scored 31 points, but missed a 30-footer at the buzzer that would have sent the game into overtime.

Kansas, coached by former UNC assistant Roy Williams, beat the Tar Heels, 79-73, in the national semifinals in the Hoosier Dome in Indianapolis. Davis led all scorers with 25 points, but Carolina shot just 38.4 percent for the game. Adonis Jordan led the Jayhawks with 16 points and seven assists.

"We were glad to get back to the Final Four in 1991," says Coach Smith. "We had great leadership with King Rice, Rick Fox and Pete Chilcutt. We didn't play well in Indianapolis against Kansas. We hadn't been to the Final Four in a while and I think we went back to being happy to be there."

UNC earned the No. 2 seed in the Southeast Region after losing in overtime to Randolph Childress, Tim Duncan and Wake Forest in the ACC championship game. Carolina trailed Murray State by a point at halftime in the first round, but won 80-70 behind Jerry Stackhouse's 25 points, 11 rebounds and five assists. Wins over Iowa State and Allen Iverson-led Georgetown set up a regional final between No. 2 UNC and No. 1 Kentucky in Birmingham, Ala., the heart of SEC country.

Stackhouse was brilliant with 18 points, 12 boards and six assists as Carolina won, 74-61. Donald Williams had 18 points, Rasheed Wallace added 12 and the Tar Heels held Kentucky to 28 percent shooting from the floor (7 of 36 from three-point range).

Defending NCAA champion Arkansas beat the Tar Heels, 75-68, in the national semifinals in Seattle. Stackhouse scored 18 points, but could only play 28 minutes due to a deep thigh bruise, an injury he suffered 12 seconds into the game.

"That was a special year," says Coach Smith. "We lost five seniors and were not deep, but Stackhouse and Wallace were a year older and very talented. Before the regional final, we told the team Kentucky had their celebration party scheduled, and Stackhouse held up his hand and said, 'Yeah, I'm going to go to it and celebrate.' He was so fired up. What a great competitor. Kentucky was very good. It was tough winning in Birmingham. But I was really worried about stopping Allen Iverson and beating Georgetown. You never know what would have happened if Stackhouse had not gotten hurt against Arkansas."

Carolina began ACC play with three consecutive losses for the first time ever. The second of those losses was a Smith Center debacle in which Carolina led Maryland by 22 in the second half but lost by 10.

However, the Tar Heels ran off an improbable 16-game win streak, won the ACC Tournament and earned another trip to the Final Four.

After sneaking by Fairfield in the first round, the Tar Heels beat Colorado, 73-56, in Winston-Salem to give Smith his 877th win, breaking Adolph Rupp's all-time record.

All-America forward Antawn Jamison scored 21 points and grabbed eight rebounds in the East Region semifinal against California. Shammond Williams scored 22 points and Vince Carter notched 18 points and seven rebounds against Louisville in the East Regional final.

FINAL FOURS

Carolina shot poorly in Indianapolis in the Final Four, connecting on a season-low 31.1 percent from the floor, and was beaten by Arizona, 66-58. Carter had 21 points and Jamison had 18 points and 11 rebounds. Arizona guards Miles Simon and Mike Bibby scored 24 and 20, respectively.

"Fairfield was a remarkable game," says Smith. "That was probably our best offensive game since Loyola Marymount (1988), but they kept making threes. There was too much going on about the number of wins and the record. I thought it could affect us against Colorado. Then I was really impressed with our team against Louisville. We had a big lead and they cut it to six and I took a timeout. I said, 'We could let them have it, we've had a pretty good year,' and Ademola Okulaja spoke up and said 'What do you mean?' And we went on to beat them pretty badly."

Most of the players from the 1997 Final Four squad returned, including All-America candidates Jamison, Carter and Williams and ACC assist leader Ed Cota.

Although the players were the same, Bill Guthridge was in his rookie season as head coach. Dean Smith resigned in October and turned over the reins to Guthridge, who was an assistant under Smith for the previous 30 years.

Jamison averaged 22.9 points and 10.2 rebounds to win ACC and National Player of the Year honors. Carolina was No. 1 in the country for eight weeks and regained the top spot in the final poll after an 83-68 win over Duke in the ACC Tournament championship game.

Carolina beat UNC Charlotte in overtime in the second round behind Williams' 32 points, then toppled rising powers Michigan State and Connecticut in Greensboro by double-digit margins.

Utah built a 13-point halftime lead in the national semifinal and Carolina could never pull even, despite Carter's 21 points. The Tar Heels shot just 39.1 percent in the game, and Jamison was held to 14 points in his final collegiate contest.

"The ACC Tournament championship was rewarding, particularly because we beat the three teams that had beaten us in the regular season – NC State, Maryland and Duke," says Guthridge. "I knew we had a great team, and that was evident when Connecticut and Michigan State – the teams we beat to get to the Final Four – won the next two national championships."

The Tar Heels entered NCAA Tournament play as a No. 8 seed after a disappointing season that included a four-game losing streak and a first-round exit in the ACC Tournament. The No. 8 seed equaled the lowest in UNC history.

Center Brendan Haywood scored a career high 28 points and grabbed 15 rebounds to lead the Tar Heels to an 84-70 victory over Missouri in the first round.

Carolina, led by forward Jason Capel, stymied third-ranked and No. 1 seed Stanford in the second round, holding the Cardinal to 34 percent shooting. Freshman Joseph Forte led all scorers with 17 points.

Forte scored 22 points and Carolina overcame a seven-point deficit with Haywood on the bench to beat Tennessee, 74-69, in Austin, Texas, in the regional semifinal. Cota scored key late baskets and Carolina got stellar post play off the bench from Julius Peppers.

Forte had 28 points and eight rebounds in the regional final to beat Tulsa.

Carolina lost to Florida in the national semifinals in Indianapolis despite Haywood's 20 points and 12 rebounds. The Tar Heels overcame a 15-point deficit to take the lead in the second half, but fell behind after Cota went to the bench with four fouls.

"This was a determined group of players," says Guthridge. "They overcame a lot of adversity in the form of injuries, illness, and some tough losses, to get to the Final Four. I couldn't have been happier or prouder than I was for that group of players to make it to Indianapolis. We beat a good Missouri team and the top seed Stanford in Birmingham and that gave us great confidence to beat Tennessee and an outstanding Tulsa team."

Vince Carter played on Tar Heel Final Four teams in 1997 and '98.

ACC TOURNAMENT

✓ North Carolina has won 15 Atlantic Coast Conference Tournament championships and played in the championship game a record 26 times.

✓ The Tar Heels have a 77-37 record, the second-most wins in ACC Tournament history (Duke is 80-37).

✓ Dean Smith won 13 Tournament titles, three more than any other coach in history. Smith's teams were 58-23 and played in the championship game 21 times.

✓ The Tar Heels have been the No. 1 seed 19 times, including 2005 when Carolina went 14-2 in the regular season.

✓ Carolina is one of only two schools that have won three consecutive ACC regular-season titles and ACC Tournament championships. UNC accomplished that feat in 1967-68-69.

✓ UNC has been seeded lower than No. 5 just two times and has been seeded lower than No. 3 only five times since 1966 (No. 4 in '89, '90 and 2000 and No. 7 in 2002 and 2003). UNC won the tournament as the No. 4 seed in 1989.

✓ A Tar Heel has won the Most Valuable Player award 16 times. The MVPs include: Lennie Rosenbluth (1957), Larry Miller (1967, 1968), Charles Scott (1969), Lee Dedmon (1971), Robert McAdoo (1972), Phil Ford (1975), John Kuester (1977), Dudley Bradley (1979), Sam Perkins (1981), James Worthy (1982), J.R. Carolina won three straight ACC Tournaments from 1967-69. Overall, the Tar Heels have won 15 conference crowns and played in 26 championship games.

Frank McGuire's eventual national champions ran the table in the regular season, winning all 14 games. That year marked the first time UNC reached the conference tournament final since the 1947 Southern Conference Tournament. The Tar Heels held off Wake Forest, 61-59, in the semifinal and defeated South Carolina by 20 to earn their first ACC championship. In the semifinal, Wake Forest took a one-point lead with less than a minute to play, but National Player of the Year Lennie Rosenbluth hit a hook shot from the circle and a free throw for a three-point play and the win.

Rosenbluth made 8 of 11 shots from the floor in the championship, scored 38 points and was named MVP.

The Tournament moved to the Greensboro Coliseum for the first time and was the site of Dean Smith's first title. Fittingly, Carolina won the title by sweeping its in-state rivals, beating NC State by three points, Wake Forest by 10 and Duke by nine in the title match. Larry Miller was selected MVP after scoring 25.7 points and grabbing 8.3 rebounds per game. Bob Lewis (18.0 points, 5.0 rebounds) joined Miller on the first-team all-tournament squad.

The Tournament moved again in 1968 for the first year of a three-year stay in Charlotte. UNC's semifinal game against South Carolina was a fierce battle. The Gamecocks sent the game into overtime with an 18-4 run to tie the score at 74. The Tar Heels came from behind in overtime and won on baskets by Grubar and Gerald Tuttle.

In the championship, Carolina led NC State by only five at the half, but the final tally was a lopsided 87-50 victory. Miller (25.3 points, 8.7 rebounds) became the second player ever (Len Chappell of Wake Forest) to repeat as MVP. Grubar (13.3 points, 4.7 rebounds) was also a first-team selection.

The 37-point margin of victory is the largest in championship game history.

Carolina entered as the No. 1 seed for the third year in a row. Carolina's Charles Scott battled Wake's Charlie Davis in the semifinals. Davis won the first half, as the Deacons led 37-29 at intermission. Scott took over in the second stanza, enabling UNC to win, 80-72. Scott and Grubar led the Tar Heels with 23 points apiece.

Carolina and Duke squared off in the championship game. The Blue Devils led by nine at halftime and the Tar Heels lost Grubar to a first-half knee injury. The second half featured one of the most memorable performances in ACC history as Scott scored 25 of his game-high 40 points on 12 of 13 shooting. Carolina won its third straight ACC title, 85-74, and Scott earned MVP honors.

South Carolina's departure from the ACC left only seven teams, and Carolina reeeived a bye into the semifinal against Duke. Four Tar Heels scored in double figures, led by Bobby Jones, who carded a double-double (14 points, 11 rebounds) as the Tar Heels won, 63-48.

Carolina was in the championship game for the fifth time in six years. Maryland was in the finals for the first time since 1958. Robert McAdoo (15 points, 7.5 rebounds per game) became the fifth Tar Heel in six years to earn the MVP award as Carolina held on for a 73-64 win. Dennis Wuycik (17.5 points, 5 rebounds) and George Karl (13 points, 2.5 rebounds) joined McAdoo on the all-tournament first team.

The Tar Heels trailed Wake Forest in the quarterfinal by eight points with 50 seconds left. Freshman point guard Phil Ford (44 seconds to play), Mitch Kupchak (36 seconds), Walter Davis (30 seconds) and Brad Hoffman (two seconds) hit jump shots and the Deacs missed a pair of free throws to force overtime. In the extra session with the game tied at 96 Carolina took possession with 58 seconds to play. UNC went Four Corners and drew a technical against Wake Forest with 29 seconds to play for not forcing UNC to take action. Ford hit the free throw and another free throw six seconds later as Carolina triumphed, 101-100. Davis (31 points, 12 rebounds), Kupchak (16 points, 14 rebounds) and Ford (25 points) led the Tar Heels.

Clemson came back from 11 down at the half to force overtime in the semifinals. A tip-in by Kupchak gave Carolina an overtime lead it would not relinquish. Ford led UNC with 29, making 15 of 18 from the free throw line.

Ford was outstanding in the championship game against defending NCAA champion NC State. Carolina took the lead, 56-55, on a jumper by Davis with nine minutes left and then went into its delay offense. Ford hit two baskets in the next two and one-half minutes, and NC State did not score during a 5:18 stretch, leading to a 70-66 Tar Heel victory. Ford (26 points per game) was the MVP and was joined on the first-team by Kupchak (13.7 points, 13.7 rebounds). Davis netted 19 points and grabbed 7.7 rebounds over the three games.

No. 1 seed Carolina met No. 7 Virginia in the finals in a rematch of the 1976 final won by the Cavaliers. Ford scored 19 points in the first half, but the Cavaliers led by one at the break. Virginia led 64-56 with 7.08 remaining, but over the next 5:03 the Tar Heels outscored the Wahoos, 15-1. Freshman Mike O'Koren and John Kuester led the final charge after Ford fouled out with 5:45 to play and Virginia still holding a 64-61 advantage. A layup by Bruce Buckley with 3:37 to play broke a 67-all tie and gave UNC the lead for good. Kuester's take-charge attitude and perfect free throw shooting earned him MVP honors after the Tar Heel title.

Duke defeated UNC in the final game of the regular season to share the regular-season title, but the Tar Heels won the draw for the tournament's top seed and first-round bye. Carolina defeated Maryland, 102-79, in the semifinals, as five Tar Heels scored in double figures. Al Wood led with 19 points on 8 of 10 shooting.

Carolina beat Duke in the finals, 71-63. Dudley Bradley scored 16 points with seven steals and four assists and earned MVP honors. O'Koren had 18 points and eight rebounds and was 10 for 11 from the free throw line. The Tar Heels turned the ball over just seven times and forced 14 Duke miscues. O'Koren and Dave Colescott, who averaged 15 and 12.5 points per game in the tournament, respectively, also were first-team selections.

UNC beat Wake Forest, 58-57, in one semifinal as Mike Pepper nailed a 16-foot jumper with eight seconds to play. Sam Perkins scored 18 points and pulled down 15 rebounds and James Worthy added 12 points and 11 rebounds. The Deacons led 53-46 but Pepper and Perkins each hit two baskets. The second basket by Perkins gave UNC a 56-55 lead with 4:12 to play. Alvis Rogers hit an 11-foot jumper to give Wake the lead back with 1:30 to play, but Pepper hit the game-winner with eight seconds to go.

Carolina and Maryland met in the final in the Capital Centre in Landover, Md. The game was tied seven times in the second half, but the Tar Heels went ahead for good with 2:53 to play on a Jimmy Black steal and lay-up. Wood scored twice in the final two minutes to secure a 61-60 triumph.

Perkins (17.7 points, 8.3 rebounds) became just the second freshman ever, and first since Ford, to be named MVP. Worthy (13 points, 7.7 rebounds) joined Perkins as a first-team all-tournament selection.

No. 1-ranked Carolina led No. 2 Virginia, 34-31, at halftime behind Worthy's 16 points. Michael Jordan scored four of the Tar Heels' first five field goals in the second half. His fourth straight field goal, with 8:44 to play, was Carolina's last of the game. Leading 44-43 with 7:34 remaining, Carolina spread the floor and held the ball. Virginia fouled six times over the next 7:06, finally putting Matt Doherty on the foul line for 1-and-1 with 28 seconds left. Doherty hit the first for a two-point edge. Virginia turned the ball over with three seconds to play. Doherty hit two free throws and Ralph Sampson had an uncontested dunk with one second left as Carolina prevailed, 47-45. The field goal by Sampson was the first by the Cavaliers since the 7:34 mark.

Worthy (13.3 points, 8 rebounds), Perkins (9.7 points, 7.3 rebounds) and Jordan (11.7 points, 3 rebounds) were named to the first-team all-tournament team, and Worthy was named MVP.

Carolina breezed to the championship game, recording a 15-point win over Georgia Tech and a 30-point rout of eighth-seeded Maryland, which had knocked off No. 1 seed NC State.

The 1989 ACC championship game was one of the most memorable and intense meetings ever between Carolina and Duke. Both teams had won regular-season games on the other's home floor.

Stifling defense by both teams led to 44 turnovers, 26 of which the Tar Heels committed. J.R. Reid had 14 points and nine rebounds and Steve Bucknall had 10 points and five assists to lead UNC. The game was tied five times in the second half and Duke led just once, with 5:28 to play. Bucknall hit a driving basket and free throw with 1:46 remaining to break a 66-all tie. Bucknall and King Rice both went 4 for 4 from the line to clinch the win.

Reid (16.0 points, 8.0 rebounds per game) won MVP honors. Senior point guard Jeff Lebo (10.7 points, 3.0 assists) joined him on the first-team.

the championship game that had swept the regular-season series from UNC. Carolina raced out to a 15-4 lead and thrashed Duke, 96-74. Fox made 10 of 16 field goal attempts for 25 points and Hubert Davis netted 17. Rice had 12 points and seven assists and did not commit a turnover. Fox averaged 17.3 points and 9 rebounds over the three games and was named MVP. Davis averaged 13.7 points and hit nearly 64 percent from three-point range in the Tournament.

The win was the largest in the finals since Carolina beat NC State, 87-50, in 1968.

Carolina faced Wake Forest in the semifinal in what proved to be one of the most exciting games in ACC Tournament history. Wake Forest led, 76-70, with 2:15 to play, but Derrick Phelps helped cut the deficit to three with 11 seconds left. Phelps then made the first of two free throws and rebounded his own miss on the second. He fed Dante Calabria who drove the lane and hit a twisting bank shot with three seconds remaining for a tie at 81.

Carolina led 84-81 in overtime, but a three-pointer by Rusty LaRue tied the game with 39 seconds left. UNC freshman Jerry Stackhouse, the Tournament's MVP, hit the game-winner on a baseline drive with five seconds to play. Wake Forest guard Randolph Childress, who scored 31 points, just missed a long three-pointer as the clock expired.

Stackhouse had 14 points and seven rebounds and Eric Montross added 12 points and nine rebounds to lead Carolina past Virginia, 73-66, in the title game.

The Tar Heels lost their first three ACC regular-season games, but rallied to go 8-0 in the second half to finish tied for second place. Carolina then swept past Virginia, Wake Forest and NC State to claim its 14th Tournament title. Junior guard Shammond Williams earned MVP honors, averaging 20.0 points and 5.0 assists.

Antawn Jamison scored 24 points and grabbed 10 rebounds and point guard Ed Cota had 11 points and 10 assists in the 78-68 quarterfinal win over Virginia. Williams made eight of 11 shots, including four of seven three-pointers, in an 86-73 triumph over the Tim Duncan-led Demon Deacons in the semifinals.

In the championship game, Williams again led Carolina with 23 points, nine of which came on a trio of three-point baskets in a 2:02 span midway through the second half. Jamison added 17 points and a game-high 11 rebounds. Carolina shot 59.0 percent from the floor, the third-highest percentage ever by the winning team in an ACC final.

Antawn Jamison, Serge Zwikker and the Tar Heels won the ACC Tournament in 1997.

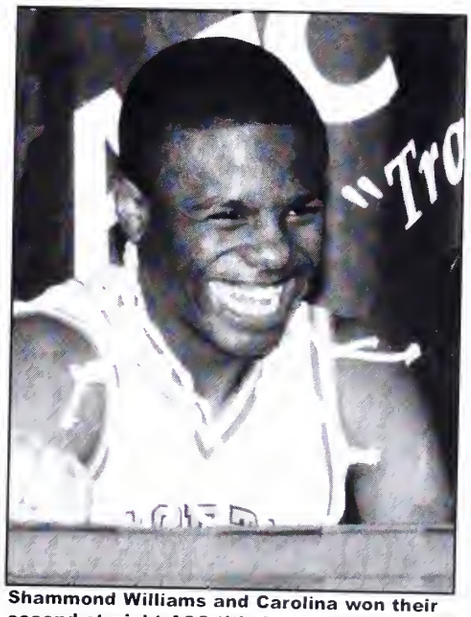
Carolina repeated as Tournament champions for the first time since 1981-82 with victories over NC State, Maryland and Duke. Those wins avenged regular-season losses against the same three opponents. Jamison injured a muscle in the overtime win over the Terrapins in the semifinal, and was questionable for Sunday's championship game. However, Jamison was relentless against the Blue Devils, sparking UNC to a 15-point win over the nation's top-ranked team with a 22-point, 18-rebound effort that ranks as one of the finest in championship game history.

Jamison had 25 points in the opening round win over the Wolfpack. The Tar Heels trailed throughout much of the second half against Maryland, but rallied behind Shammond Williams to force overtime. Williams added 10 points in the extra stanza to lead Carolina to an 83-73 triumph.

Carolina's win over Duke in the championship game was UNC's sixth in title game matchups against the Blue Devils. The game was tied at 57 with less than 11 minutes to play, but the Tar Heels reeled off the next 13 points. Carolina finished the game shooting 54.4 percent from the floor, while Duke hit on just 32.8 percent of its field goal attempts. Williams and Vince Carter had 19 and 16 points, respectively.



Shammond Williams and Carolina won their second straight ACC title in 1998.

FANTASTIC FINISHES

The Tar Heels had to pull out numerous close games to preserve their perfect 32-0 record and NCAA title. Win No. 17 was a 65-61 triumph over Maryland in double overtime. Tommy Kearns' free throws provided the winning margin in the 18th consecutive win, 75-73, over Duke. The Tar Heels beat Wake Forest for the fourth time in that one year in the ACC Tournament semifinals. Carolina trailed with less than a minute left, but squeaked out a 61-59 win.

Those close games were nothing compared to the drama that unfolded in the Final Four in Kansas City. The Tar Heels won back-to-back triple overtime games against Michigan State and Kansas to capture UNC's first NCAA championship. Pete Brennan's jumper against Michigan State was a key play that extended the game into the second overtime. Joe Quigg's two free throws with six seconds remaining in the third overtime gave Carolina a 54-53 win over Kansas and Wilt Chamberlain in the final. In 1999, Sports Illustrated selected the 1957 NCAA title game as its second-favorite game of all-time.

The Carolina bench, including assistant coach Bill Guthridge (center, dark suit), jumps for joy as Charles Scott hits the game-winner as time expires, giving the Tar Heels an 87-85 win over Davidson in the 1969 NCAA East Regional Final. The victory sent UNC to its third straight Final Four.

March 15, 1969

Charles Scott almost single-handedly carried the Tar Heels to victory in the NCAA East Regional final in College Park, Md. Scott connected on 10 of 14 field goal attempts in the second half. Davidson had the ball with 1:05 remaining and the score tied, 85-85, but Gerald Tuttle drew a charge for the Tar Heels. Scott hit a 20-footer with three seconds left and Carolina advanced to its third consecutive Final Four.

UNC 73, Duke 71
January 19, 1974

The Tar Heels defeated the Blue Devils on a last-second shot at Cameron Indoor Stadium. The Tar Heels rallied to tie the score and Duke had the ball at half-court with four seconds left. Bobby Jones stole the inbounds pass and hit an off-balance lay-up with one second left to give Carolina a 73-71 win.

UNC 96, Duke 92 (OT)
March 2, 1974

In one of the most famous comebacks in college basketball, the Tar Heels rallied from eight points down with 17 seconds remaining against Duke to force overtime. Trailing 86-78, Bobby Jones made both ends of a one-and-one with just 17 seconds left. John Kuester cut the deficit to four with 13 seconds to play with a lay-up after Duke threw away the inbounds pass. The Blue Devils again lost the inbounds pass and Jones cut the deficit to two on a put-back off an Ed Stahl miss. Six seconds remained. The Tar Heels fouled Pete Kramer with four seconds left, and he missed the front end of the one-and-one. Stahl grabbed the rebound and called a timeout with three ticks left. Mitch Kupchak inbounded the ball to Walter Davis, who launched a 35-foot shot as time expired. The shot banked off the glass to tie the score at 86-86. Carmichael Auditorium erupted and Carolina went on to win 96-92 in overtime.

UNC 101, Wake Forest 100 (OT)
March 6, 1975

Carolina trailed Wake Forest, 90-82, with 50 seconds remaining in the ACC quarterfinals. Phil Ford hit a 20-footer with 43 ticks left and Mitch Kupchak followed a Deacon turnover with a driving layup with 34 seconds to play. Wake Forest's inbounds pass grazed the scoreboard, turning the ball back to Carolina. Walter Davis scored to make it 90-88 with 29 seconds left. The Deacons failed to convert two one-and-one opportunities before Brad Hoffman drove the baseline and nailed a 12-footer to tie the game with two seconds left. The Tar Heels pulled out the 101-100 win in overtime and went on to capture the ACC title two days later.

UNC 70, NC State 69
January 17, 1979

Carolina charged out to a 40-19 halftime lead and led by 17 with 10:30 to play, but the Wolfpack got hot. Kenny Matthews hit a jumper with 32 seconds left that gave State a 69-68 lead. Dudley Bradley missed a jumper for the Tar Heels and State grabbed the rebound with 16 seconds left. Reynolds Coliseum celebrated. But Bradley stole the ball from Clyde Austin at mid-court and drove in for the game-winning dunk and a 70-69 triumph.

March 29, 1982

Michael Jordan hit a jumper from the left wing with 17 seconds to play to give Dean Smith his first national championship. Final Four MVP James Worthy had 28 points, but it was the freshman Jordan who took a pass from Jimmy Black and made the game-winning shot. Worthy stole an errant pass from Hoya forward Fred Brown in the final seconds to clinch the title.

UNC 70, Tulane 68 (3 OT)
November 30, 1982

John Williams made two free throws with eight seconds to play to give Tulane a 53-51 edge. Michael Jordan was whistled for an offensive foul with four seconds remaining, and it appeared the Tar Heels would start a season with three successive losses for the first time since 1928-29. However, Jordan stole the inbounds pass and hit a 24-foot prayer at the buzzer to tie the game. Carolina prevailed, 70-68, in triple overtime.

Walter Davis (No. 24) capped a furious, eight-point comeback in the final 17 seconds of regulation with this 35-foot shot at the buzzer on March 2, 1974. Carolina went on to defeat Duke, 96-92, in overtime.

UNC 64, Virginia 63
February 10, 1983

Carolina trailed second-ranked Virginia by 16 points in the second half and was down 63-53 with 4:12 remaining. Jimmy Braddock hit a three-pointer and Matt Doherty and Sam Perkins each converted one-and-ones to close the gap to 63-60 with 2:54 remaining. Virginia held the ball and Perkins was forced to foul Ralph Sampson with 1:20 left. The All-America center missed the front end of his one-and-one. Braddock missed a three-pointer, but Michael Jordan was there to put in the rebound. As Rick Carlisle dribbled up-court, Jordan stole the ball and slammed it home for a 64-63 Tar Heel lead. Carlisle missed a last-second shot and Jordan grabbed the rebound in front of a delirious Carmichael crowd.

UNC 75, Maryland 74
January 9, 1985

UNC 60, Notre Dame 58
March 16, 1985

In the second round of the NCAA Tournament, the higher-seeded Tar Heels had to play at Notre Dame. Tied at 58 with 1:38 left, the Irish held for the last shot. Irish point guard David Rivers lost control of the ball, enabling Curtis Hunter to scoop it up and make a lead pass to Kenny Smith. Smith slammed it home, then stole the inbounds pass to seal the win.

UNC 96, Syracuse 93 (OT)
November 21, 1987

Undermanned Carolina faced top-ranked Syracuse in the Hall of Fame Tip-Off Classic and the Orange led by 14 with 15:39 to play. Carolina stormed back and sent the game into overtime when freshman Pete Chilcutt hit a turnaround jumper at the horn to tie the game at 85.

UNC 80, James Madison 79
November 24, 1989

The Tar Heels trailed Lefty Driesell's Dukes, 79-70, with less than a minute to play in the Maui Classic. An offensive rebound basket by Rick Fox and a steal and three-pointer by Hubert Davis cut the deficit to four with 48 seconds to play. Pete Chilcutt hit a three to pull within one with 10 ticks remaining. The Tar Heels had one last chance after a JMU player stepped out of bounds and King Rice tossed an off-balance runner from the top of the key that banked in at the buzzer.

UNC 79, Oklahoma 77
March 17, 1990

The Tar Heels trailed No. 1 ranked Oklahoma, 74-73, with 55 seconds to play when Rick Fox nailed a three-pointer from 25 feet away. The Sooners answered with a conventional three-point play and led, 77-76, but King Rice was fouled with 10 seconds left. Rice hit the first shot, but missed the second. The rebound went out-of-bounds to Carolina with eight seconds to play. Fox hit a driving bank shot off the glass as time expired that gave the Tar Heels a 79-77 win and a 10th consecutive trip to the Sweet 16.

UNC 80, Wake Forest 78
February 8, 1992

Just three days after knocking off No. 1 Duke, Carolina rallied from 22 points behind to defeat Wake Forest, 80-78, on Brian Reese's jumper at the buzzer. The comeback was the largest in Tar Heel history. UNC trailed by 20 with 14:49 to play and by 11 with 6:17 to go before a 10-0 run cut the Deacs lead to 75-74. Pat Sullivan tied the game at 78 with a pair of free throws with 38 seconds left. Reese set up the final possession with a steal with 16 seconds to go. He drove the lane and missed, but grabbed his own rebound and launched a 12-footer at the buzzer for the win.

UNC 82, Florida State 77
January 27, 1993

The Seminoles jumped out to a 45-28 advantage at the half and later extended the lead to as many as 21 points. Carolina trailed 73-54 with less than nine minutes to play. The Tar Heels, keyed by a pair of three-pointers by Henrik Rodl, then ran off 15 straight points and Eric Montross hit a jump hook with 1:59 left to cut the FSU lead to 77-76. George Lynch stole a crosscourt pass by Charlie Ward and slammed the ball home to give Carolina a 78-77 lead. Clutch foul shooting by Donald Williams sealed the 82-77 victory. The Tar Heels outscored the Seminoles 28-4 over the last nine minutes.

FANTASTIC FINISHES

In the run to the national championship, the Tar Heels had to overcome double-digit deficits on three different occasions. Carolina trailed Arkansas, 25-14, more than 10 minutes into the first half of the East Regional semifinal. Sparked by George Lynch and Donald Williams, the Tar Heels went on a 14-3 run to tie the game at 28. Carolina fell behind 38-31 before knotting the score at 45 at halftime and eventually prevailing 80-74.

The Tar Heels trailed Cincinnati 29-14 in the regional final with less than seven minutes remaining in the first half. The Bearcats' Nick Van Exel hit his sixth three-pointer of the half with 4:50 remaining to chalk up his 21st point and a 33-20 lead. Led by Derrick Phelps' defense, Carolina cut the deficit to one by halftime, held Van Exel to only two points in the final 20 minutes and pulled out a 75-68 overtime win.

The Tar Heels fell behind Michigan, 23-13, in the national championship game. Carolina went on a 12-2 run to tie the game, capped off by a three-pointer by Donald Williams. Carolina took a 42-36 halftime lead and went on to win the title, 77-71. Williams finished with 25 points and hit four free throws in the final minutes to secure the win.

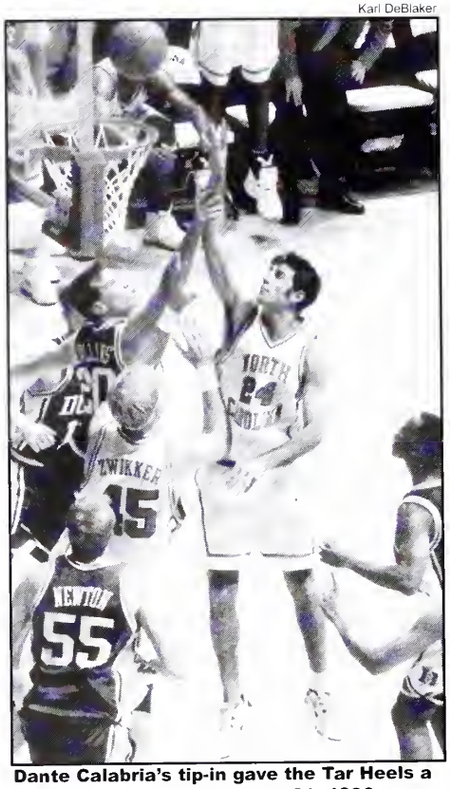
UNC 86, Wake Forest 84 (OT)
March 12, 1994

The Tar Heels erased a five-point deficit in the final 1:15 of regulation to down the Demon Deacons, 86-84, in overtime in the ACC semifinals. Leading 81-78, Wake Forest chose to foul Derrick Phelps with 11.8 seconds left. Phelps made the first free throw and missed the second, but grabbed the rebound. He found Dante Calabria, whose baseline drive and basket with 3.8 ticks left tied the score at 81. Freshman Jerry Stackhouse took a pass from Phelps and hit a driving shot to win the game, 86-84. Carolina went on to win its 13th ACC title the next day with a 73-66 victory over Virginia.

UNC 62, Wake Forest 61
January 28, 1995

Winston-Salem was the stage for a battle between sophomore centers Rasheed Wallace and Tim Duncan. Duncan had 18 points, 17 rebounds and seven blocks, and Wallace countered with 17 points, 10 rebounds and three blocks. Carolina trailed Wake Forest 53-43 with 6:39 left. Strong inside play from Wallace and the three-point shooting of Jeff McInnis and Donald Williams brought UNC to within one at 61-60. Williams then hit a running one-hander from the right side of the lane with 5.5 seconds remaining for a 62-61 win.

Karl DeBlaker



Dante Calabria's tip-in gave the Tar Heels a 73-72 win over Duke on Jan. 31, 1996. Carolina trailed by 17 points in the first half.

UNC 102, Duke 100 (2 OT)
February 2, 1995

The Tar Heels jumped out to a 26-9 lead on a spectacular reverse dunk by Jerry Stackhouse over two Blue Devils. Duke pulled within five at halftime and led by as many as 12 in the second half. UNC battled back from a nine-point deficit with 6:18 remaining to force overtime. The Tar Heels led by nine, but Duke made three three-pointers, including a 30-footer from Jeff Capel at the buzzer, to knot the score at 95 and force a second overtime. Donald Williams hit a pair of 12-footers in the second OT and Jeff McInnis had a steal and lay-up with under a minute to play to give Carolina a 102-100 win. Stackhouse and Rasheed Wallace each had 25 points and Williams added 24 in one of the greatest college basketball games ever played.

UNC 73, Duke 72
January 31, 1996

The Blue Devils' lead was three when Ademola Okulaja grabbed an offensive rebound and scored to make it 69-68 with 1:55 to go. Steve Wojciechowski hit a three-pointer for a 72-68 Duke lead with 1:13 to play, but Shammond Williams countered with a three of his own 15 seconds later. Duke turned the ball over and the Tar Heels nearly returned the favor, but Williams forced a jump ball after a scramble. Possession favored UNC and Jeff McInnis drove into the lane and fed Serge Zwikker, whose shot was blocked by Greg Newton. Dante Calabria tipped the loose ball in for a 73-72 lead. Duke had one final chance to win, but Ricky Price's baseline jumper at the buzzer hit the front of the rim.

UNC 59, NC State 56
January 15, 1997

The Tar Heels began ACC play with three straight losses for the first time in history. Carolina led 36-28 at halftime, but did not score a field goal in the second half until the 8:09 mark and had just two baskets in the first 18 minutes of the second stanza. The Wolfpack led 56-47 with 2:00 to play, but the Tar Heels went on a 12-0 run to finish the game. Antawn Jamison began the rally by forcing a steal and Shammond Williams hit a lay-up to pull within seven. Williams hit a three-pointer and Jamison added a lay-up to pull within two points with 50 seconds to play. Trailing by one with 28 seconds left, Carolina fouled and State missed the front end of a one-and-one. The Tar Heels went ahead for good with 12 seconds to play as Ademola Okulaja fed Jamison on the low block for a lay-up. Vince Carter stole the inbounds pass after the go-ahead score to secure the win.

UNC 45, NC State 44
February 12, 1997

This was the lowest scoring output in a win during Dean Smith's 36 years as head coach. The Tar Heels trailed 28-19 at the half, but pulled within 42-41 with 7:25 to play. Neither team scored until a Damon Thornton basket with 2:03 left gave State a 44-41 advantage. Serge Zwikker scored for UNC to make it 44-43. With 12.3 seconds to play, Antawn Jamison forced a turnover and freshman point guard Ed Cota drove to the left baseline and lofted a

UNC 107, Ga. Tech 100 (2 OT)
February 8, 1998

The Tar Heels let a seven-point lead slip away in the final minute of regulation, but Shammond Williams put on an awesome three-point shooting display as Carolina prevailed, 107-100, in double-overtime in Atlanta. Williams forced a second overtime with a pair of free throws with six seconds left in the first extra period. In the second OT, Williams scored 12 of his career-high 42 points, including two three-pointers.

UNC 74, Tennessee 69
March 24, 2000

Carolina was unranked for the first time in 10 years and entered the NCAA Tournament as the No. 8 seed. The Tar Heels trailed 10th-ranked Tennessee, 39-36, at halftime of the regional semifinal. The Vols led by two when UNC center Brendan Haywood fouled out with 8:03 left and led, 64-57, with 4:48 to play. But freshman Joseph Forte hit a three-pointer and Jason Capel had a steal and lay-up to make it 64-62 with 3:41 left. Ed Cota tied the game on a driving lay-up and followed with a jumper to give UNC the lead with 1:59 left. Forte, Julius Peppers and Cota each hit two free throws in the final 0:34 to cap a 15-3 Tar Heel run and a 74-69 win.

UNC 70, Wake Forest 69
January 6, 2001

Brendan Haywood grabbed a loose ball in the lane and scored with 3.3 seconds to play to give the Tar Heels the win over No. 4-ranked and previously undefeated Wake Forest. Haywood finished with 24 points and 10 rebounds. His basket marked the fourth lead change in the final 1:22.

UNC 85, Duke 83
February 1, 2001

Joseph Forte had 24 points, 16 rebounds (a UNC record for guards), six assists and three steals. The Tar Heels blistered the Cameron Indoor Stadium nets by shooting 51.5 percent from the floor. Carolina led by as many as 13 in the first half, but Duke took the lead midway through the second half. Ronald Curry scored six straight points in 48 seconds to give the Tar Heels a 63-59 lead. UNC later built a seven-point lead, but the Blue Devils tied the score with three seconds left. On the ensuing inbounds play, Shane Battier fouled Brendan Haywood and the UNC seven-footer hit both free throws with one second left for the win.

UNC 86, Connecticut 83
January 17, 2004

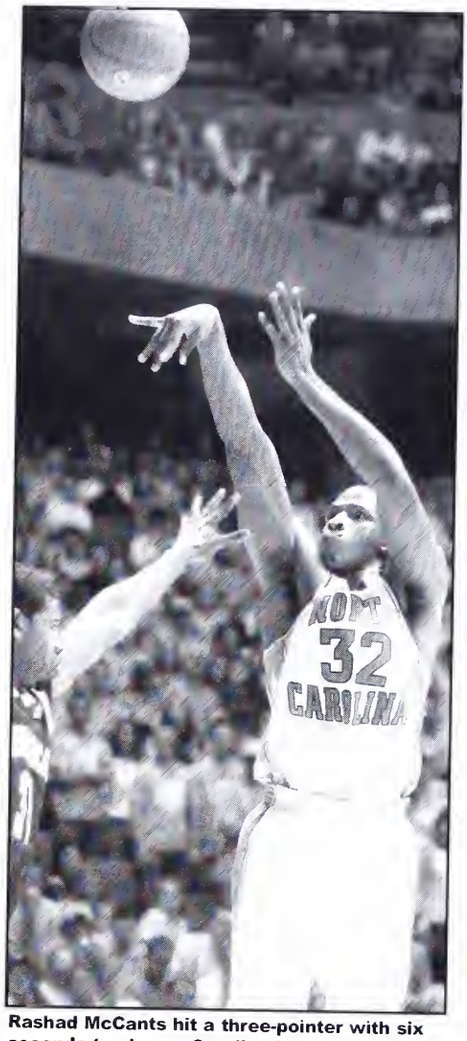
Rashad McCants scored 27 points against the Huskies for the second straight year and for the second year in a row the Tar Heels upset Connecticut in the Smith Center. McCants scored the last 10 points of the game for Carolina, including a three-pointer with just over six seconds to play. The Huskies would go on to win the national championship. It was Roy Williams' first win as UNC's head coach over a No. 1 ranked team.

UNC 75, Duke 73
March 6, 2005

Carolina trailed, 73-64, after Blue Devil guard Lee Melchionni hit a three with 3:03 to play. But the Tar Heels outscored Duke, 11-0, the rest of the way to clinch the regular-season ACC title. Trailing by two with less than 30 seconds to play, David Noel stripped Daniel Ewing of the ball and Raymond Felton grabbed the loose ball and called timeout. On the ensuing possession, Felton hit the first of two free throws, Marvin Williams rebounded his missed second free throw and scored the go-ahead basket with 17 seconds to play. Sean May led UNC with 26 points and 24 rebounds.

UNC 75, Illinois 70
April 4, 2005

Final Four MVP Sean May led UNC with 26 points and 10 rebounds, while Raymond Felton's and Marvin Williams' late heroics gave Roy Williams his first NCAA title. Marvin Williams broke a 70-all tie with a tip-in basket with 1:27 to play. Leading 72-70, Felton, who earlier hit a three-pointer to break a 65-65 tie, stole an Illini pass with 31 seconds to play and hit three of four free throws to cap the win.



Rashad McCants hit a three-pointer with six seconds to play as Carolina beat No. 1-ranked Connecticut on Jan. 17, 2004, in Chapel Hill.

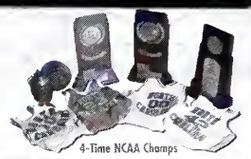
THE UNIVERSITY



Through its teaching, research and public service, the University of North Carolina is an educational and economic beacon for the people of North Carolina and beyond.

History

The University of North Carolina at Chapel Hill was the nation's first state university to open its doors and the only public university to award degrees in the 18th century.

Authorized by the N.C. Constitution in 1776, the university was chartered by the N.C. General Assembly Dec. 11, 1789, the same year George Washington first was inaugurated as president.

The cornerstone was laid for Old East, the nation's first state university building, Oct. 12, 1793. Hinton James, the first student, arrived from Wilmington, N.C., Feb. 12, 1795.

Location

The 729-acre central campus includes the two oldest state university buildings, Old East and Person Hall. Old East and Playmakers Theatre, an 1852 Greek-revival building are National Historic Landmarks.

The American Society of Landscape Architects selected the Carolina campus as one of the most beautifully landscaped spots in the country. That listing is among the praise affirming the charm of mighty oaks, majestic quadrangles, brick sidewalks and other landscaping synonymous with UNC.

Recent bond referendums have provided $510 million for renovations, repairs and new buildings so 21st century students at Carolina can learn in a 21st century environment. UNC's total $1.5 billion capital construction program is among the largest underway at any major American university.

UNC anchors one corner of the famed Research Triangle Park, which has played a vital role in nurturing the economic development of North Carolina.

Recent Rankings

Several national publications regularly publish rankings that list Carolina prominently in categories ranging from academic quality to affordability to diversity to public service to international presence. Recent highlights include:

✓ Fifth-best public university in U.S. News & World Report's 2007 "Best Colleges" guidebook. Affirmation as a national leader in student accessibility; first among public campuses and ninth overall in "Best Values," based on academic quality, net cost of attendance and average student debt. 54 percent of course sections enrolled fewer than 20 students – a key UNC measure of excellence.

✓ Kenan-Flagler Business School: tied for fifth among undergraduate programs; tied for second among public campuses.

✓ Fourth among public universities in "The Top American Research Universities," produced in December 2004 by the Lombardi Program on Measuring University Performance at the University of Florida.

✓ First among the 100 best public colleges combining great academics and affordable tuitions as ranked by Kiplinger's Personal Finance. Carolina has been first five consecutive times.

✓ A "best value" among 81 schools chosen for "America's Best Value Colleges, 2006 Edition" by The Princeton Review/Random House for outstanding academics, relatively low costs, and generous financial aid packages.

✓ 14th – the highest ranking for any major public research university – in the 2004 "Black Enterprise-DayStar Top 50 Colleges and Universities for African Americans" list. This ranking was based on responses to questions about which schools were both a good academic and social fit for African-Americans.

✓ One of the nation's top universities in fostering social responsibility and public service, according to The Princeton Review and Campus Compact.

✓ Among the 20 very "best buy" public universities in the U.S. and Canada as judged by the 2005 Fiske Guide to Colleges based on the quality of the academic programs in relation to the cost of attendance.

✓ Degree programs or specialty areas from the schools of business, education, law, medicine, pharmacy, public health as well as the College of Arts and Sciences appeared prominently in the Spring 2005 edition of U.S. News & World Report's "America's Best Graduate Schools" issue.

✓ Kenan-Flagler Business School ranked 11th in BusinessWeek magazine's first-ever ranking of the best undergraduate business programs. That stacked up as fifth-best among the programs at public universities.

UNIVERSITY ADMINISTRATION

Dr. James Moeser

CHANCELLOR
SEVENTH YEAR AT CAROLINA

Under the leadership of Dr. James Moeser, its ninth chancellor, the University of North Carolina at Chapel Hill embraces an ambitious vision for the future - to be America's leading public university.

Moeser has championed a nationally recognized commitment to improving the University's accessibility to deserving low-income students. He leads an effort to strengthen the University's service to North Carolina's people and communities. He has overseen an unprecedented physical transformation of the main campus, the most successful private fund-raising campaign in University history, growth in faculty research, development of an academic plan and significant enhancements to undergraduate education.

Moeser's bold leadership resulted in the University's launch of the Carolina Covenant, a groundbreaking initiative to make a UNC education possible debt-free for low-income students. When announced in 2003, the Carolina Covenant was a first for a major U.S. public university. Other campuses including Harvard, Stanford, Virginia, Maryland, Michigan and the State of Wisconsin later created similar programs.

The University's ties to North Carolina are so important that Moeser began an effort in 2004 to strengthen connections between Carolina and the state. Through his "Carolina Connects" initiative, Moeser seeks to highlight and enhance how the University serves North Carolina's people and communities.

Moeser was unanimously elected chancellor in 2000 by the UNC Board of Governors and arrived after four years as chancellor of the University of Nebraska at Lincoln.

A concert organist, Moeser began his career at the University of Kansas, eventually becoming organ department chairman and School of Fine Arts dean. He served The Pennsylvania State University as dean of the College of Arts and Architecture and executive director of University Arts Services. He was vice president for academic affairs and provost of the University of South Carolina until becoming Nebraska's chancellor in 1996.

The Federal Bureau of Investigation appointed Moeser to the National Security Higher Education Advisory Board in 2005. He serves on the College Board's National Commission on Writing and two Association of American University committees studying the cost of research and internationalization. The NCAA selected him for its Presidential Task Force on the Future of Division I Intercollegiate Athletics and its fiscal responsibility subcommittee. He is part of the CEO Group of Six, a group of presidents and chancellors from the major athletic conferences.

A native of Colorado City, Texas, Moeser holds two degrees from the University of Texas: a bachelor of music with honors in 1961 and a master of music in musicology in 1964. The Graduate School at Texas honored him with its 2001 Outstanding Alumnus Award. He studied in Berlin and Paris on a Fulbright Scholarship and earned a doctorate from the University of Michigan in 1967.

Moeser is married to Dr. Susan Dickerson Moeser, a fellow concert organist and music lecturer and University organist at Carolina. His children are a son, Chris, an attorney in Phoenix, Ariz., and a daughter, Carter, a physical therapist in Tacoma, Wash.

Dick Baddour

DIRECTOR OF ATHLETICS
40TH YEAR AT CAROLINA

Carolina is one of the most widely recognized and respected athletic programs in the country, known both for its commitment to academic integrity and competitive excellence in men's and women's sports. The leader of this 28-sport program is Goldsboro native Dick Baddour, who counts nine years as Director of Athletics among his 40 years of service to his alma mater.

The 1966 UNC graduate is committed to keeping the Tar Heels among the nation's elite, while maintaining the University's proud traditions of graduating its student-athletes and playing within NCAA and ACC rules. It's a balance Baddour often emphasizes to Carolina's coaches and staff.

"We want to be successful in every sport, but we also expect our coaches to recruit outstanding young people who are ready to excel academically, athletically and socially," says Baddour. "Fortunately, that has been the norm here for generations. That's why Carolina alumni are so proud of their athletics program – we have been blessed to compete successfully and we've been able to do that with great people."

In Baddour's nine years as Director of Athletics, the Tar Heels have won 49 Atlantic Coast Conference championships, eight more than Duke, which is second with 41 titles. Eighteen different UNC men's and women's sports have won ACC titles during his tenure. Carolina shared the ACC lead last year with five team titles.

In 2005-06, Carolina had 24 of 28 teams reach NCAA postseason competition and finished fourth in the NACDA Cup, which measures NCAA performance. This was the seventh time in the last nine years the Tar Heels were the highest finishing ACC program in the NACDA Cup. Carolina finished behind only Stanford, UCLA and Texas. It was Carolina's fifth consecutive Top 10 finish and seventh Top 10 showing during Baddour's tenure as athletic director. UNC has averaged a sixth-place finish in the last five years.

Carolina is the only school in the nation that has placed teams in a football bowl game, the NCAA Men's Basketball Final Four, the NCAA Women's Basketball Final Four and the NCAA Baseball College World Series in the last two seasons.

Two years ago, Baddour initiated the Carolina Leadership Academy, a training program for student-athletes, coaches and administrators. The program develops leadership skills through interactive workshops, 360-degree feedback, one-on-one coaching, peer mentoring and educational resources. Nearly 600 student-athletes have received training in the first two years, which was viewed as an overwhelming success by UNC's coaches.

During Baddour's tenure, the Tar Heels have won national championships in men's basketball, men's and women's soccer and field hockey, won two football bowl games and had numerous Top 10 national finishes in Olympic Sports. UNC has had 20 individual national champions in the last five seasons.

Baddour began his UNC career in 1967 as assistant dean of men. In 1971 he became assistant dean of undergraduate admissions. He served as Assistant Dean at the UNC School of Law from 1983 to 1986. He served as the school's director of admissions and scholarship programs, head of personnel and supervisor of career planning and placement.

Baddour spent 11 years as John Swofford's top assistant before being named the Director of Athletics on June 25, 1997. In 2001, he received a Distinguished Service Medal from the UNC General Alumni Association.

Baddour and his wife, Lynda, have three children. Allen, a superior court judge for Orange and Chatham Counties, and his wife, Holly, have two sons, Henry and Jack; David, an attorney with RTP-based Womble-Carlyle, and his wife, Carey, have a daughter, Lauren, and son, Johnathan; Jennifer, a family therapist in private practice in Cary, is married to Kevin Snead.

IT'S LIKELY THE MOST WELL-KNOWN COLOR IN COLLEGE SPORTS.

After all, the athletic achievements at the University of North Carolina are so distinctive that the color often bears the name of the school that made it famous – Carolina Blue.

Names like Justice, Jordan, Hamm, Rosenbluth, Ford, Love, Peppers, Beatty, Jones, Cunningham, Walsh, McCauley, Surhoff, Bly. They are just a few of the names that have had the opportunity to wear a Carolina jersey. There are more than 7,000 other names – some of which are Carolina legends, while some competed at the very highest level in virtual obscurity. They are bound by a common thread ... they played for the name on the front of the jersey – North Carolina.

These student-athletes are afforded this opportunity because of The Rams Club. Donors from across the country – alumni, fans and supporters – provide scholarships for more than 450 deserving young men and women annually to be a part of the Carolina Family.

UNC has always been committed to Athletics. It's a tradition the Rams Club continues today – a tradition that gives young men and women an opportunity To Wear The Blue.

DEAN E. SMITH CENTER

Dan Sears

Carolina basketball is competing in the Dean E. Smith Center for the 22nd season. The Tar Heels have played 282 games in the Smith Center in front of a combined audience of more than 5.6 million fans. Carolina has a 235-47 record in the Smith Center, a dominant winning percentage of 83.3.

Last year, Carolina's average attendance was the third-best in the nation. The Tar Heels have been in the top five in the national attendance leaders in 19 of the last 20 seasons.

The Smith Center has recently undergone a number of facelifts to keep it on the cutting edge of basketball arenas. Four new, high-resolution video boards were installed for the 2005-06 season. The dimensions of the boards are 17.8 feet x 23.6 feet, making them some of the largest indoor boards in the country.

During the 2004-05 season, two 50-foot long, high-resolution ribbon video boards were added to the fascia around the upper level of the Smith Center. At the same time, a 40-foot video board was added to the scorer's table.

In the early 2000s, the UNC locker room and weight room were completely renovated. A new media center was built and the Bowles Room and Rams Club offices were retrofitted to include a practice gym.

In 2000-01, a special standing-room-only section reserved for students opened on the baseline closest to the Carolina bench. The Rams Club funded a $150,000 renovation that allowed approximately 400 students to move courtside.

As a multi-purpose facility, the Smith Center has played host to a wide range of athletic events and concerts. In 1987, U.S. Olympic Festival basketball attracted a Smith Center record crowd of 23,713 for the gold medal game. In 1988, the venue served as the site of the first and second rounds of the NCAA East Regional. In 1994, the Smith Center hosted the NCAA Division I Wrestling Championships, attracting a three-day total of over 60,000 fans.

In 1999, the Smith Center and Koury Natatorium served as the basketball and aquatic venues for the 1999 Special Olympics World Summer Games.

Kenny Rogers staged the first concert in the arena on April 12, 1986. Other entertainers to perform here include the Grateful Dead, Garth Brooks and James Taylor.

Adjacent to the Smith Center is the Maurice J. Koury Natatorium. The natatorium features an eight-lane, 50-meter pool.

The Smith Center and Koury Natatorium also host such community activities as the Chapel Hill High School Commencement, American Cancer Society Swim-for-Life, the Kenan-Flagler Business School Dedication, University Blood Drive, University Career Fairs and December and May Commencement Exercises. Thousands of school children visit the Smith Center annually.

Prior to moving into the Smith Center, Carolina played its home games at Carmichael Auditorium. The Tar Heels were 169-20 at Carmichael. UNC debuted there on Dec. 4, 1965, against William and Mary, and finished play on Jan. 4, 1986, in a win over NC State.

In May 1980, the Department of Athletics, in conjunction with the Educational Foundation, embarked on a mission to raise millions of dollars from private donations to construct an arena. The real inspiration for the fund-raising effort came from the campaign chairman, the late Hargrove "Skipper" Bowles.

Six years, 2,362 donors and over $34 million later, the premiere basketball arena in America became a reality. Dedicated in September 1986 as the Dean Edwards Smith Center, the 300,000-square-foot structure stands on seven and one-half acres on the University's south campus. Over 20,000 cubic yards of rock were removed to make room for the 340-foot-wide, 380-foot-long and 140-foot-high building.

GREAT GAMES

The first game featured No. 1 Carolina defeating No. 3 Duke, 95-92, in a battle of unbeatens on Jan. 18, 1986. The first Tar Heel basket was scored by Carolina center Warren Martin off a pass from Kenny Smith. Since that first game, the Smith Center has been the site of many memorable moments in Tar Heel history.

✓ On Jan. 27, 1993, UNC trailed Florida State by 21 points with 11:48 to play in the game, but rallied for an 82-77 win. George Lynch's steal and dunk gave Carolina the lead.

✓ On Feb. 3, 1994, No. 2 Carolina beat No. 1 Duke, 89-78, in the first-ever matchup between the rivals in which the teams held the top two spots in the Associated Press poll.

✓ UNC and Duke repeated their No. 1 vs. No. 2 battle on Feb. 5, 1998, as the second-ranked Tar Heels routed the top-rated Blue Devils, 97-73. Antawn Jamison scored 35 points that evening, one of three occasions he netted at least 35 points in the Smith Center.

✓ On Feb. 8, 1992, UNC rallied from 22 points down to beat Wake Forest, the largest comeback in school history.

✓ On Jan. 17, 2004, Rashad McCants' three-pointer with 6.2 seconds remaining gave Carolina an 86-83 win over No. 1-ranked Connecticut. McCants scored UNC's last 10 points of the game.

✓ On March 6, 2005, Marvin Williams' three-point play with 17 seconds to go gave Carolina a 75-73 win over Duke to clinch the ACC regular-season title. Sean May had 26 points and 24 rebounds in the win.

THE SMITH CENTER JERSEYS

One of the most prominent features in the Smith Center is the series of banners rewarding the accomplishments of Carolina players and teams, including NCAA championship banners for 1956-57, 1981-82, 1992-93 and 2004-05, respectively. Also hanging high above the playing floor are 43 replica jerseys honoring Carolina's greatest individual standouts. To read more about the Smith Center jerseys, please see p. 128-137.

Note: should the team advance to New York in the NIT Tip-Off, there will be a press conference in New York on Tues., Nov. 21; Coach Williams and select players will be available for interviews in Tucson, Ariz., on Fri., Jan. 26, before the Arizona game.

TAR HEEL SPORTS NETWORK

Learfield Communications is the rights-holder for game broadcasts, Coach Williams' weekly live call-in show (each Monday evening at 7 p.m.) and TV show.

Woody Durham, former Tar Heel All-America center Eric Montross and Jones Angell make up the Tar Heel Sports Network broadcast team.

Durham is in his 36th year as voice of the Tar Heels. Montross earned All-America honors at Carolina in 1993 and 1994 and was the starting center on the 1993 NCAA champions.

Contact General Manager Gary Sobba and staff at (919) 419-8100.

See TarHeelBlue.com for more information on the Roy Williams TV show and for a list of radio stations that carry Carolina game broadcasts and coaches' shows.

CREDENTIALS

Send requests to Steve Kirschner at Athletic Communications, University of North Carolina, P.O. Box 2126, Chapel Hill, NC 27515-2126. Fax requests on letterhead stationery to (919) 962-0612 or email to stevekirschner@unc.edu.

Credentials will be mailed or held at media will call located in the UNC athletic communications office, which is on the second floor of the Smith Center just inside the media entrance.

Media with season credentials must contact Kirschner to guarantee a seat at individual games.

INTERVIEWS & PRACTICE

Contact Kirschner with interview requests for Roy Williams or to attend practice. Williams has a weekly press conference at the Smith Center that is usually available to out-of-town media via teleconference.

Make player interview requests to Matt Bowers. Player interviews are done before practice. Freshmen are available for interviews once they have played in a regular-season contest.

Players are not available for interviews on game day or on non-practice days. All requests must be made through the athletic communications office. Players will not participate in radio call-in shows, but are available to tape radio interviews. Due to contractual obligations, Coach Williams is unavailable to participate in radio call-in shows.

POSTGAME PRESS CONFERENCES

Players are available in the lounge adjacent to the locker room for 20 minutes following each home game. Coach Williams holds a postgame press conference in the media room.

ACC TELECONFERENCE

Roy Williams is available each Monday (beginning in January 2007) at 11:10 a.m. on the ACC teleconference. Please call Kirschner or Brian Morrison at the ACC at (336) 851-6062 for the number.

PHOTO COMPOUND

Photographers may transmit from the "Orange" locker room, adjacent to the visiting team's locker room. Jeffrey Camarati of UNC Athletic Communications coordinates this compound. Two dozen high-speed ethernet lines and an analog phone line are available. Statistics are brought to the photo compound.

Photographers are assigned floor shooting locations. Specific requests and special camera placements should be made ahead of time to Kirschner. Cameras are not permitted on the blue padding on the basket supports.

FILING

A dozen telephones are available in the media room. No courtside phone hookups are permitted at the Smith Center. High-speed wireless Internet access is available in the media room.

PARKING, SMITH CENTER ENTRANCE

Media park in the Bowles Lot on Skipper Bowles Drive, adjacent to the Kenan-Flagler Business School. Spaces are not reserved. Directions: NC Hwy 15-101 to Manning Drive, turn onto Bowles Drive and the Bowles Lot will be on your right at the bottom of the hill.

The media entrance is located near the basketball and athletic communications offices. All briefcases, computer bags and photography equipment are subject to search for security purposes.

TARHEELBLUE.COM

Carolina's official internet website is TarHeelBlue.com. The media guide, statistics, game notes, roster, schedule, feature stories by Tar Heel Monthly publisher Adam Lucas, and past season archives are available there.
